Entire Board Of Jammed Garfield School Quits

The three-member school board for Lancaster County School District 113 has resigned en masse.

The Garfield district, located at the west edge of Lincoln, has been plagued with enrollment and financial problems the past three years.

Resigning members are Henry F. Brt Jr., president; Mrs. Betty Schofield, and E. J. Ritchey.

Co. Supt. Glenn Turner acknowledged Wednesday that the single letter of resignation had been formally received by his office.

Their resignation, tendered "with regret," stated that "despite the efforts of this board, we feel educational facilities, due to overcrowding, are still inadequate."

New Permit OKd

Brt told The Star that "After the County Board approved a permit last week for a new trailer court in the area, we thought, 'What's the use?' " He said the school board had appeared before the commissioners and explained that the school was already very overcrowded.

"We had been working up to it," Brt said. "First the area (of the district) was made smaller by the Air Base so we had less tax money. However, we held a special meeting and voted a five-mill building levy in hopes that we could expand in the future."

He termed the County Board's action "the last straw."

"The situation is too big for us to handle and we felt Turner (county superintendent) could handle it better," Brt said.

Brt has two children attending the school, Ritchey, three, and Mrs. Schofield, two.

With an enrollment of 200 pupils or more, the district's two-room school had been expanded to six rooms—four of which are "makeshift" rooms in the school's basement and auditorium.

School enrollment has steadily increased with the reactivation of the Lincoln Air Force Base and the trailer courts which have sprung up in the district.

"We have attempted everything possible. . .," the board's resignation stated. "We request acceptance of this resignaiton for the betterment of the school."

Turner said the mass resignation was probably the first in the history of the state.

Turner said a copy of the board's resignation has been forwarded to State Superintendent of Public Instruction Freeman Decker with a request for the proper procedure to be followed.

Dr. Decker informed The Star that he would recommend to Turner that a special meeting of the school district be called.

"I am afraid that no one is willing to serve on the school board," Dr. Decker said, "in which event the district would have to be dissolved and attached to some other district in the area."

Turner has taken "no formal action" in accepting the board's resignation. No effective date was requested in the letter.

The situation has been under informal discussion with Decker, Turner said, because a mass resignation of a school board is not covered by Nebraska school laws.

Turner said a possible step, informally discussed, was the calling of a special election in the district for the nomination and election of a new board.

With individual resignations, remaining board members can appoint temporary members to fill vacancies, he said. "This is the first time to my knowledge that a whole board has resigned."

If the district is unable to form a new school board, Turner said, the dissolution of the district is a possible step.

Under certain conditions, the county superintendent has authority to dissolve a district and incorporate it into another district.

A school district without a school board may be such a situation, he added.

Adlai Tags Ike, Nixon, Dewey 'Big 3 Of GOP'

Demo Levels Special Blast At V.P.; Says His Trademark 'Slander'

By ED CREAGH

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson aimed his hardest blow of the campaign at Vice President Nixon Wednesday night, calling him "a man whose trademark is slander."

The Democratic presidential nominee also hit at Thomas E. Dewey, who spoke in the same hall Tuesday night, and linked both of them with President Eisenhower as the Republican "big three."

An audience that fell short of filling the 6,700 capacity auditorium in this industrial city cheered Stevenson's attack on all three Republican figures.

Stevenson took Eisenhower, Nixon and Dewey all to task for their criticism of his stand—which he regards as one of the major campaign issues—in favor of this country taking the lead in trying to ban hydrogen bomb tests by international agreement.

"Hooey" is what Stevenson called Dewey's remarks—"Hooey from Mr. Dewey."

And he said, devoting most of his address to the Vice President, that Nixon is untrustworthy, a disrupter of international relations, a "rash and inexperienced" representative of his country—in short, as he put it, a bad insurance risk for the No. 2 post in the government.

Whistle Stop

Stevenson spoke on a red-curtained stage at a rally partly intended to push the re-election campaign of Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams, who introduced him Wednesday night as he did all the way along a railroad whistle stop tour of the state.

It was at Flint in 1952 that Stevenson was photographed with a hole in the sole of his shoe—a fact that he recalled humorously in Wednesday night's speech noting that the worn sole had become a symbol of his campaign.

In fact, the candidate took part before his speech in an informal get-together with the man who took the picture, Bill Gallagher of the Flint Journal. Gallagher won a Pulitzer Prize for the picture.

Using throughout his address probably the most acid language he has employed in the campaign Stevenson said:

"Now Mr. Dewey has joined President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon in dismissing my proposal with epithet and scorn, to which Dewey has added sarcastic laughter.

"Such a solid facade—the Big Three of the ruling party in this country—will not be reassuring to those abroad who still look hopefully to the United States for leadership."

Stevenson centered his fire on Nixon, however.

Asserting the vice president has changed position repeatedly on such matters as the Korean war, Stevenson declared:

"There is no man who can safely say where the vice president stands. This is a man of many masks. Who can say they have seen his real face?

"And I think he used last month just the right words to describe his own conduct during the Indochina crisis—he was 'rash and irresponsible.' "

Nixon told a group of editors in a supposedly off-the-record speech during the Indochina conflict that he favored using American troops if necessary to stop the Communist advance.

"Within a few weeks," Stevenson said, "he was proudly proclaiming that the administration had kept us out of war."

Ike Calls Demo Claims 'Fables'

President Scoffs At Democrats As Dealers In 'Big Straddle'

By ARTHUR EDSON

SEATTLE (AP) — President Eisenhower Wednesday night scoffed at Adlai Stevenson and the Democrats as dealers in the "half truth," "the big straddle" and "political fables."

In the hardest hitting speech he has made in the campaign so far, he told a cheering capacity crowd of 6,500 in Civic Auditorium that Democratic talk reminded him of the "angry hum of a locust-swarm of partisan orators."

Eisenhower said the Democrats made it sound as if America had been "just lately swept by famine and pestilence."

He slashed into the Democrats again on the farm issue, declaring the nation's farm lands are "richer and more productive than ever."

He added bitingly:

"And while a few politicians may go on implying that the sagebrush and the prairie dogs are taking over the land, they cannot make the American people believe any such things. I doubt that they have ever been able to convince the prairie dogs."

As usual, Eisenhower never referred to Stevenson by name. But he came close. He called his Democratic foe "the opposition candidate."

Fight On Hands

Eisenhower was introduced by Washington's Gov. Arthur B. Langlie, who has a terrific fight on his hands trying to win the seat now held by Democratic Sen. Warren Magnuson.

Langlie, the keynoter at the Republican National Convention, warmed up the crowd with a rip-snorting speech in which he lambasted Stevenson and Magnuson with equal enthusiasm.

But he told an audience which also included statewide television and radio listeners that if the GOP is to win the election, especially on the local level, "it means hard work on the part of all of us."

The crowd was so enthusiastic Eisenhower had trouble beginning his talk. Cries of "We want Ike" delayed him a couple of minutes.

Crowd Thanked

"Thank you very much," said the President. "I want you too."

And, a moment later, before launching into his prepared speech he said: "Your welcome reminds me how well I've been feeling for quite some time now."

But Eisenhower soon got down to the Democrats—and the gloomy picture he said they have been painting.

"When I heard such words," the President said, "and when I look at the facts, I wonder one thing. I wonder if the cry of the political opposition is not simply this:

"Things in America are rapidly going from bad—to good."

'Vigorous'

Eisenhower began his speech with a long recital of what he called "the signs of a vigorous and dynamic people at work."

And after ticking them off—"the smoky fury of our factories," the St. Lawrence Seaway, the removal of slums—he turned to the way he said the Democrats described this picture.

"They are singing a strange, sad song," Eisenhower said, "about a feeble and freftul America.

"Only a few weeks ago, too, they wrote a dark and mournful document—the platform of the opposition.

"When that document was published, one of our great independent newspapers summed it up concisely: One might have thought its authors inhabited some land just lately swept by famine and pestilence."

Here in the Northwest, which is acutely conscious of conservation programs, Eisenhower attacked a theme that Stevenson has used repeatedly: that the GOP is a "give-away" administration.

Eisenhower's reply:

"No, there has been no 'give-away.' We have not dismantled the great dams of the Northwest. We are building still more dams—generating still more power—for all the people."

1 Killed, 2 Injured In Gang Fight

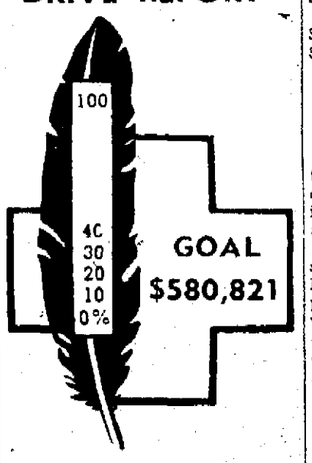

CHICAGO (AP)—Police said five youthful gang members roared their automobile into a southwest side park Wednesday night and attacked three other youths with guns and knives. One was killed and the other two injured.

Dead was Warren Wright, 17, shot in the right side of the chest. Injured were Edward Milot, 18, shot in the right arm and chest, and Richard Bukovic, 19, slashed on the face.

Police said a melee involving other teen-age boys followed but that the five attackers escaped in their auto, a 1950 convertible model which later was found abandoned.

The fight occurred at Cornell Square Park at 50th and Wood Streets.

Two GOP Ex-Governors To Speak At NFO Meeting

Former Republican governors of Nebraska and Iowa who have endorsed the national Democratic ticket and the Democratic farm program will speak at the First Congressional District meeting of the National Farm Organization here Monday, Oct. 22.

Former Nebraska Governor Adam McMullen and former Iowa Governor Dan Turner will be the featured speakers at the district conclave.

The meeting, which is open to the public, will be held at the Lincoln Hotel from 12 noon to 5 p.m., said Fay H. Moore of Nemaha, who helped organize the NFO in Nebraska.

Staley, Sorrell Also

Orin Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., national president of the NFO, and Frank Sorrell of Syracuse, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, will also speak at the meeting.

Phil Weaver of Falls City, Republican Congressman from the First District, and Governor Victor Anderson have also been invited to speak, Moore said.

Turner's announcement in August supporting the Stevenson-Kefauver ticket was followed shortly by a separate announcement by McMullen, which stated that Republican farm polices were "dangerous" and that a return to a Democratic farm program calling for high, rigid price supports was necessary to save the farmer.

Weaver, who voted for 90 per cent parity supports during Congressional farm debate, endorsed the call for high supports.

Sorrell has also called for high supports during his campaign.

The NFO meeting will also set up resolutions for the district and elect officers and county delegates to the NFO board of directors, Moore said.

He urged all farmers who do not belong to the NFO to feel free to attend the meeting.

Counties invited to attend the district convention including some from outside the First District, are Richardson, Nemaha, Pawnee, Johnson, Gage, Lancaster, Jefferson, Thayer, Fillmore, Saline, Phelps, Otoe, Cass, Buffalo, Sarpy.

Current Problem Has Lincoln's Police In Dark

Lincoln police were in the dark Wednesday night—literally.

A transformer burned out about 8:25 p.m. and plunged the fire and police departments into darkness for 80 minutes. Partial power was restored at 9:45 and full power about 11 o'clock.

Short wave contact with police cars and motorcycles was not impared as an auxilary power source was put into use.

Hall Will Talk After Election

Testimony Agreed

WASHINGTON (INS) — GOP chairman Leonard W. Hall agreed Wednesday to appear—but after the elections—before a House subcommittee investigating political influence in the award of government contracts.

Hall was invited to testify Thursday or Friday before a House Government Operations subcommittee headed by Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Tex).

The subcommittee has been investigating contracts awarded for a 43-million-dollar construction job at the government's nickel plant at Nicaro, Cuba.

In inviting Hall, Brooks said he did so because his name "has been mentioned frequently in connection with these contract negotiations."

The Texas Democrat added that the subcommittee will make public confidential documents which he claims show the Republicans played politics in awarding contracts for the Nicaro project.

Hall wrote Brooks that his campaign duties make it impossible for him to appear now.

He added: "I know that you in all fairness would not want to do anything to impair the conduct of this campaign in the homestretch hours."

Aid May Be Renounced

Yugoslavia Balks At Decision Announced By Eisenhower

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslavia said Wednesday Eisenhower's statement on continued American aid to this country contained things which were unacceptable to President Tito's government.

Denying the existence of any threat to Yugoslavia from the Soviet Union, the Foreign Ministry announced this Communist nation would renounce United States aid "in case the American government considers it difficult to continue it."

President Eisenhower decided Monday that U.S. economic aid to Yugoslavia would be continued but delivery of important military aid, including 200 jet warplanes, would be held up. The decision came after Tito spent 16 days in private talks with the top leaders of the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower said he believed Yugoslavia remained independent of Moscow control, but the military aid would be withheld until the situation could be more accurately assessed.

The Yugoslavs said the President indicated economic aid was being continued to preserve Yugoslavia's independence.

"We consider that there is no threat to the independence of Yugoslavia on the part of the Soviet Union," the Foreign Ministry statement declared.

It said Yugoslavia appreciated the efforts of President Eisenhower to continue aid to this country, as outlined in his letter Monday to the U. S. Senate and House. But a Foreign Ministry representative said the Eisenhower statement "contains elements which are not in conformity with principles of independent and equal cooperation" between the two countries.

Equal Basis

The statement added that Yugoslavia would continue to follow a policy of "cooperation with all countries on an equal basis."

The point of equality was the bone of contention between the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia during the feud between Stalin and Tito which began in 1948 and lasted until well after Stalin's death in 1953.

The Yugoslav statement said Tito's government has proposed a new form of economic aid which would enable this country to buy American farm surpluses on long-term credits "which would be returned in dollars or some corresponding currency." It said this would "correspond more to the interests of Yugoslavia and the United States."

Yugoslavia, suffering from the effects of a drought, had asked for about 1,200,000 tons of wheat under the U. S. farm surplus sales program. It also asked for cotton, tallow, lard and edible oils. The Russians are reported to have promised Yugoslavia 300,000 tons of wheat.

Policy On Fight OK In Israel

. . . Premier Backed

JERUSALEM (INS) — Premier David Ben-Gurion's militant policy in the Arab-Israeli crisis was overwhelmingly approved Wednesday by Parliament.

The Knesset endorsed Ben-Gurion's foreign policy 76 to 13. Only the Communists and extreme right wing preventive war bloc — both of whom were scored by Ben-Gurion in his report — opposed the government.

(In Cairo, the newspaper Al Shaab published a statement by Maj. Gen. Abdel Amer, Egypt's war minister. Amer said that "Egyptian forces would go into battle immediately if there is any aggression or threat of aggression against Jordan.")

Ben-Gurion made these points in his deailed review of the tense border situation.

1. Israel will not fight a preventive war, but, if attacked, will wage an all-out fight.
2. Israel wants peace but not "at any price."
3. Israel's military development would "not be sufficient" without arms aid from the United States.
4. The country should not be "over-optimistic" about the last minute Jordanian decision not to permit Iraqi troops to cross into Jordan.
5. Israel must recognize its "most dangerous enemy . . . the Egyptian dictator (President Gamal Abdel Nasser) who wishes to conquer the Arab world and liquidate us."

Square Off

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (INS) — Israel and Jordon squared off Wednesday for new showdown before the U.N. Security Council Friday on the bloody frontier clashes which have virtually crumbled the cease-fire arranged by Dag Hammarskjold last spring.

The U.N. Secretary General is expected to seize the opportunity to make a new bid at the council meeting for rigid compliance by both sides with the Palestine armistice agreement and to check once and for all, the growing chain of border raids and counter-attacks.

The 11-nation council was summoned into session at 8:30 a.m. (CST) on Friday to consider a Jordanian complaint against the Israeli reprisal attack last week which marked the latest of the recurring Jordan-Israeli armed clashes. Scores were killed or wounded in the raid.

RAIN! In Nebraska's 30-Day Forecast

The almost-forgotten word "rain" appears in the 30-day Weather Bureau forecast for Nebraska—and not just a little bit, but an above average amount.

The only area of the state not so favored is the northwestern corner, which will again receive subnormal amounts, according to the forecast.

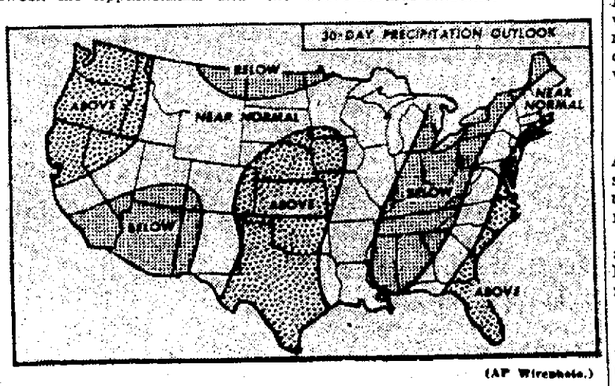

Drought-stricken central and southern Plains will receive "rainfall equal to or greater than normal amounts," it was predicted.

The forecast covered from mid-October to mid-November.

Most areas of Nebraska have not received any appreciable rainfall in a month and a half.

On the other side of the 30-day outlook, temperatures in the state were to be "above seasonal normal."

Normal rainfall amounts were expected on the Atlantic coast and Pacific northwest with subnormal amounts in the southwest and between the Appalachians and the Mississippi. Most other areas were predicted to receive normal to above-normal amounts.

The Yugoslavs said the President indicated economic aid was being continued to preserve Yugoslavia's independence.

"We consider that there is no threat to the independence of Yugoslavia on the part of the Soviet Union," the Foreign Ministry statement declared.

It said Yugoslavia appreciated the efforts of President Eisenhower to continue aid to this country, as outlined in his letter Monday to the U. S. Senate and House. But a Foreign Ministry representative said the Eisenhower statement "contains elements which are not in conformity with principles of independent and equal cooperation" between the two countries.

Equal Basis

The statement added that Yugoslavia would continue to follow a policy of "cooperation with all countries on an equal basis."

The point of equality was the bone of contention between the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia during the feud between Stalin and Tito which began in 1948 and lasted until well after Stalin's death in 1953.

The Yugoslav statement said Tito's government has proposed a new form of economic aid which would enable this country to buy American farm surpluses on long-term credits "which would be returned in dollars or some corresponding currency." It said this would "correspond more to the interests of Yugoslavia and the United States."

Yugoslavia, suffering from the effects of a drought, had asked for about 1,200,000 tons of wheat under the U. S. farm surplus sales program. It also asked for cotton, tallow, lard and edible oils. The Russians are reported to have promised Yugoslavia 300,000 tons of wheat.

Policy On Fight OK In Israel

. . . Premier Backed

JERUSALEM (INS) — Premier David Ben-Gurion's militant policy in the Arab-Israeli crisis was overwhelmingly aprroved Wednesday by Parliament.

The Knesset endorsed Ben-Gurion's foreign policy 76 to 13. Only the Communists and extreme right wing preventive war bloc — both of whom were scored by Ben-Gurion in his report — opposed the government.

(In Cairo, the newspaper Al Shaab published a statement by Maj. Gen. Abdel Amer, Egypt's war minister. Amer said that "Egyptian forces would go into battle immediately if there is any aggression or threat of aggression against Jordan.")

Ben-Gurion made these points in his deailed review of the tense border situation.

1. Israel will not fight a preventive war, but, if attacked, will wage an all-out fight.

2. Israel wants peace but not "at any price."

3. Israel's military development would "not be sufficient" without arms aid from the United States.

4. The country should not be "over-optimistic" about the last minute Jordanian decision not to permit Iraqi troops to cross into Jordan.

5. Israel must recognize its "most dangerous enemy . . . the Egyptian dictator (President Gamal Abdel Nasser) who wishes to conquer the Arab world and liquidate us."

Square Off

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (INS) — Israel and Jordon squared off Wednesday for new showdown before the U.N. Security Council Friday on the bloody frontier clashes which have virtually crumbled the cease-fire arranged by Dag Hammarskjold last spring.

The U.N. Secretary General is expected to seize the opportunity to make a new bid at the council meeting for rigid compliance by both sides with the Palestine armistice agreement and to check once and for all, the growing chain of border raids and counter-attacks.

The 11-nation council was summoned into session at 8:30 a.m. (CST) on Friday to consider a Jordanian complaint against the Israeli reprisal attack last week which marked the latest of the recurring Jordan-Israeli armed clashes. Scores were killed or wounded in the raid.

Adlai Tags Ike, Nixon, Dewey 'Big 3 Of GOP'

Demo Levels Special Blast At V.P.; Says His Trademark 'Slander'

By ED CREAGH

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Adlai Stevenson aimed his hardest blow of the campaign at Vice President Nixon Wednesday night, calling him "a man whose trademark is slander."

The Democratic presidential nominee also hit at Thomas E. Dewey, who spoke in the same hall Tuesday night, and linked both of them with President Eisenhower as the Republican "big three."

An audience that fell short of filling the 6,700 capacity auditorium in this industrial city cheered Stevenson's attack on all three Republican figures.

Stevenson took Eisenhower, Nixon and Dewey all to task for their criticism of his stand—which he regards as one of the major campaign issues—in favor of this country taking the lead in trying to ban hydrogen bomb tests by international agreement.

"Hooey" is what Stevenson called Dewey's remarks—"Hooey from Mr. Dewey."

And he said, devoting most of his address to the Vice President, that Nixon is untrustworthy, a disrupter of international relations, a "rash and inexperienced" representative of his country—in short, as he put it, a bad insurance risk for the No. 2 post in the government.

Whistle Stop

Stevenson spoke on a red-curtained stage at a rally partly intended to push the re-election campaign of Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams, who introduced him Wednesday night as he did all the way along a railroad whistle stop tour of the state.

It was at Flint in 1952 that Stevenson was photographed with a hole in the sole of his shoe—a fact that he recalled humorously in Wednesday night's speech noting that the worn sole had become a symbol of his campaign.

In fact, the candidate took part before his speech in an informal get-together with the man who took the picture, Bill Gallagher of the Flint Journal. Gallagher won a Pulitzer Prize for the picture.

Using throughout his address probably the most acid language he has employed in the campaign Stevenson said:

"Now Mr. Dewey has joined President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon in dismissing my proposal with epithet and scorn, to which Dewey has added sarcastic laughter.

"Such a solid facade—the Big Three of the ruling party in this country—will not be reassuring to those abroad who still look hopefully to the United States for leadership."

Stevenson centered his fire on Nixon, however.

Asserting the vice president has changed position repeatedly on such matters as the Korean war, Stevenson declared:

"There is no man who can safely say where the vice president stands. This is a man of many masks. Who can say they have seen his real face?

"And I think he used last month just the right words to describe his own conduct during the Indochina crisis—he was 'rash and irresponsible.' "

Nixon told a group of editors in a supposedly off-the-record speech during the Indochina conflict that he favored using American troops if necessary to stop the Communist advance.

"Within a few weeks," Stevenson said, "he was proudly proclaiming that the administration had kept us out of war."

1 Killed, 2 Injured In Gang Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—Police said five youthful gang members roared their automobile into a southwest side park Wednesday night and attacked three other youths with guns and knives. One was killed and the other two injured.

Dead was Warren Wright, 17, shot in the right side of the chest. Injured were Edward Milot, 18, shot in the right arm and chest, and Richard Bukovic, 19, slashed on the face.

Police said a melee involving other teen-age boys followed but that the five attackers escaped in their auto, a 1950 convertible model which later was found abandoned.

The fight occurred at Cornell Square Park at 50th and Wood Streets.

Weather Won't Change Much

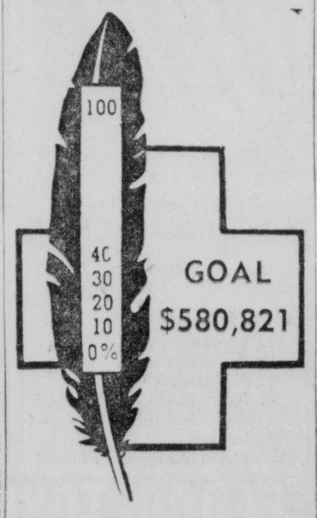

Thursday's high readings were to be in the 80's, following Wednesday's 69 to 80-degree temperature, indicating little change in temperatures, the Weather Bureau said.

Generally fair weather was scheduled for the state through Friday, with slightly cooler temperatures in the extreme Northwest Friday.

Temperatures were to average eight to 12 degrees above normal for the next five days with no freezing lows expected. Precipitation was to continue below normal and "little if any" was predicted in the five-day forecast.

An 80-degree reading at Lincoln Air Force Base was the state's high Wednesday and a freezing 32 at Scottsbluff was the low.

Lincoln police were in the dark Wednesday night—literally.

A transformer burned out about 8:25 p.m. and plunged the fire and police departments into darkness for 80 minutes. Partial power was restored at 9:45 and full power about 11 o'clock.

Short wave contact with police cars and motorcycles was not impared as an auxilary power source was put into use.

Hall Will Talk After Election

Testimony Agreed

WASHINGTON (INS) — GOP chairman Leonard W. Hall agreed Wednesday to appear—but after the elections—before a House subcommittee investigating political influence in the award of government contracts.

Hall was invited to testify Thursday or Friday before a House Government Operations subcommittee headed by Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Tex).

The subcommittee has been investigating contracts awarded for a 43-million-dollar construction job at the government's nickel plant at Nicaro, Cuba.

In inviting Hall, Brooks said he did so because his name "has been mentioned frequently in connection with these contract negotiations."

The Texas Democrat added that the subcommittee will make public confidential documents which he claims show the Republicans played politics in awarding contracts for the Nicaro project.

Hall wrote Brooks that his campaign duties make it impossible for him to appear now.

He added: "I know that you in all fairness would not want to do anything to impair the conduct of this campaign in the homestretch hours."

RAIN! In Nebraska's 30-Day Forecast

The almost-forgotten word "rain" appears in the 30-day Weather Bureau forecast for Nebraska—and not just a little bit, but an above average amount.

The only area of the state not so favored is the northwestern corner, which will again receive subnormal amounts, according to the forecast.

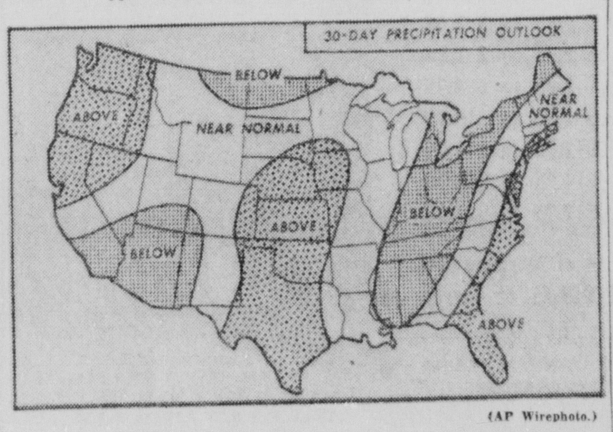

Drought-stricken central and southern Plains will receive "rainfall equal to or greater than normal amounts," it was predicted.

The forecast covered from mid-October to mid-November.

Most areas of Nebraska have not received any appreciable rainfall in a month and a half.

On the other side of the 30-day outlook, temperatures in the state were to be "above seasonal normal."

Normal rainfall amounts were expected on the Atlantic coast and Pacific northwest with subnormal amounts in the southwest and between the Appalachians and the Mississippi. Most other areas were predicted to receive normal to above-normal amounts.

JAMES BURMEISTER
. . . had the urge to kill

246-Pound Florida Man Slays Three

. . . Wife And Children

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A 246-pound man who said he had a sudden desire to kill Wednesday plunged a knife 72 times into his wife and two children, killing them all

Detective Lt. Earl Newberry said James G. Burmeister, 28, stated "I suddenly had the urge to kill them all."

Burmeister, curly-haired and standing 6 feet 2, has been under a psychiatrist's treatment for several months. In the spring he was confined for weeks in a hospital with a mental ailment.

He first stabbed his wife, Mary, 32, in the back, turned to his 3-year-old son, James Jr., and finally hacked away at his 9-month-old daughter, Marilyn.

Burmeister then put the bodies of the children in a bathtub and filled it with water. He stuffed his wife's head into a pail of water.

The death weapon was a combat knife with a 6¼-inch blade. Burmeister still gripped it when officers arrested him in his small apartment.

Rain, Wind Slap Dixie Coastline

. . . 2 Dead In Florida

CAPE HATTERAS, N C (AP)—Winds of 35-45 miles an hour and high tides buffeted the coast along the Carolinas early Thursday as an Atlantic storm continued to move slowly northward.

The Weather Bureau in Washington said storm warnings were displayed from south of Block Island, R I, to Cape Hatteras including the southern half of Chesapeake Bay.

Warnings south of Cape Hatteras had been lowered, but small craft along the North and South Carolina coasts were advised to remain in port

Tides along the North Carolina and Virginia coast were one to two feet above normal. No major damage was reported. Heavy rains moving ahead of the storm center had reached southeast Virginia, and the rains were expected to spread into Delaware and southern New Jersey Thursday.

Crops Damaged

The storm left two dead in Florida, where crop damage was extensive in some sections.

Temperatures remained mostly mild in the path of the big blow, and Weather Bureau officials expected skies to clear quickly in its wake.

The 60-foot shrimp trawler Beulah, out of Southport, N. C, rode out the storm about seven miles off the Savannah, Ga., lightship, along with its would-be rescuer, the Coast Guard cutter Aurora The Aurora, with only part of its crew on duty, answered the rudderless Beulah's distress signal Monday and both had to wait out high seas and winds up to 55 m.p.h. Afterward they proceeded to Savannah harbor.

BROTHER SAYS EISENHOWER MIGHT LOSE

SEATTLE (INS) — Edgar Eisenhower, brother of the President, frankly admitted in Seattle Wednesday the President might lose the election next month.

The Tacoma attorney, who opposed his brother's running four years ago, said this time he is working hard to get him re-elected. He said:

"We have a tough campaign ahead of us.

"These folks (the Democrats) are making such wild claims that it is going to be hard to overcome them. Naturally, mothers want to hear that their sons won't be drafted. But such a thing is impractical.

"I am afraid of this attitude of indifference. We need a heavy vote. And if we get a heavy vote, we will elect him by a big margin."

Senate Gain For Demos Forecast

. . . By Smathers

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Democratic Senate campaign chairman predicted Wednesday that his party will pick up a net gain of three to four seats over the Republicans in the November senatorial elections

Smathers

Sen Smathers (D-Fla) said in a statement his forecast was based on a survey taken recently in four key states — Kentucky, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and New York

The Democrats now control the Senate by a margin of 49 to 47 If Smathers' prediction is sustained by the election results, they would have a 52 to 44 or a 53 to 43 edge.

Smathers said reports from Kentucky, where two Senate seats are to be filled, show that Democratic Sen Clements and former Gov Lawrence Wetherby, also running on the Democratic ticket, have gained support since their endorsement of the state's road bond issue.

United Lutherans Reject Enforced Race Segregation

HARRISBURG, Pa (AP) — The United Lutheran Church condemned enforced racial segregation, but rejected an outright endorsement of the Supreme Court decision outlawing it in the public schools.

In a hectic closing session, the church's biennial convention voted down a proposed declaration that the court ruling is "in harmony with Christian convictions."

That portion was stricken from a statement urging church congregations to take the lead in demonstrating "the possibility of integration."

A "weak and ineffective statement," declared the Rev. Paul L. Roth, of Kenosha, Wis

But the Rev. Frank Efird, of Salisbury, N C, called it "courageous, Christian and consistent"—and one that won't "divide our people."

Weather Ahead

Temperatures will average near 10 degrees above normal; normal highs in the middle 60s; normal minimum temperatures from the high 30s northwest to the middle 40s southeast, cooler Friday, warmer again over the weekend Precipitation may average up to one-fourth of an inch as showers near the end of the period.

Engine Failure On Ill-Fated Airliner Puzzles Experts

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Experts began investigating a "technically impossible" breakdown of two engines that led to the ditching of a Pan-American Stratocruiser in the Pacific Ocean.

Meanwhile, a rescue ship steamed toward San Francisco with the plane's 31 passengers and crew members. All were rescued without mishap shortly after the ditching 1,000 miles southwest of San Francisco

The Coast Guard cutter Pontchartrain was due at 7:30 a.m. Friday with the 20 men, 8 women, and 3 children who were aboard Pan-American's 'Sovereign of the Skies."

Two engines went out almost simultaneously, a development so rare James E Conner, Pan-American's Pacific-Alaska division maintenance manager, said it has been considered 'technically impossible."

Britain Now Cooking With A-Power

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission is spending forty million dollars and the Duquesne Light Co. five million on a pressurized-water reactor there to generate 60,000 kilowatts of electricity for the company's Greater Pittsburgh power system.

Queen Elizabeth said of the Calder Hall project:

"It may well prove to have been among the greatest of our contribbillions to human welfare that we led the way in demonstrating the peaceful uses of this new source of power."

JAMES BURMEISTER
. . . had the urge to kill

246-Pound Florida Man Slays Three

. . . Wife And Children

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — A 246-pound man who said he had a sudden desire to kill Wednesday plunged a knife 72 times into his wife and two children, killing them all.

Detective Lt. Earl Newberry said James G. Burmeister, 28, stated "I suddenly had the urge to kill them all."

Burmeister, curly-haired and standing 6 feet 2, has been under a psychiatrist's treatment for several months. In the spring he was confined for weeks in a hospital with a mental ailment.

He first stabbed his wife, Mary, 32, in the back, turned to his 3-year-old son, James Jr., and finally hacked away at his 9-month-old daughter, Marilyn.

Burmeister then put the bodies of the children in a bathtub and filled it with water. He stuffed his wife's head into a pail of water.

The death weapon was a combat knife with a 6¾-inch blade. Burmeister still gripped it when officers arrested him in his small apartment.

Newberry said Burmeister is a power company lineman and an ex-marine.

The Peru and Kearney meetings will precede football games between the Wesleyan Plainsmen and the State Teachers Colleges in those towns. The Peru group will meet October 20, and the Kearney group will meet November 9. The Sidney meet is scheduled for November 28.

Hill said that the Peru meeting will begin with a picnic at 12 noon in Neal Park in Peru. He said that all southeast Nebraska alumni and friends of the school were invited.

Hill plans to have a program of slides depicting the life of Nebraska Wesleyan at Kearney and Sidney. Chancellor A. Leland Forrest will also appear at the Sidney meeting.

Chairmen of the local meetings are: Mrs. Hubert Benson in Peru; the Rev. Robert Townsend in Sidney; and Kenneth Dryden in Kearney.

A resident of Schuyler since 1900, he taught school nine years after graduation from Fremont Normal College and founded the Schuyler Messenger in 1909. He was editor and publisher until its merger with the Schuyler Sun, now published by his son, Amos.

Rain, Wind Slap Dixie Coastline

. . . 2 Dead In Florida

CAPE HATTERAS, N.C. (AP)—Winds of 35-45 miles an hour and high tides buffeted the coast along the Carolinas early Thursday as an Atlantic storm continued to move slowly northward.

The Weather Bureau in Washington said storm warnings were displayed from south of Block Island, R.I., to Cape Hatteras, including the southern half of Chesapeake Bay.

Warnings south of Cape Hatteras had been lowered, but small craft along the North and South Carolina coasts were advised to remain in port.

Tides along the North Carolina and Virginia coast were one to two feet above normal. No major damage was reported. Heavy rains moving ahead of the storm center had reached southeast Virginia, and the rains were expected to spread into Delaware and southern New Jersey Thursday.

Crops Damaged

The storm left two dead in Florida, where crop damage was extensive in some sections.

Temperatures remained mostly mild in the path of the big blow, and Weather Bureau officials expected skies to clear quickly in its wake.

The 60-foot shrimp trawler Beulah, out of Southport, N. C., rode out the storm about seven miles off the Savannah, Ga., lightship, along with its would-be rescuer, the Coast Guard cutter Aurora. The Aurora, with only part of its crew on duty, answered the rudderless Beulah's distress signal Monday and both had to wait out high seas and winds up to 55 m.p.h. Afternoon they proceeded to Savannah harbor.

BROTHER SAYS EISENHOWER MIGHT LOSE

SEATTLE (INS) — Edgar Eisenhower, brother of the President, frankly admitted in Seattle Wednesday the President might lose the election next month.

The Tacoma attorney, who opposed his brother's running four years ago, said this time he is working hard to get him re-elected. He said:

"We have a tough campaign ahead of us.

"These folks (the Democrats) are making such wild claims that it is going to be hard to overcome them. Naturally, mothers want to hear that their sons won't be drafted. But such a thing is impractical.

"I am afraid of this attitude of indifference. We need a heavy vote. And if we get a heavy vote, we will elect him by a big margin."

Mrs. Black Heads Historical Group

BATTLE CREEK, Neb. — Mrs. Walter Black of Meadow Grove was re-elected chairman of the Madison County Historical Society at the annual meeting held in Battle Creek.

Other officers include Mrs. Sadie Grant, Meadow Grove, re-elected vice chairman; Mrs. H. E. Reavis, Norfolk, secretary; and Mrs. C. J. Kortman, Madison, custodian.

Senate Gain For Demos Forecast

. . . By Smathers

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Democratic Senate campaign chairman predicted Wednesday that his party will pick up a net gain of three to four seats over the Republicans in the November senatorial elections.

Smathers

Sen. Smathers (D-Fla) said in a statement his forecast was based on a survey taken recently in four key states — Kentucky, Connecticut, Pennsylvania and New York.

The Democrats now control the Senate by a margin of 49 to 47. If Smathers' prediction is sustained by the election results, they would have a 52 to 44 or a 53 to 43 edge.

Smathers said reports from Kentucky, where two Senate seats are to be filled, show that Democratic Sen. Clements and former Gov. Lawrence Wetherby, also running on the Democratic ticket, have gained support since their endorsement of the state's road bond issue.

United Lutherans Reject Enforced Race Segregation

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The United Lutheran Church condemned enforced racial segregation, but rejected an outright endorsement of the Supreme Court decision outlawing it in the public schools.

In a hectic closing session, the church's biennial convention voted down a proposed declaration that the court ruling is "in harmony with Christian convictions."

That portion was stricken from a statement urging church congregations to take the lead in demonstrating "the possibility of integration."

A "weak and ineffective statement," declared the Rev. Paul L. Roth, of Kenosha, Wis.

But the Rev. Frank Efird, of Salisbury, N.C., called it "courageous, Christian and consistent"—and one that won't "divide our people."

Weather Ahead

Temperatures will average near 10 degrees above normal; normal highs in the middle 60s; normal minimum temperatures from the high 30s northwest to the middle 40s southeast; cooler Friday, warmer again over the weekend. Precipitation may average up to one-fourth of an inch as showers near the end of the period.

MISS TOWNE TO DIVORCE JACK WEBB

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—For the third time Jack Webb and Dorothy Towne have separated. This time it's to be a divorce and the complaint will be filed for Mrs. Webb at the end of the week by her lawyer, Sylvan Covey. Attorney Covey says the property settlement is all worked out but not yet signed.

Dorothy Towne

The blonde beauty and the famous "Joe Friday" of the "Dragnet" TV series were married in Chicago in February, 1955, and for a time their life together was stormy because Dorothy felt that Jack worked too hard and didn't pay her enough attention. She filed for a legal seperation and then withdrew her complaint.

Mrs. Webb is still living in her Encino home but will move out as soon as the property settlement is signed.

The 36-year-old Webb said that the whole divorce will be amicable with no fireworks whatsoever.

Webb is the father of two children by his former wife, Julie London—Stacy, 6, and Lisa, 4.

It is understood that the property settlement will call for Jack to pay Dorothy more than $100,000.

Hagerty To Get Powell Recording

. . . On Ike's Talk

SEATTLE (AP) — White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty arranged Wednesday to review a recording of remarks attributed to Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY) on the school integration matter.

The Negro lawmaker last week came out for re-election of President Eisenhower after conferring with the chief executive at the White House.

In Harlem, New York Negro area, Powell made a speech last Saturday night and the Columbia Broadcasting System, which recorded the talk, has quoted him as saying he asked Eisenhower at the White House:

"I then said to the President: Mr. President, in the event that a school district refused to obey the decision of the federal court, what do you advocate?"

Not Clear

The remark was made against the background of the Supreme Court ruling against racial segregation in schools. It was not clear whether Powell was talking about the high tribunal's decision or its later ruling leaving enforcement to federal district courts.

Engine Failure On Ill-Fated Airliner Puzzles Experts

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Experts began investigating a "technically impossible" breakdown of two engines that led to the ditching of a Pan-American Stratocruiser in the Pacific Ocean.

Meanwhile, a rescue ship steamed toward San Francisco with the plane's 31 passengers and crew members. All were rescued without mishap shortly after the ditching 1,000 miles southwest of San Francisco.

The Coast Guard cutter Pontchartrain was due at 7:30 a.m. Friday with the 20 men, 8 women, and 3 children who were aboard Pan-American's "Sovereign of the Skies."

Two engines went out almost simultaneously, a development so rare James E. Conner, Pan-American's Pacific-Alaska division maintenance manager, said it has been considered "technically impossible."

Plush Carpet

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The plush Hollywood carpet will be out for President Eisenhower on his campaign visit to California Friday.

The President will speak in Hollywood Bowl that night. The entertainment program preceding his address is scheduled to include Bob Hope, Jerry Lewis, Jeanette MacDonald, Ginger Rogers, James Stewart, John Wayne, Walt Disney, Gordon MacRae, and Abbott and Costello. Gov. Knight will introduce the President.

Marine Boss, In Japan With Wife, Expects Men's Dependents To Go Home

. . . May Order 25 'On Carpet'

TOKYO (Thursday) — (INS)— The head of the United States Marine Corps admitted he had no right to order dependents out of Japan but made it clear he wants and expects them to go back home.

The statement was made by corps Commandant Gen Randolph McC Pate upon his arrival in Tokyo as 26 additional Marine dependents prepared to sail for the U S The four-star general declared

"I must make it plain I realize that neither I nor any other military man has the authority to order dependents to return to the U S."

But he added·

"I have the right, however, just as has been the practice in our corps, to expect that Marines who are heads of households will loyally do their utmost to carry out my announced policy . And I have the right to request them to indicate to me their reasons for failing to observe this policy."

Thus, Pate intimated he would order 25 Japan-stationed Marines on the carpet" for explanations unless their wives change their minds and go home The 25 wives have vowed they will stay in Japan unless the Japanese authorities oust them.

Handful

They represent, however, only a handful of dependents, the overwhelming majority of whom are leaving Japan

The third batch of returnees—25 dependents—are booked to sail for the U S. aboard the MSTS ship Anderson Previously two groups, totalling 39 wives and 59 children, departed

The situation stems from an order issued by General Pate in March, barring Marine dependents from travel to Japan at government expense

The order was interpreted by high-ranking Marine officers as signifying that Japan is a "forward area" where Leathernecks are not permitted to have their families with them

On Oct 3, a "policy" directive advised that all Marine dependents in Japan leave within 30 days.

Own Passports

The other American armed services—the Army, Navy and Air Force—regularly send dependents to Japan.

The Marine dependents who came to Japan arranged for their own passports and visas and paid their own travel expenses Many Marine families bought or built houses in Japan and had their furniture shipped to them from the U S

The Oct 3 directive caused considerable bitterness among Marines with wives and children in Japan Many of them were heard grumbling over the fact their "top brass" General Pate, is being accompanied by his wife on his current tour of the Far East.

Chapters from Missouri and Illinois are expected to attend the meeting, according to Carole Tietjen, Wesleyan alumnae of Lincoln, co-chairman of local arrangements for the convention.

During the two-day meeting, Wesleyan's Gamma Upsilon chapter, Nebraska Alpha, will be reactivated with a membership of 15 to 20.

At the meeting the college journalists will study problems of yearbook and campus newspaper publishing, in addition to conducting the annual business for the fraternity. Two professional journalists will be scheduled as speakers for the convention.

Dr. Charles D. Oviatt, Tarkio College, Tarkio, Mo., is national president of Gamma Upsilon, and Aubrey Allen, Culver-Stockton College, Canton, Mo., is executive secretary.

To Get Church Honors

Among four ministers to be honored Sunday at Tabernacle Christian Church are the Rev. Austin J. Hollingsworth of Blair, Neb. (at left) and the Rev. Clayton C. McCaw of Cohasset, Minn. (at right), pictured with their wives, Mrs. Hollingsworth (second from left) and Mrs. McCaw. The two other ministers who, along with the Rev. Mr. Hollingsworth and the Rev. Mr. McCaw, have reached retirement age and will be honored Sunday are the Rev. Tod V. Hubbell and Prof. Ben E. Ogden, both of Lincoln. (Star Photo.)

Tabernacle Christian To Honor Four Retiring Ministers At Sunday Service

Tabernacle Christian Church will honor four ministers who have reached the retirement age at a special service at 10:50 a.m. Sunday at the church, 22nd and South.

They are the Rev. Austin J. Hollingsworth, the Rev. Clayton C. McCaw, the Rev. Tod V. Hubbell and Prof. Ben E. Ogden.

Emmett Haas, secretary of the Nebraska Christian Fellowship, will present the four men with "honored minister" pins.

The event is included in "The Week of the Ministry" observances which are taking place in all Christian Churches.

The Rev. Mr. Hollingworth, now ad interim pastor at Blair, Neb., was pastor of Tabernacle Church when the educational unit was constructed.

He was director of church development in Nebraska from 1941 to 1944 and state secretary of the church from 1944 to 1950.

The Rev. Mr. McCaw was pastor of First Christian Church at Grand Island, Neb., for five years before serving as executive secretary of the Nebraska Christian Fellowship from 1950 until Sept. 30, 1955.

He and Mrs. McCaw live in Cohasset, Minn., and he is ad interim pastor of a Minneapolis church. Mrs. McCaw is ordained as a national worker with children and is the author of many books for children.

The two other ministers who will be honored Sunday still are residents of Lincoln and members of Tabernacle Church.

The Rev. Mr. Hubbell serves as pastor of a church in Talmage, Neb., and Prof. Ogden is retired dean of Cotner College.

Pastor of Tabernacle Church is the Rev. C. E. A. McKim.

Base Airman To Face Charges In Texas Court

A Lincoln airman has been ordered removed to the U.S. District Court for Northern Texas on a federal complaint alleging he impersonated an Air Force officer for the purpose of obtaining an automobile.

Herbert L. Carter, 43, stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base, was taken Wednesday before U.S. Commissioner Sterling Mutz at Lincoln.

During the removal hearing, Harold Wolfe, a Wichita Falls, Tex., used car dealer, testified that Carter represented himself as a lieutenant in issuing a $350 check Aug. 15 for the purchase of a car.

The dealer testified Carter's check was returned marked "no funds" by the bank.

Carter was formerly stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base near Wichita Falls.

Carter was held in custody in lieu of a $1,000 removal bond fixed by the commissioner.

Custody Won

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Actress Maxine Saltonstall, 36, won back custody of her daughter, Lee, 9, from her former husband, Philip Leverett Saltonstall, wealthy sportsman and scion of the well-known New England family.

Mrs. Saltonstall, known professionally as Maxine Jennings, was given custody of the child when she divorced Saltonstall in 1947, but the girl was turned over to the father two months ago on grounds the mother was keeping Lee in Mexico.

Polio And The Highways

Official figures reported eight new cases of polio in Nebraska last week.

This was compared with 31 cases reported during the preceding week.

The figures are interesting since they brought the total incidence of the ailment this year to 149. That is in decided contrast to 1955 figures which showed 251 cases for the corresponding period.

Discovery of preventives, general diligence in the campaign against the dreaded ailment is a stimulating thing and is paying off.

It would be to the point if some of the spirit that has gone into the conquest of disease were focused against a greater killer of Nebraskans. The day that brought the news of the decline in polio brought other news concerning highway safety. It recorded the 237th death in 1956—a total only slightly lower than the 245 at this stage of 1955. Those are deaths, not injuries—fatal cases.

It is surprising that Nebraskans can get deeply concerned over as few as a half dozen polio deaths, but remain detached and casual over the greater killer of the highways which demands a toll in terms of hundreds, every year.

Another View Of Teaching

A New York state citizens' committee recently made public the results of a study it had completed in 199 communities. The findings made public are shocking.

It was reported that almost half of the parents of school children in those 199 communities did not respect their teachers' knowledge of the subject matter which the teachers taught. Only a fourth of the parents, it was said, admired the teacher. Only a fifth of the parents would care to have their children become teachers. In half of the communities teachers rarely were included in social events and rarely invited into the homes of their pupils.

If this is an accurate reflection of the attitude of the parent toward the teacher then obviously badly as the nation needs thousands more school buildings, and better pay for the teachers, something else is called for. That is a genuinely, deeply rooted respect for the role which the teacher fills in America. We believe that in most communities that recognition of the part which an educator plays is deeply rooted. It will be granted that appreciation of the teacher could be much more articulate than it is in many communities.

Truly In A Hard Corner

The American people have been reassured by former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, and Nebraska people additionally calmed by a Republican truth squad that there is no need to worry about the effects of a damaging fall-out from further H-bomb tests. They have assured us that Adlai Stevenson is talking through his hat.

Perhaps Mr. Stevenson has been misinformed. Perhaps he has not. The dispute nevertheless is a critical one and the way it is being carried on warrants troubled reflection.

Despite his air of confidence, we doubt that Mr. Dewey has any original or far-reaching knowledge of nuclear physics. And we are quite certain that the men who compose the truth squad have achieved no standing in the field of atom-splitting. This goes for Mr. Stevenson, too, except for the fact that a number of known and qualified atomic scientists incline his way. There is this much about it. The truth squad or Mr. Dewey himself would be a poor refuge for the American people in event that which they assert is true should turn out not to be.

There seems to be a basic inadequacy here. The American people have not been educated in the true nature and probabilities of this atomic age sufficiently to deal effectively with one of the great and turning political questions of the future and yet they are being called upon to render a fateful decision on national policy. Never were the American people in a harder spot and never was it more necessary to have competent knowledge of the question.

A national policy of over-secrecy on a subject of critical importance, it seems, has come home to roost. And if there is to be any redemption now, the source of it will be from the scientists, certainly not from the Deweys.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

One rarely stumbles upon the name of Sherman Adams in the news columns. Generally, however, he is credited with being the most powerful voice in the Eisenhower administration outside the President himself. He determines who shall or shall not see the President, it is said. He keeps the wheels turning. If Sherman Adams remains in the background, there has been a significant change at the White House. More and more Press Secretary James Hagerty—a former New York Times man until he joined Gov. Dewey while the latter was New York's chief executive, and moved on to Washington when Ike won the 1952 election—has been in the news columns. He does a surprising amount of talking these days—which we assume is the reason the President has a press secretary. Hagerty is out in front, it seems, more than any other man filling the job he now occupies.

★

Before embarking upon a west coast swing, the President announced he had uttered his last word on the H-bomb controversy. In Seattle Wednesday Hagerty told the press Ike had changed his mind, and apparently disturbed by some statements made by his Democratic rival, Adlai Stevenson, in Chicago Monday night, had instructed the chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, Adm. Lewis Strauss, Secretary of State Dulles, and Defense Secretary Wilson to prepare a reply, which will be issued next week. So the last word, it turns out, will be several hundred words. The development, aside from the importance attached to it in the closing phases of a presidential campaign, projects another situation of interest to the nation's press. It is becoming increasingly difficult to get to the original source of information. The President in this case should speak for himself.

The Changes Mind

Secretary of State Dulles, for example, had a go-around with newsmen over Dulles' insistence that it was his right to correct the record of the press conferences held by the secretary of state. It was not so much a question of what Mr. Dulles actually said at press conferences as what he intended to say and what sounded better to the ears of other nations and their governments.

★

The discrepancies characterizing public utterances by leading spokesmen for the Eisenhower administration could keep the public guessing. In Columbus last week at the national corn-picking contest, Ike's running mate, Vice President Nixon, impressed with flying dust and the drought that has these states in the central and southern plains area in its clutch, told his audience that he "did not realize it was so bad" and that the President would be out here to have a look himself after the November election. The following Tuesday Ike put in an appearance in Minneapolis where he reassured the farmers they were over the hump and their outlook was the brightest, the most promising, and the most dependable in the knowledge of this generation. Evidently Mr. Nixon forgot to speak to the President about the drought when the vice-president got back to Washington. And on the same day that the President was speaking in Minneapolis most soothing words to the farmers, the Republican governor of Nebraska was warning spending agencies not to increase budgets in light of the state's economic position. Ike should not expect to have it one way, and Vic another—or should they?

Facing Two Ways

It has always been the proud boast of Nebraskans that livestock is the foundation of the state's agriculture. The income from livestock, we have been told for years, is much greater than the receipts for the cash sale of grain. But drought had nothing to do with the litters of pigs nor the price levels of fat hogs—nothing to do with the cattle or the prices of cattle.

Job To Do

We know the outcome of the presidential election is an all absorbing interest for the candidates right now, but there is still a government to run. It is to be noted that it has been six months since John Sherman Cooper left the ambassadorship of India to run for U.S. Senator. And no one has replaced him. It would seem especially at the time of the Suez crisis, in which India is taking a position, the ambassadorship should not be vacant.

The Future Germany

West Germany has appealed again to Britain, France, the United States and Russia to re-open discussions of German reunification.

It is not a new subject. It has generally found the West open to negotiation. But Russia which possesses East Germany as a satellite state did not even reply to the invitation.

Truly it is a difficult question. In fairness to Russia, albeit it holds East Germany in violation of moral principles, it must be conceded that there is an understandable reluctance to give up an advantage. And dealing with the attitude of the West it must be faced that any reunification plan which in the end would swing West Germany to the communist side would be undesirable. How to achieve re-unification without detriment to one side or the other is the question. There is another question. It is just how will a reunited Germany behave in terms of world peace. What guarantees will there be that a Germany as a major power again will be a force for peace and world order?

It does seem that a convincing guarantee severing Germany from its past would be a logical background for East-West discussions which thus far have got no where.

Least Likely To

T. Coleman Andrews, implacable foe of the graduated income tax, crusader for individual rights as well as state rights, is still running for president like everything, except not many have made note of it. He is the champion of the Constitution party which is not apt to conduct the affairs of the country during the coming four years.

Recent efforts to place Mr. Andrews on the Nebraska presidential ballot failed when adherents of the Constitution party did not complete the petitions which required 750 signers. Andrews is best known in this state as being the one, although totally against the income tax, who accepted an Eisenhower appointment as internal revenue commissioner in 1953 and served as such, until he resigned. Andrews is one candidate who has no grounds for claiming low blows from his rivals. Neither Eisenhower nor Stevenson are wasting any on him.

Gov. Knight Falls In Line For GOP

LOS ANGELES — Gov. Goodwin Knight of California, a gentleman who is not too high-hat to be called "Goody," was not popular for a time with the ruling minds of the Republican party. Reason: he liked Ike, but didn't like Dick.

After San Francisco, however, Goody was wooed and courted. Len Hall, who was once sore as blazes at Goody, phoned him and said:

"We need you."

"OK," said the governor of California. "What's the assignment?"

"Go to Whittier and introduce Dick Nixon."

Gov. Knight went to Nixon's home town and introduced him. Since then he's been campaigning wherever the GOP high command has sent him—chiefly Florida, West Virginia and Maryland. Knight was also asked to go to Michigan to woo the labor vote, since he's about the only Republican governor with a strong labor backing. Knight, however, refused and is heading back to California. Too many fires to put out at home.

He has reported to Republican headquarters that Sen. Tom Kuchel will defeat Democrat Dick Richards but that Ike himself is in trouble in California.

For the first time in years the name "Democratic" is on the ticket. Hitherto, California has had cross-filing and a lot of people really didn't realize who were the Democratic and Republican candidates. But with the name Republican clearly stamped after a candidate's name, and with Democratic registration heavy, Governor Knight is not at all sure what the final outcome will be in November.

Note—After wooing Knight to get out on the hustings, Len Hall seemed peculiarly unappreciative. The governor of California spent all week end in the Carlton hotel in Washington where Hall was also residing, but Hall made no effort to see him.

Texas Congressman Jack Brooks has slapped a subpoena on an ex-Eisenhower administration official, now retired to a California ranch, who could tell the inside story about GOP Chairman Len Hall's connection with the Nicaro Nickel plant scandal in Cuba.

This key witness is Edmund Mansure, former head of General Services Administration, the huge agency which lets government contracts and distributes more money than any outside the Pentagon.

Mansure has already admitted confidentially to investigators that Hall put political pressure on him to award a $43,000,000 contract for expanding the Nicaro plant to Raymond Concrete Pile. Mansure wanted the contract to go to the Frederick Snare Co., which built it in the first place, had personnel and know-how in Cuba.

A diary and correspondence of Randall Cremer, executive vice president of Frederick Snare, states that Hall didn't consider his outfit sufficiently Republican. Cremer even went out and contributed $1,500 to the Republican congressional campaign committee within a matter of days after being asked by Hall for evidence of his loyalty to the Republican cause.

GOP DONATIONS

Cremer has also admitted to investigators that other Frederick Snare officials, including company president George Seeley, made donations to the Republicans up to $500 after hints from Hall. These contributions were made to the GOP finance chairmen in New York and New Jersey.

Significantly, Cremer's secret diary, now in Congressman Brooks' hands, notes: "Unfavorable news from Hall. . .has received no corroboration from the finance chairmen in New York and New Jersey."

DORIS FLEESON

Kuchel Worried Over Richards

LOS ANGELES—All California Republicans feel better since President Eisenhower's Los Angeles visit was confirmed, but the most happy fella is an amiable man with an oddly crackling name, Senator Thomas H. Kuchel (pronounced Keekle).

An Earl Warren protege now trying for his first full term in the Senate, Kuchel has been getting lost in the battle of GOP titans within the state. For example, the state delegation to the Republican convention was split three ways, the vice-president, Governor Goodwin J. Knight and Senator William F. Knowland each selecting a third of the delegates. The seat left over they gave to Kuchel.

Kuchel kept his spirits up and his ego intact with the comforting memory of the 700,000 majority he got over Democrat Richard Richards in the primaries last spring. Kuchel had cross-filed and attracted about 450,000 Democrats. Richards also had a well-known opponent in his own party, who cut him down another 400,000.

When Kuchel returned following the adjournment of Congress and began a rather leisurely campaign he discovered that Richards was a real New Dealer who couldn't be scared by big numbers. The Democratic nominee, who learned his way about politics in two terms in the state senate, is also young, vigorous and a demonic worker.

He had set a pace for many months that the Washington incumbent now finds it hard to catch up to. With his clean-cut young manager, Glen Wilson, Richards has taken a station wagon into every county and community in this big state for a main street, hand-shaking visit.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Richards line is that Tommy Kuchel is a nice, ineffectual guy with a real bad voting record. He cites Kuchel's votes against censuring Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, against the Hell's Canyon dam and for Dixon-Yates and the natural gas bill.

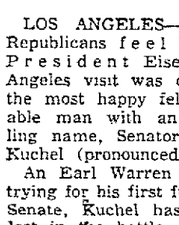

In his own party he effectively stirs the deep distaste for Nixon. This is especially apparent in the Democratic clubs which have sprung up all over the state as the chief vehicle for young voters.

Richards has problems. He is perhaps too liberal for those conservative Democrats who are assumed to be the ones who chose Kuchel in the primary. He could not ride out an Eisenhower landslide; he says he is sure that it won't occur. TV is an absolute necessity in this populous county and there is always too little money for it.

The rare unity of most Democrats helps him. Labor is for him nearly 100 percent. The party's new faces nationally, governors and senators have come here to help and counsel. Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts went around with him for days, incidentally getting a big hand for Kennedy which augurs well for his future.

BOB CONSIDINE

Registration Needs Reform

NEW YORK — Registration in New York was down seven or eight per cent over the 1952 figures. Most pundits owe this to an absence of issues and lack of comprehensible differences between the rival sides. I owe it to the clumsy, prying, time-wasting practices inflicted on people hereabouts before they become eligible to cast a ballot.

The usually elderly ladies and gentlemen who supervise registration are, I'm sure, fine people, deserving of this humble but welcome handout from political organizations they have faithfully served through the years. But neither they nor their methods belong to this century. Any business conducted as our registration machinery is run would go bankrupt in short order.

We know of a spirited lady, who refused to register this time because the person assigned to question her on her age, occupation, address and wring from her other vital statistics was a neighbor with a tongue as long and sharp as a spear. I took Vincent X. Flaherty of the Los Angeles Examiner with me when I registered, and the nice folks at the table would readily have made him eligible, I'm sure, if he had wished to give an address in the neighborhood.

What with talk of this and that, and a grilling that would not be alien to a night court, I was made eligible and was handed a slip of paper bearing the insignia of the Republican, the Democrat and the socialist parties. I was asked to indicate a preference by making an X in one of the circles. There is no place for the (cap I) independent voter to sign. I made my choice, folded the slip, dropped it in the box, talked to a cop whose father used to work in the press room at the Journal American, and started out.

But escape was not that easy. A young lady came up to me, eyed me incredulously, and said with vigor, "How could you possibly make such a choice of parties?" She was quite distressed. "I've worked my fingers to the bone for the other fellow, and I was sure I had reached people like you. Now . . ." Her voice trailed off, she turned on her heel and left — bearing away the secret of how she learned what I had marked down.

This is an isolated case, I suppose. The main complaint is that the whole process should have been discarded and replaced with a more efficient system about the time Zachary Taylor resumed the spoils system.

THE NEIGHBORS SAY

Mystery Of The Shrinking Sweet Corn

By MONA B. PARKER

The Morrill Mail looked appreciatively about at the greens and golds and crimsons of the autumn countryside and wondered if perhaps transplanted Nebraskans living in claimed-to-be fairer climes don't miss the change in seasons to which they were once accustomed "here in the most healthful state in the Union."

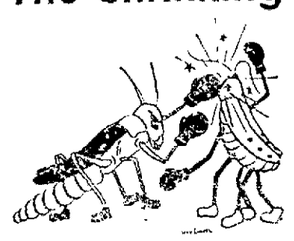

Using a bit of reverse psychology, George Clarke suggests to those of Harrison and all other taxpayers throughout the state that they have little cause for complaint because delinquent real estate tax lists are published here, pointing out that it is the practice of both Wyoming and South Dakota to print all personal property delinquencies, as well.

The grim results of another seasonal hazard are beginning to creep into the news columns again, despite repeated warnings on the carelessness of an "it-can't-happen-to-me" attitude. . .

The Madison Star explains it a little more understandably with the fact that the average snapping rolls on a corn picker turn fast enough to take a 12-foot stick through them in one second, which means that "anyone using a stick to unplug a corn picker is flirting with disaster."

☆ ☆ ☆

Some of the enthusiasm was dwindling from the pleasures of the hunt for several woods-tramping gun-toters. An Omaha man fell in the Missouri River three times in one day. The first time his companion drove to Blair and got him a new outfit. The second time he changed back into his old clothes, which were dry by then. . .Another group from Blair had two blowouts en route to their destination, and the next morning discovered a third. A sandburr had poked through their air mattress, letting them down onto the hard, hard ground. . .James Drahota of Howells, hunting near Hyannis for the first time, described it as "almost the last time" also. Retrieving a duck, he stepped into a bog up to his armpits. Except for his shotgun, which he used to pull himself forward, he would have gone under. . .

The Ravenna News points out the fact that existence even among the lowest pest and insect life is sometimes pretty much of a give-and-take struggle. "The next time you find a grasshopper without much pep, catch it and look under its wings. Sometimes the parasite nesting there is red, sometimes just plain brown. Strange, isn't it, how every form of life has another bug to look out for?"

It may have been just a bad penny to an Atkinson recreation parlor, but of such are rare collectors' items made. The freak was stamped from a blank that was too thin and the dies failed to impress the complete design on the coin. The date which could be seen was 1957, so the slim cent has been in circulation for some time, imperfect or not.

John Carter of the Clarks Enterprise wonders why some of the restaurants and markets don't buy a buffalo from the State Game Commission and put the cuts on the tables of the eating public. . .

"Some of us young old-timers might like to try a buffalo steak to see if it is as good as the pioneers say it was. . ."

An Orleans lassie learned a cooking fact that her grandmother might well have briefed her on. Deciding to dry sweet corn, she began with a large tubful of corn. . .

"After it was husked, there was a little more than half a tubful. After it was blanched and cut off the cob, there was half a dishpan full. When it was dried to where it rattled when moved, there was scarcely a pint. Soaked out and cooked, it made two meals."

The Common Herd

Riverton, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star:

Your editorial, "Never Had It So Good," of last Monday was so full of wisdom and common sense that it outweighs all the high economic chants of the Republican office seekers. In law we have the phrase "ipso facto," meaning "the thing speaks for itself." The farmer's condition in Nebraska when viewed speaks so eloquently of his distressed condition brought on by drought and the Benson policy that all the fallacies of the Republican office seeker weigh nothing.

I was surprised, even shocked, at President Eisenhower's contention that the rich and financial were best qualified for cabinet positions. According to his view, Abraham Lincoln would not have qualified as a cabinet official. He was a failure as a storekeeper, a flatboat employe, and just one of the common herd; yet the world proclaims him the greatest President the nation ever had. What must the common people think of a President who has such views and administrates his office with such arias?

A Fakish Peace

Hastings, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star:

When it comes to the tragic side of this war business, could be this writer knows something about it. My most beloved nephew was lost in the Atlantic, as were other boys assigned to torpedo the U-boats Hitler sent out to dominate the sea. My son-in-law has been wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam for 10 years, and the husbands of three of my granddaughters served in World War II and are still in the service. They know what I am talking about when I declare that the kind of peace some folks are shouting about is a fakish peace. It is only a lull in the engagement. That is why a million and a half boys are still in the service rather than being at home. It is taking a standing army to maintain Ike's peace.

Farmer's Interests

Curtis, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star:

Campaign talk and plans need to be carefully analyzed for their worth.

First, one hundred per cent of parity in the market place for farmers means that prices shall be regulated by the big central elevators, the exporters and the rich grain handlers. It certainly should please these men.

Payment in advance for soil practices is only a political gimmick, and it means reduced income next year. Support prices were raised this year above what the law provided, and only because this is an election year. They likely plan to give us the works after election. What is done to the farmers will affect every interest in Nebraska. Are we going to be gullible and fall for political tricks as we did four years ago?

We should consider the interest of that farmer who fights desperately to hang on. He is now on the ropes, back to the wall, hoping to be saved by the count of ten and a new deal which will allow him to hang on and live like an American.

The Giveaways

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star:

As we see the new schools being built in our cities and towns of Nebraska and think of the many more that are vitally necessary and must be constructed, we cannot help but feel and think about the added pressure that is being put on every property owner's pocketbook to meet the additional taxes that must be forthcoming to pay the bills.

This is something that we all accept as a vital necessity, but at the same time we wonder why President Eisenhower was in such a rush after his election to override our court's decisions and to ignore the welfare of all the people by supporting and signing the bill that gave away our Tidelands and offshore oils. The monetary loss to our nation through his act has been variously estimated at from $300 million to $500 million—a sum that, had we of Nebraska received our portion, would have reduced the amount of taxes being paid by every Nebraskan.

It is so easy for us to hear of, understand and condemn the giving away of a deep-freeze or a mink coat, but seemingly overlooked are the huge giveaways of this administration—Tidelands oil, the millions given to the cheese processors (there is an attempt now being made through our courts to recover this giveaway), the Hells Canyon decision, the giving away of millions of dollars worth of timber land, and other giveaways too numerous to mention.

It would seem that we are in a typical Coolidge era of prosperity and are living at the present time under gains brought about by the Democratic administration. Let's don't wait for another Hoover period.

DWIGHT F. FELTON

Nixon Record

Upland, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star:

Nixon is out to give the "facts" and watch the opposition squirm. He reminds me of Dewey in 1948. Mr. Dewey lost 100,000 votes with every speech.

But Nixon forgets some facts that the public should know—the contributions from big business in California to elect him. The real estate men contributed 36 per cent. And Nixon led the fight and voted against slum clearance and all branches of public housing. Manufacturing and distribution interests gave 19 per cent of the fund. Nixon voted to save corporations $500 million on a three-month tax delay. There was the vote to exclude a million workers from minimum wage coverage. Oil interests gave 19 per cent. He voted against the Supreme Court decision on offshore oil, against REA loan funds, for cuts in conservation funds for killing the farm loan program, to deny social security coverage to 750,000 workers, against insurance to totally disabled people before age 65, against aid to Korea five months before the attack. In 1950 Nixon voted to remove enforcement powers on the Democratic FEPC bill and in 1952 Nixon and Taft were the only two Republicans voting against an FEPC bill in the Senate labor committee.

The Korean peace pill is sugar-coated poison. As many columnists have stated, the surrender there was the costliest. The price was high, and the arms race is still on.

Polio And The Highways

Official figures reported eight new cases of polio in Nebraska last week.

This was compared with 31 cases reported during the preceding week.

The figures are interesting since they brought the total incidence of the ailment this year to 149. That is in decided contrast to 1955 figures which showed 251 cases for the corresponding period.

Discovery of preventives, general diligence in the campaign against the dreaded ailment is a stimulating thing and is paying off.

It would be to the point if some of the spirit that has gone into the conquest of disease were focused against a greater killer of Nebraskans. The day that brought the news of the decline in polio brought other news concerning highway safety. It recorded the 237th death in 1956—a total only slightly lower than the 245 at this stage of 1955. Those are deaths, not injuries—fatal cases.

It is surprising that Nebraskans can get deeply concerned over as few as a half dozen polio deaths, but remain detached and casual over the greater killer of the highways which demands a toll in terms of hundreds, every year.

Another View Of Teaching

A New York state citizens' committee recently made public the results of a study it had completed in 199 communities. The findings made public are shocking.

It was reported that almost half of the parents of school children in those 199 communities did not respect their teachers' knowledge of the subject matter which the teachers taught. Only a fourth of the parents, it was said, admired the teacher. Only a fifth of the parents would care to have their children become teachers. In half of the communities teachers rarely were included in social events and rarely invited into the homes of their pupils.

If this is an accurate reflection of the attitude of the parent toward the teacher then obviously badly as the nation needs thousands more school buildings, and better pay for the teachers, something else is called for. That is a genuinely, deeply rooted respect for the role which the teacher fills in America. We believe that in most communities that recognition of the part which an educator plays is deeply rooted. It will be granted that appreciation of the teacher could be much more articulate than it is in many communities.

Truly In A Hard Corner

The American people have been reassured by former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, and Nebraska people additionally calmed by a Republican truth squad that there is no need to worry about the effects of a damaging fall-out from further H-bomb tests. They have assured us that Adlai Stevenson is talking through his hat.

Perhaps Mr. Stevenson has been misinformed. Perhaps he has not. The dispute nevertheless is a critical one and the way it is being carried on warrants troubled reflection.

Despite his air of confidence, we doubt that Mr. Dewey has any original or far-reaching knowledge of nuclear physics. And we are quite certain that the men who compose the truth squad have achieved no standing in the field of atom-splitting. This goes for Mr. Stevenson, too, except for the fact that a number of known and qualified atomic scientists incline his way. There is this much about it. The truth squad or Mr. Dewey himself would be a poor refuge for the American people in event that which they assert is true should turn out not to be.

There seems to be a basic inadequacy here. The American people have not been educated in the true nature and probabilities of this atomic age sufficiently to deal effectively with one of the great and turning political questions of the future and yet they are being called upon to render a fateful decision on national policy. Never were the American people in a harder spot and never was it more necessary to have competent knowledge of the question.

A national policy of over-secrecy on a subject of critical importance, it seems, has come home to roost. And if there is to be any redemption now, the source of it will be from the scientists, certainly not from the Deweys.

The Future Germany

West Germany has appealed again to Britain, France, the United States and Russia to re-open discussions of German reunification.

It is not a new subject. It has generally found the West open to negotiation. But Russia which possesses East Germany as a satellite state did not even reply to the invitation.

Truly it is a difficult question. In fairness to Russia, albeit it holds East Germany in violation of moral principles, it must be conceded that there is an understandable reluctance to give up an advantage. And dealing with the attitude of the West it must be faced that any reunification plan which in the end would swing West Germany to the communist side would be undesirable. How to achieve re-unification without detriment to one side or the other is the question. There is another question. It is just how will a reunited Germany behave in terms of world peace. What guarantees will there be that a Germany as a major power again will be a force for peace and world order?

It does seem that a convincing guarantee severing Germany from its past would be a logical background for East-West discussions which thus far have got no where.

Least Likely To

T. Coleman Andrews, implacable foe of the graduated income tax, crusader for individual rights as well as state rights, is still running for president like everything, except not many have made note of it. He is the champion of the Constitution party which is not apt to conduct the affairs of the country during the coming four years.

Recent efforts to place Mr. Andrews on the Nebraska presidential ballot failed when adherents of the Constitution party did not complete the petitions which required 750 signers. Andrews is best known in this state as being the one, although totally against the income tax, who accepted an Eisenhower appointment as internal revenue commissioner in 1953 and served as such, until he resigned. Andrews is one candidate who has no grounds for claiming low blows from his rivals. Neither Eisenhower nor Stevenson are wasting any on him.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

One rarely stumbles upon the name of Sherman Adams in the news columns. Generally, however, he is credited with being the most powerful voice in the Eisenhower administration outside the President himself. He determines who shall or shall not see the President, it is said. He keeps the wheels turning. If Sherman Adams remains in the background, there has been a significant change at the White House. More and more Press Secretary James Hagerty—a former New York Times man until he joined Gov. Dewey while the latter was New York's chief executive, and moved on to Washington when Ike won the 1952 election—has been in the news columns. He does a surprising amount of talking these days—which we assume is the reason the President has a press secretary. Hagerty is out in front, it seems, more than any other man filling the job he now occupies.

★

Before embarking upon a west coast swing, the President announced he had uttered his last word on the H-bomb controversy. In Seattle Wednesday Hagerty told the press Ike had changed his mind, and apparently disturbed by some statements made by his Democratic rival, Adlai Stevenson, in Chicago Monday night, had instructed the chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, Adm. Lewis Strauss, Secretary of State Dulles, and Defense Secretary Wilson to prepare a reply, which will be issued next week. So the last word, it turns out, will be several hundred words. The development, aside from the importance attached to it in the closing phases of a presidential campaign, projects another situation of interest to the nation's press. It is becoming increasingly difficult to get to the original source of information. The President in this case should speak for himself.

Ike Changes Mind

Secretary of State Dulles, for example, had a go-around with newsmen over Dulles' insistence that it was his right to correct the record of the press conferences held by the secretary of state. It was not so much a question of what Mr. Dulles actually said at press conferences as what he intended to say and what sounded better to the ears of other nations and their governments.

★

The discrepancies characterizing public utterances by leading spokesmen for the Eisenhower administration could keep the public guessing. In Columbus last week at the national corn-picking contest, Ike's running mate, Vice President Nixon, impressed with flying dust and the drought that has these states in the central and southern plains area in its clutch, told his audience that he "did not realize it was so bad" and that the President would be out here to have a look himself after the November election. The following Tuesday Ike put in an appearance in Minneapolis where he reassured the farmers they were over the hump and their outlook was the brightest, the most promising, and the most dependable in the knowledge of this generation. Evidently Mr. Nixon forgot to speak to the President about the drought when the vice-president got back to Washington. And on the same day that the President was speaking in Minneapolis most soothing words to the farmers, the Republican governor of Nebraska was warning spending agencies not to increase budgets in light of the state's economic position. Ike should not expect to have it one way, and Vic another—or should they?

It has always been the proud boast of Nebraskans that livestock is the foundation of the state's agriculture. The income from livestock, we have been told for years, is much greater than the receipts for the cash sale of grain. But drought had nothing to do with the litters of pigs nor the price levels of fat hogs—nothing to do with the cattle or the prices of cattle.

Job To Do

We know the outcome of the presidential election is an all absorbing interest for the candidates right now, but there is still a government to run. It is to be noted that it has been six months since John Sherman Cooper left the ambassadorship of India to run for U.S. Senator. And no one has replaced him. It would seem especially at the time of the Suez crisis, in which India is taking a position, the ambassadorship should not be vacant.

Gov. Knight Falls In Line For GOP

LOS ANGELES — Gov. Goodwin Knight of California, a gentleman who is not too high-hat to be called "Goody," was not popular for a time with the ruling minds of the Republican party. Reason: he liked Ike, but didn't like Dick.

After San Francisco, however, Goody was wooed and courted. Len Hall, who was once sore as blazes at Goody, phoned him and said: "We need you."

"OK," said the governor of California. "What's the assignment?"

"Go to Whittier and introduce Dick Nixon."

Gov. Knight went to Nixon's home town and introduced him. Since then he's been campaigning wherever the GOP high command has sent him—chiefly Florida, West Virginia and Maryland. Knight was also asked to go to Michigan to woo the labor vote, since he's about the only Republican governor with a strong labor backing. Knight, however, refused and is heading back to California. Too many fires to put out at home.

He has reported to Republican headquarters that Sen. Tom Kuchel will defeat Democrat Dick Richards but that Ike himself is in trouble in California.

For the first time in years the name "Democratic" is on the ticket. Hitherto, California has had cross-filing and a lot of people really didn't realize who were the Democratic and Republican candidates. But with the name Republican clearly stamped after a candidate's name, and with Democratic registration heavy, Governor Knight is not at all sure what the final outcome will be in November.

Note—After wooing Knight to get out on the hustings, Len Hall seemed peculiarly unappreciative. The governor of California spent all week end in the Carlton hotel in Washington where Hall was also residing, but Hall made no effort to see him.

Texas Congressman Jack Brooks has slapped a subpoena on an ex-Eisenhower administration official, now retired to a California ranch, who could tell the inside story about GOP Chairman Len Hall's connection with the Nicaro Nickel plant scandal in Cuba.

This key witness is Edmund Mansure, former head of General Services Administration, the huge agency which lets government contracts and distributes more money than any outside the Pentagon.

Mansure has already admitted confidentially to investigators that Hall put political pressure on him to award a $43,000,000 contract for expanding the Nicaro plant to Raymond Concrete Pile. Mansure wanted the contract to go to the Frederick Snare Co., which built it in the first place, had personnel and know-how in Cuba.

A diary and correspondence of Randall Cremer, executive vice president of Frederick Snare, states that Hall didn't consider his outfit sufficiently Republican. Cremer even went out and contributed $1,500 to the Republican congressional campaign committee within a matter of days after being asked by Hall for evidence of his loyalty to the Republican cause.

GOP DONATIONS

Cremer has also admitted to investigators that other Frederick Snare officials, including company president George Seeley, made donations to the Republicans up to $500 after hints from Hall. These contributions were made to the GOP finance chairmen in New York and New Jersey.

Significantly, Cremer's secret diary, now in Congressman Brooks' hands, notes: "Unfavorable news from Hall. . .has received no corroboration from the finance chairmen in New York and New Jersey."

Kuchel Worried Over Richards

LOS ANGELES—All California Republicans feel better since President Eisenhower's Los Angeles visit was confirmed, but the most happy fella is an amiable man with an oddly crackling name, Senator Thomas H. Kuchel (pronounced Keekle).

An Earl Warren protege now trying for his first full term in the Senate, Kuchel has been getting lost in the battle of GOP titans within the state. For example, the state delegation to the Republican convention was split three ways, the vice-president, Governor Goodwin J. Knight and Senator William F. Knowland each selecting a third of the delegates. The seat left over they gave to Kuchel.

Kuchel kept his spirits up and his ego intact with the comforting memory of the 700,000 majority he got over Democrat Richard Richards in the primaries last spring. Kuchel had cross-filed and attracted about 450,000 Democrats. Richards also had a well-known opponent in his own party, who cut him down another 400,000.

When Kuchel returned following the adjournment of Congress and began a rather leisurely campaign he discovered that Richards was a real New Dealer who couldn't be scared by big numbers. The Democratic nominee, who learned his way about politics in two terms in the state senate, is also young, vigorous and a demonic worker.

He had set a pace for many months that the Washington incumbent now finds it hard to catch up to. With his clean-cut young manager, Glen Wilson, Richards has taken a station wagon into every county and community in this big state for a main street, hand-shaking visit.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Richards line is that Tommy Kuchel is a nice, ineffectual guy with a real bad voting record. He cites Kuchel's votes against censuring Senator Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin, against the Hell's Canyon dam and for Dixon-Yates and the natural gas bill.

In his own party he effectively stirs the deep distaste for Nixon. This is especially apparent in the Democratic clubs which have sprung up all over the state as the chief vehicle for young voters.

Richards has problems. He is perhaps too liberal for those conservative Democrats who are assumed to be the ones who chose Kuchel in the primary. He could not ride out an Eisenhower landslide; he says he is sure that it won't occur. TV is an absolute necessity in this populous county and there is always too little money for it.

The rare unity of most Democrats helps him. Labor is for him nearly 100 percent. The party's new faces nationally, governors and senators have come here to help and counsel. Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts went around with him for days, incidentally getting a big hand for Kennedy which augurs well for his future.

BOB CONSIDINE

Registration Needs Reform

NEW YORK — Registration in New York was down seven or eight per cent over the 1952 figures. Most pundits owe this to an absence of issues and lack of comprehensible differences between the rival sides. I owe it to the clumsy, prying, time-wasting practices inflicted on people hereabouts before they become eligible to cast a ballot.

The usually elderly ladies and gentlemen who supervise registration are, I'm sure, fine people, deserving of this humble but welcome handout from political organizations they have faithfully served through the years. But neither they nor their methods belong to this century. Any business conducted as our registration machinery is run would go bankrupt in short order.

We know of a spirited lady who refused to register this time because the person assigned to question her on her age, occupation, address and wring from her other vital statistics was a neighbor with a tongue as long and sharp as a spear. I took Vincent X. Flaherty of the Los Angeles Examiner with me when I registered, and the nice folks at the table would readily have made him eligible, I'm sure, if he had wished to give an address in the neighborhood.

What with talk of this and that, and a grilling that would not be alien to a night court, I was made eligible and was handed a slip of paper bearing the insignia of the Republican, the Democrat and the socialist parties. I was asked to indicate a preference by making an X in one of the circles. There is no place for the (cap I) independent voter to sign. I made my choice, folded the slip, dropped it in the box, talked to a cop whose father used to work in the press room at the Journal American, and started out.

But escape was not that easy. A young lady came up to me, eyed me incredulously, and said with vigor, "How could you possibly make such a choice of parties?" She was quite distressed. "I've worked my fingers to the bone for the other fellow, and I was sure I had reached people like you. Now . . . "Her voice trailed off, she turned on her heel and left — bearing away the secret of how she learned what I had marked down.

This is an isolated case, I suppose. The main complaint is that the whole process should have been discarded and replaced with a more efficient system about the time Zachary Taylor resumed the spoils system.

Mystery Of The Shrinking Sweet Corn

By MONA B. PARKER

The Morrill Mail looked appreciatively about at the greens and golds and crimsons of the autumn countryside and wondered if perhaps transplanted Nebraskans living in claimed-to-be fairer climes don't miss the change in seasons to which they were once accustomed "here in the most healthful state in the Union."

☆ ☆ ☆

Using a bit of reverse psychology, George Clarke suggests to those of Harrison and all other taxpayers throughout the state that they have little cause for complaint because delinquent real estate tax lists are published here, pointing out that it is the practice of both Wyoming and South Dakota to print all personal property delinquencies, as well.

The grim results of another seasonal hazard are beginning to creep into the news columns again, despite repeated warnings on the carelessness of an "it-can't-happen-to-me" attitude. . .

The Madison Star explains it a little more understandably with the fact that the average snapping rolls on a corn picker turn fast enough to take a 12-foot stick through them in one second, which means that "anyone using a stick to unplug a corn picker is flirting with disaster."

The Ravenna News points out the fact that existence even among the lowest pest and insect life is sometimes pretty much of a give-and-take struggle. Strange, isn't it, how every form of life has another bug to look out for?"

The second time he changed back into his old clothes, which were dry by then. . .Another group from Blair had two blowouts enroute to their destination, and the next morning discovered a third. A sandburr had poked through their air mattress, letting them down onto the hard, hard ground. . .James Drahota of Howells, hunting near Hyannis for the first time, described it as "almost the last time" also. It may have been just a bad penny to an Atkinson recreation parlor, but of such are rare collectors' items made. An Orleans lassie learned a cooking fact that her grandmother might well have briefed her on. Deciding to dry sweet corn, she began with a large tubful of corn. . .

The Common Herd

Riverton, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Your editorial, "Never Had It So Good," of last Monday was so full of wisdom and common sense that it outweighs all the high economic chants of the Republican office seekers. In law we have the phrase "ipso facto," meaning "the thing speaks for itself." The farmer's condition in Nebraska when viewed speaks so eloquently of his distressed condition brought on by drought and the Benson policy that all the fallacies of the Republican office eeker weigh nothing.

I was surprised, even shocked, at President Eisenhower's contention that the rich and financial were best qualified for cabinet positions. According to his view, Abraham Lincoln would not have qualified as a cabinet official. He was a failure as a storekeeper, a flatboat employe, and just one of the common herd; yet the world proclaims him the greatest President the nation ever had. What must the common people think of a President who has such views and administrates his office with such arias?

A Fakish Peace

Hastings, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: When it comes to the tragic side of this war business, could be this writer knows something about it. My most beloved nephew was lost in the Atlantic, as were other boys assigned to torpedo the U-boats Hitler sent out to dominate the sea. My son-in-law has been wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam for 10 years, and the husbands of three of my granddaughters served in World War II and are still in the service. They know what I am talking about when I declare that the kind of peace some folks are shouting about is a fakish peace. It is only a lull in the engagement. That is why a million and a half boys are still in the service rather than being at home. It is taking a standing army to maintain Ike's peace.

Farmer's Interests

Curtis, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Campaign talk and plans need to be carefully analyzed for their worth.

First, one hundred per cent of parity in the market place for farmers means that prices shall be regulated by the big central elevators, the exporters and the rich grain handlers. It certainly should please these men.

Payment in advance for soil practices is only a political gimmick, and it means reduced income next year. Support prices were raised this year above what the law provided, and only because this is an election year. They likely plan to give us the works after election. What is done to the farmers will affect every interest in Nebraska. Are we going to be gullible and fall for political tricks as we did four years ago?

We should consider the interest of that farmer who fights desperately to hang on. He is now on the ropes, back to the wall, hoping to be saved by the count of ten and a new deal which will allow him to hang on and live like an American.

The Giveaways

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: As we see the new schools being built in our cities and towns of Nebraska and think of the many more that are vitally necessary and must be constructed, we cannot help but feel and think about the added pressure that is being put on every property owner's pocketbook to meet the additional taxes that must be forthcoming to pay the bills.

This is something that we all accept as a vital necessity, but at the same time we wonder why President Eisenhower was in such a rush after his election to override our court's decisions and to ignore the welfare of all the people by supporting and signing the bill that gave away our Tidelands and offshore oils. The monetary loss to our nation through his act has been variously estimated at from $300 million to $500 million—a sum that, had we of Nebraska received our portion, would have reduced the amount of taxes being paid by every Nebraskan.

It is so easy for us to hear of, understand and condemn the giving away of a deep-freeze or a mink coat, but seemingly overlooked are the huge giveaways of this administration—Tidelands oil, the millions given to the cheese processors (there is an attempt now being made through our courts to recover this giveaway), the Hells Canyon decision, the giving away of millions of dollars worth of timber land, and other giveaways too numerous to mention.

It would seem that we are in a typical Coolidge era of prosperity and are living at the present time under gains brought about by the Democratic administration. Let's don't wait for another Hoover period.

Nixon Record

Upland, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Nixon is out to give the "facts" and watch the opposition squirm. He reminds me of Dewey in 1948. Mr. Dewey lost 100,000 votes with every speech.

But Nixon forgets some facts that the public should know—the contributions from big business in California to elect him. The real estate men contributed 36 per cent. And Nixon led the fight and voted against slum clearance and all branches of public housing. Manufacturing and distribution interests gave 19 per cent of the fund. Nixon voted to save corporations $500 million on a three-month tax delay. There was the vote to exclude a million workers from minimum wage coverage. Oil interests gave 19 per cent. He voted against the Supreme Court decision on offshore oil, against REA loan funds, for cuts in conservation funds for killing the farm loan program, to deny social security coverage to 750,000 workers, against insurance to totally disabled people before age 65, against aid to Korea five months before the attack. In 1950 Nixon voted to remove enforcement powers on the Democratic FEPC bill and in 1952 Nixon and Taft were the only two Republicans voting against an FEPC bill in the Senate labor committee.

The Korean peace pill is sugar-coated poison. As many columnists have stated, the surrender there was the costliest. The price was high, and the arms race is still on.

Two Named To Investigating Group At NU

The University of Nebraska Faculty Senate elected David Dow, professor of law, and Dr. Ralph L. Ireland, professor of pedodontics, members of the Committee on Academic Privilege, the University announced Wednesday.

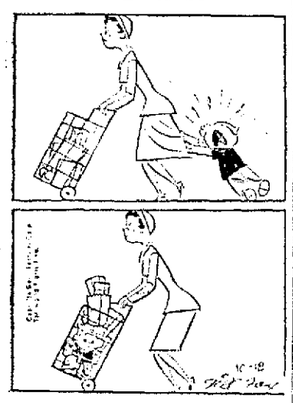

Elected to the Committee on Committees were Charles J. Kennedy, associate professor of economics, and LaVerne D. Small, professor of pharmacy and pharmaceutical chemistry.

The newly elected members of the Committee on Academic Privilege replace Prof. Julius Cohen, former chairman who is on academic leave from the University, and Prof. Roscoe Hill, acting chairman.

The committee is charged with handling the investigation of the facts in the removal of Dr. C. Clyde Mitchell Jr., as chairman of the department of agricultural economics. Dr. Mitchell resigned last month to join the Foreign Operations Administration.

Further investigation of the Mitchell case awaits appointment of a new chairman of the committee.

Deadline Set For Entries To Take NU Award Tests

Nebraska high schools students interested in competing by examination for the 300 1957-58 University of Nebraska Freshman Scholarships, valued at $100 each, must have their entries in by Wednesday, Oct. 31st.

More than 400 accredited high schools are expected to administer the examinations on Wednesday, Nov. 28, according to Dean Marjorie Johnston, executive officer of the scholarship committee.

In the past, Dean Johnston said, the state-wide examinations have been given in the spring. However, she said, it was decided to advance the date so that all scholarships winners could be notified in March, 1957.

Eligible contestants for the freshman scholarships are those high school seniors ranking scholastically in the upper quarter of their class.

Dean Johnston explained that all applicants for special University of Nebraska scholarships, such as those in the College of Engineering and Architecture and in chemistry, also must take the examinations.

Two Named To Investigating Group At NU

The University of Nebraska Faculty Senate elected David Dow, professor of law, and Dr. Ralph L. Ireland, professor of pedodontics, members of the Committee on Academic Privilege, the University announced Wednesday.

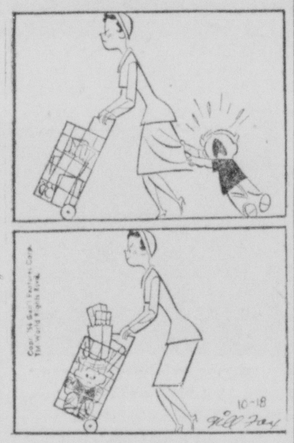

Elected to the Committee on Committees were Charles J. Kennedy, associate professor of economics, and LaVerne D. Small, professor of pharmacy and pharmaceutical chemistry.

The newly elected members of the Committee on Academic Privilege replace Prof. Julius Cohen, former chairman who is on academic leave from the University, and Prof. Roscoe Hill, acting chairman.

The committee is charged with handling the investigation of the facts in the removal of Dr. C. Clyde Mitchell Jr., as chairman of the department of agricultural economics. Dr. Mitchell resigned last month to join the Foreign Operations Administration.

Further investigation of the Mitchell case awaits appointment of a new chairman of the committee.

Deadline Set For Entries To Take NU Award Tests

Nebraska high schools students interested in competing by examination for the 300 1957-58 University of Nebraska Freshman Scholarships, valued at $100 each, must have their entries in by Wednesday, Oct. 31st.

More than 400 accredited high schools are expected to administer the examinations on Wednesday, Nov. 28, according to Dean Marjorie Johnston, executive officer of the scholarship committee.

In the past, Dean Johnston said, the state-wide examinations have been given in the spring. However, she said, it was decided to advance the date so that all scholarships winners could be notified in March, 1957.

Eligible contestants for the freshman scholarships are those high school seniors ranking scholastically in the upper quarter of their class.

Dean Johnston explained that all applicants for special University of Nebraska scholarships, such as those in the College of Engineering and Architecture and in chemistry, also must take the examinations.

Streak Reaches Two

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—When SMU beat Notre Dame in Dallas in the 1956 football opener it marked the first time since 1944 that the Irish had lost two straight games. Notre Dame lost its 1955 final to Southern California, 42-20. In 1941, Navy and Army beat the Irish 32-13 and 59-0, respectively, in successive games.

1956 Wheat Show At Alliance Thursday To Feature Queen

ALLIANCE, Neb. (AP) — Coronation of the 1956 Nebraska Wheat Queen will wind up the day-long Nebraska wheat show here Thursday.

Coronation of the queen, to be selected from a field of 17 candidates, follows the presentation of awards to wheat show winners in the 1956 contest.

The featured address of the evening program will be given by Dr. William H. Alexander, pastor of First Christian Church in Oklahoma City, Okla.

There will be programs both for men and women during the afternoon.

Talks Set

The men's program will include talks by John Schmidt, agronomist at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, Kenneth R. Majors, extension grain utilization specialist of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and Marvin L. Mc Lain, assistant secretary of Agriculture.

Junior division members will receive awards to be presented by Mal Hansen, chairman of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee, and there will be a demonstration on controlling insect damage in stored grain by the Mitchell FFA chapter.

JAMES GREEN NAMED STATE DEMO VETERANS CHAIRMAN

James F. Green of Omaha, attorney, long active in American Legion affairs, has been named Nebraska state Democratic veterans chairman, according to a Democratic national committee announcement released here Wednesday.

Paul M. Butler, chairman of the national committee, made the appointment.

Green will work with Seaborn P. Collins, chairman of the national committee's veterans advisory committee and a past Legion national commander, and with state and local leaders on behalf of the party and its standard bearers, Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver.

The announcement quoted Green as saying the 1956 Democratic platform "contains the best veterans' plank ever written."

"It shows that the Democratic party will continue to provide sound programs for the veterans.

Nebraska News

12 Pct. Fewer Cattle On Feed This Year

Nebraska counted 12 per cent fewer cattle on grain feed for market on Oct. 1 this year than a year ago, the state - federal division of agricultural statistics reported

The Oct. 1 inventory of 358,000 head compares with 407,000 head on Oct. 1, 1955 and 367 000 head on July 1, 1956.

Placements in feed lots during the July - September period were fairly large but fell 10 per cent short of the corresponding quarter last year

Marketings of fed cattle from Nebraska during the third quarter fell 14 per cent short of the same quarter a year ago and were substantially below the heavy marketings in the first and second quarters of this year the agency said

New Shipment Record

Shipments of stocker and feeder cattle into Nebraska during the July - September quarter set a new record for the period topping the same quarter last year by 65 per cent The early movement this season reflected short feed conditions in a number of producing states and increased activity in commercial feed lots the division said

A much smaller proportion of local Nebraska cattle were placed on feed as compared with last year

Other observations

Stocker and feeder steer prices at Omaha averaged $18 37 per hundred for the week ending Sept 28 compared with $16 04 a year earlier Choice slaughter steers at Omaha averaged $26 25 compared with $22 32 a year ago

Feeders expect to market 72 per cent of their Oct 1 cattle on feed in the next three months—the fastest marketing rate ever reported for this period

In the nine corn belt states cattle on feed Oct 1 totaled 96 per cent of the number a year earlier

Good Lawyers Oppose Ticket Fixing—Aten

OMAHA (AP)—Good lawyers "are opposed to anything that weakens the structure of law enforcement" Wilber S Aten of Holdrege, president of the Nebraska State Bar Assn said Wednesday

Aten said lawyers are naturally opposed to ticket fixing and should fight it wherever they find it "

"I know I speak for the majority of lawyers when I say they do not approve of ticket fixing," Aten said

'The American Bar Assn has always stood behind a fix-proof ticket system,' he continued 'That system is fool-proof even against a judge who wants to fix tickets

Aten was in Omaha to preside at the 57th annual convention of the Nebraska Bar Assn

Wednesday's sessions were devoted to a meeting of the House of Delegates Regular sessions get under way Thursday.

Busy Housewife Finds Time To Publish Adams Weekly Newspaper

By BILL HINEL
Star Staff Writer

ADAMS, Neb.—An Adams housewife has a most unusual hobby. She publishes the 66-year-old Adams Globe, one of four weekly newspapers in Gage County. The housewife is not only the publisher but editor, linotype operator, pressman and mailer for the paper which has a circulation of about 700.

This housewife is Mrs. Kenneth Martin, the former Alma Varner of Sterling. She traces her journalism heritage back to her grandfather, the late L. A. Varner of Sterling.

Grandfather Varner was an attorney and surveyor, getting into the newspaper business when he took over a mortgage on the Sterling Sun. Operating the paper temporarily, he found he liked the business and decided to continue.

As a result he taught the trade to his son, E. W. Varner, who in 1907 bought The Adams Globe. He published the paper until 1940, meanwhile teaching the trade to each of his four sons and daughter, Alma.

Varner Helps In Shop

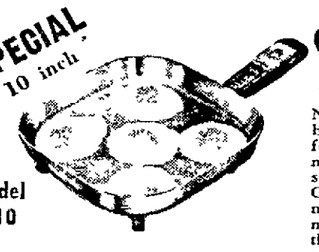

Although he is supposed to be retired since turning over newspaper to Mrs. Martin in 1940, he can usually be found in The Globe shop making up ads and helping with the press. E. W. Varner's four sons are also in the newspaper business.

Probably none work harder than Mrs. Martin who considers The Globe a sideline. Between raising a daughter, Mrs. Willard Huetson of Lincoln, and doing her own housework and cooking, Mrs. Martin finds time to sell ads and subscriptions and get out the weekly paper. She hasn't missed except for three years during World War II when her husband went overseas. Even then she went to work as a linotype operator for The Tecumseh Chieftain. Her husband, Kenneth, a motorgrader operator for the State Highway Department, finds time after work to help her in the newspaper office.

Shickley Woman Heads Homemakers

Mrs. John R. Biegert, Shickley, Wednesday was named president of the Home Economics Association of Homemakers of Nebraska.

Mrs. Biegert

Mrs. Rex Rucksdashel, Lexington, was elected vice president at the association's business meeting in connection with the fifth annual Home Economics Day for Homemakers at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture.

Featured speaker on the morning program was Dr. Ruth Leverton, University graduate and former faculty member, now in charge of home economics research at Oklahoma A and M College, Stillwater.

Dr. Leverton feels there is no substitute for good food and for the smell of good food. "Too often, in this atomic age, we get so involved in labor-saving foods that we forget if the food is good."

University Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin greeted the women attending the event. He spoke briefly on the trend toward increased enrollment at the University, and drew the women's attention to new student housing being built.

Doctors Answer Questions

A forum of five Nebraska doctors answered questions in the afternoon about heart disease. Panel members included: Dr. S. L. Magiera, Omaha; Dr. A. L. Smith Jr., Lincoln; Dr. Maurice Pepper, Omaha; Dr G. E. Stafford, Lincoln: and Dr. Delbert Nels, Omaha

Mrs. Anna C Petteys, Sterling, Colo., spoke on "Responsibility of Citizenship." She stressed that voting at the polls during the coming election is a privilege.

"The percentage of Americans who vote is decreasing," she said "I believe we are in danger of sacrificing one of our most precious heritages unless we take more interest in voting."

Mrs. Petteys is co-publisher of a newspaper, co-owner of a radio station, and is active in educational programs on an international scale.

'There Is No Place Like Nebraska . . .'

Science Develops New Tablet:

Relieves Painful Monthly Cramps For 3 out of 4 Women Tested! Gives Greater Relief Than Aspirin!

Boston, Mass. (Special)—New promise of relief for women who suffer tortures of monthly cramps and nervous tension is found in an amazing new tablet . . . developed especially to relieve this female discomfort. It offers greater relief than aspirin during that distressing period each month!

Doctors report remarkable results. For 3 out of 4 women tested, pain and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, no backaches or other functionally-caused distress . . . were also less jittery the trying week before their period!

The new tablet contains not just one or two ingredients but a unique combination of special medicines. That's why this new discovery offers more relief than plain aspirin! Unlike such "general-purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has amazing power to calm uterine contractions, also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system.

Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," the formula was developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to relief of women's ailments! Easy-to-take new Pinkham's Tablets are now available at all drug stores without a prescription.

So don't suffer needlessly. Take Pinkham's Tablets yourself. See if you don't feel worlds better this very month. See if you don't escape much of the irritability and discomfort—both before and during those "difficult days." (For liquid form ask for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

'Spirit Of Democracy Must Be Emphasized'—Breckenridge

The people of the United States must put more emphasis on the spirit and philosophy of democracy and less on the mechanics, a University of Nebraska professor of political science told the Nebraska chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic society, Wednesday evening.

Dr. A. C. Breckenridge said:

"What we need in democracy and in America is leadership which is bold. We do not want nor should be tolerate a caretaker in the driver's seat.

"The totality of imagination, the force and power of our ideas, the products of our creative endeavor, all should be mobilized if we are to realize the dream of harmony, peace, and a good life."

He added:

"Our great task always will be to reconcile diverse interests, and when there are no diverse interests it will be a signal that democracy is waning or has gone down the drain.

"Even today we are fraught with attempts through majority rule to reconcile and integrate social interests long and continuously in conflict."

Dr. Breckenridge explained that if there is cause for despair, it is not due to controversy of seemingly irreconcilable differences.

"The danger is that we rely too heavily upon procedural methods and devices to be observed as an insurance policy against those we may have in public office," he said.

State VFW Blasts Report's Ideas On Military Service

A portion of the so-called "Bradley Report" which states that "military service in time of war or peace should be treated as discharging an obligation of citizenship and not of itself as a basis for future government benefits" was criticized by the Nebraska Department of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The report came recently from a commission, headed by Gen. Omar Bradley, created to study the matter of veterans' benefits.

A resolution disagreeing with the Bradley Report concept was adopted by the Nebraska VFW's Council of Administration at a meeting in McCook, State VFW Adjutant Robert A. Lowe of Lincoln reported Wednesday.

Asks Declarations

The resolution asked all state and national office holders and candidates to declare whether they favor or oppose the concept.

The resolution called the concept "inconsistent with all previous concepts concerning veterans' treatment."

"If carried into effect, such ingratitude might result in less incentive for military service and cause the youth of our country to regard the uniform as of no great importance—or at least of no more importance than staying at home and taking advantage of wartime stepped-up opportunity," the resolution said.

MAMIE HAS A 'SLIGHT COLD'

SEATTLE (AP) — Mamie Eisenhower has "a slight cold" and was advised to "take it easy" Wednesday.

White House press Secretary James C. Hagerty put it that way in telling newsmen the first lady is not completely recovered from a cold which confined her to the White House all last week. She is accompanying the President on a five-day campaign tour.

At the first stop in Minnesota Tuesday Mrs. Eisenhower switched from an open to a closed car after the first round of motorcading in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Mrs. Eisenhower also rode in a closed car from the airport to a downtown hotel on arrival in Seattle late Tuesday.

The White House physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, rode with her here and in Minnesota.

White Thunder Found Innocent In Murder Case

PENDER, Neb. (AP)—A district court jury shortly after 10 p.m. Wednesday night found George White Thunder innocent of a second degree murder charge.

The jury had taken the case at 2:30 p.m. following final arguments of attorneys.

White Thunder, 51, had been charged in the knifing death of Isaac McCauley of Macy at White Thunder's home five miles east of Rosalie last May 6.

White Thunder had testified he knifed McCauley in self defense after McCauley attacked him with a bottle following a drinking party.

The defendant's wife, final witness in the case, backed up her husband's story.

$200,000 Grain Elevator Fire At Council Bluffs Controlled

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa (AP)—A fire which destroyed the headhouse of the Scoularp Bishop grain elevator here Wednesday caused loss estimated unofficially at up to $200,000.

The fire was discovered about 8 a.m. in the 105-foot high headhouse and swept through the unit which contained the elevator's machinery.

The headhouse collapsed at 10 a.m. but firemen managed to prevent the flames from spreading to concrete bin units which contained nearly half a million bushels of wheat and oats.

There was some damage to a smaller storage unit, which contained 65,000 bushels of grain, and one of four boxcars alongside the elevator was burned.

Dewey Accuses Adlai Of 'Scaremongering' With H-Bomb Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas E. Dewey Wednesday night accused Adlai Stevenson of the "most dangerously irresponsible scaremongering by any political candidate" in presenting his H-bomb proposal.

The former New York governor, in a CBS radio-television interview —"pick the winner"—said Stevenson used "half-truths" in presenting matters which Dewey termed too "delicate and dangerous" to inject into politics.

Dewey said Stevenson made a number of "unsupported" statements in urging Monday night that the United States take the lead in arranging a halt to H-bomb testing.

He challenged Stevenson's statement that tests could safely be ended because the United States would know if another nation continued its testing program.

Dewey said tests of the largest H-bombs can be detected "in due course" but he said that smaller nuclear tests "cannot be detected."

Yet he said that a number of smaller nuclear weapons could be combined into "one big bomb the like of which the world has never known."

Dewey said that at present the trend is to experiment with smaller weapons.

Dewey was asked to comment on Stevenson's reference to him Wednesday night in a Flint, Mich., talk as a "purveyor of hooey." "I don't indulge in that," Dewey said, "I leave that to Mr. Stevenson."

The former New York governor, noting that Stevenson had referred to him, President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon as being the GOP "Big Three", said that he was in good company—that Eisenhower and Nixon are "responsible and right." He added:

"They are not selling out this country for votes."

Asked if he thought Stevenson was "selling out the country for votes" in making his H-bomb proposal, Dewey said that anyone who would make what he termed "fantastic statements" about Eisenhower's relations with Argentina would "do anything for votes, yes sir."

In a recent speech Stevenson accused the administration of appeasing former dictator Juan Peron of Argentina, a statement challenged by Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

Second LAFB Man Held On Drug Charge

The second case in two weeks of a Lincoln Air Force Base airman found with a narcotic drug in his possession is being investigated by Air Force authorities and Lincoln police.

Police report a 21-year-old airman was arrested in a car early Wednesday after three narcotic cigarettes were found in his possession. A search of the man's locker at the LAFB turned up from ¼ to ½ of a pound of the narcotic, police added. The man has been turned over to Air Force authorities, a LAFB spokesman said.

Another airman, 18 - year - old Richard L. Hamer, pleaded guilty earlier this week in County Court to a charge of unlawful possesion of a narcotic drug. He was bound over to District Court. Hamer was arrested Oct. 5.

Mayor Proclaims Wednesday As U.N. Day' Here

Oct. 24 has been proclaimed by Mayor Bennett Martin as United Nations Day in Lincoln.

Sitting in with Martin for the signing of the proclamation were three youngsters who will be taking part in the elementary schools' special U.N. day activities. The children were Diana Lee Kolb, 1201 D, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence Sweet and a third grader at Capitol School; Jean Hobbs, 1750 D, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hobbs and a fifth grader at Capitol; and Wesley Pope, 1315 G, son of Mrs. Adelyne Pope and a sixth grader at Capitol.

Wesley will be 11 years old on Oct. 24, the 11th anniversary of the U.N., and Jean will be 10. Diana will be nine Oct. 25.

In addition to the school programs, children this Halloween will be collecting money in place of trick or treating. The funds will go to the UNICEF, United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

5 Children, Ages 4-14, Admit They Set Sunday Blaze

Five Lincoln youngsters, ages 4 to 14, have admitted starting the Sunday night fire at 64th and Ballard, according to police.

Police said the children were turned over to their parents after being talked to about the case. No other action is planned.

The children told police they had been curious about what was down in the cellar of the abandoned city reservoir pumping building and had lowered a candle attached to a rope.

When the candle didn't give enough light, the children said they added some newspapers on the candle.

The papers caught fire and ignited some wood in the cellar to start the blaze.

The children said they became frightened when they saw smoke and left.

Two firemen were overcome by smoke while fighting the blaze.

Dewey Accuses Adlai Of 'Scaremongering' With H-Bomb Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas E. Dewey Wednesday night accused Adlai Stevenson of the "most dangerously irresponsible scaremongering by any political candidate" in presenting his H-bomb proposal.

The former New York governor, in a CBS radio-television interview —"pick the winner"—said Stevenson used "half-truths" in presenting matters which Dewey termed too "delicate and dangerous" to inject into politics.

Dewey said Stevenson made a number of "unsupported" statements in urging Monday night that the United States take the lead in arranging a halt to H-bomb testing.

He challenged Stevenson's statement that tests could safely be ended because the United States would know if another nation continued its testing program.

Dewey said tests of the largest H-bombs can be detected "in due course" but he said that smaller nuclear tests "cannot be detected."

Yet he said that a number of smaller nuclear weapons could be combined into "one big bomb the like of which the world has never known."

Dewey said that at present the trend is to experiment with smaller weapons.

Dewey was asked to comment on Stevenson's reference to him Wednesday night in a Flint, Mich., talk as a "purveyor of hooey." "I don't indulge in that," Dewey said, "I leave that to Mr. Stevenson."

The former New York governor, noting that Stevenson had referred to him, President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon as being the GOP "Big Three", said that he was in good company—that Eisenhower and Nixon are "responsible and right." He added:

"They are not selling out this country for votes."

Asked if he thought Stevenson was "selling out the country for votes" in making his H-bomb proposal, Dewey said that anyone who would make what he termed "fantastic statements" about Eisenhower's relations with Argentina would "do anything for votes, yes sir."

In a recent speech Stevenson accused the administration of appeasing former dictator Juan Peron of Argentina, a statement challenged by Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

Second LAFB Man Held On Drug Charge

The second case in two weeks of a Lincoln Air Force Base airman found with a narcotic drug in his possession is being investigated by Air Force authorities and Lincoln police.

Police report a 21-year-old airman was arrested in a car early Wednesday after three narcotic cigarettes were found in his possession. A search of the man's locker at the LAFB turned up from ¼ to ½ of a pound of the narcotic, police added. The man has been turned over to Air Force authorities, a LAFB spokesman said.

Another airman, 18 - year - old Richard L. Hamer, pleaded guilty earlier this week in County Court to a charge of unlawful possesion of a narcotic drug. He was bound over to District Court. Hamer was arrested Oct. 5.

Mayor Proclaims Wednesday As U.N. Day' Here

Oct. 24 has been proclaimed by Mayor Bennett Martin as United Nations Day in Lincoln.

Sitting in with Martin for the signing of the proclamation were three youngsters who will be taking part in the elementary schools' special U.N. day activities. The children were Diana Lee Kolb, 1201 D, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence Sweet and a third grader at Capitol School; Jean Hobbs, 1750 D, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hobbs and a fifth grader at Capitol; and Wesley Pope, 1315 G, son of Mrs. Adelyne Pope and a sixth grader at Capitol.

Wesley will be 11 years old on Oct. 24, the 11th anniversary of the U.N., and Jean will be 10. Diana will be nine Oct. 25.

In addition to the school programs, children this Halloween will be collecting money in place of trick or treating. The funds will go to the UNICEF, United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

5 Children, Ages 4-14, Admit They Set Sunday Blaze

Five Lincoln youngsters, ages 4 to 14, have admitted starting the Sunday night fire at 64th and Ballard, according to police.

Police said the children were turned over to their parents after being talked to about the case. No other action is planned.

The children told police they had been curious about what was down in the cellar of the abandoned city reservoir pumping building and had lowered a candle attached to a rope.

When the candle didn't give enough light, the children said they added some newspapers on the candle.

The papers caught fire and ignited some wood in the cellar to start the blaze.

The children said they became frightened when they saw smoke and left.

Russia's Sobolev Says Reds Ready To OK Unconditional Bomb-Test Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev said Wednesday the Soviet Union is ready to agree with the United States and Britain on an immediate, unconditional halt to test explosions of nuclear weapons.

Sobolev made the statement to a reporter in answer to a question on Russia's current stand on the question of test explosions.

He said nothing about the political controversy between Adlai Stevenson, Democratic Presidential nominee who has proposed negotiating a halt on H-bomb tests, and President Eisenhower, Republican nominee who has rejected Stevenson's ideas.

The U.S. position in U.N. disarmament talks is that any ban on test blasts must be part of a comprehensive disarmament plan with adequate controls and safeguards.

"The Soviet Union is ready to enter now into an agreement with the other powers for an immediate halt to the test explosions of nuclear weapons without conditions," Sobolev said. "We believe this might be the first step toward a system of disarmament and eventual prohibition of the nuclear weapons."

Stevenson has mentioned only the hydrogen bomb in his speeches calling for a halt to test explosions. But Sobolev said the Russian position applies to all nuclear weapons.

Stevenson has made the point that: "The testing of an H-bomb anywhere can be quickly detected. You can't hide the explosion any more than you can hide an earthquake. . . if another power conducts further—H-bomb—tests we would know it and. . . would have no choice but to resume such tests ourselves." He also called H-bomb fall-out "the most dreadful poison in the world."

Sobolev said the Soviet Union at first proposed that the ban on test explosions should be a part of a disarmament agreement but that in the last two years the Soviet Union has eliminated its suggestion of any condition.

'Insignificant'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission Wednesday made public a telegram from its onetime medical research chief taking issue with Adlai Stevenson's proposal that this country take the lead toward ending H-bomb tests.

Dr. Shields Warren of Boston, whom the AEC described as an outstanding authority on medical radiology, declared the dosage of radioactive strontium resulting from H-bomb fall-out is "insignificant." With regard to the question of continuing the tests, he said it would be "disastrous" for this country to fall behind the Russians.

In arguing Monday night for his proposal to end the tests, Stevenson said they distribute over the world strontium-90, which he described "as the most dreadful poison."

"In sufficient concentration," he said, "It can cause bone cancer and dangerously affect the reproductive processes."

He said he was not asserting that present levels of radioactivity are dangerous because "scientists do not know exactly how dangerous the threat is." But he said the threat will increase if the tests continue.

Army Engineers Honor Earl Fiala

Earl W. Fiala, veteran civilian engineer for the Corps of Engineers, who had charge of building the Lincoln Air Force Base, was honored by the Corps at a brief ceremony held in the Omaha district office.

Fiala

Fiala received a commendation for meritorious civilian service signed by Lt. Gen. S. D. Sturgis Jr., retiring Chief of Army Engineers. The award was presented by Col. Thomas J. Hayes, Omaha district engineer.

Fiala's award reads in part: "His outstanding engineering and construction ability have been instrumental in the successful completion of critical support facilities for the Strategic Air Command and have set an example for others to follow."

'Agent' Killed

TOKYO (Thursday) (INS) — Radio Peiping said that one of six Nationalist Chinese "agents" was killed and the other five were captured when they "tried to infiltrate the (China) mainland by boat."

The Red broadcast, monitored in Tokyo, said the Nationalists opened gunfire and threw hand grenades in an attempt to escape after being spotted by a Communist patrol on the Fukien Province coast on Oct. 5.

Second Check Forgery Defendant Pleads Guilty

A second defendant in a check forgery case has pleaded guilty in Lancaster District Court.

Judd Stennett, 52, of Shenandoah, Ia., was charged with forging a $12.50 check Sept. 30 on a Lincoln bank.

The co-defendant on the charge Harold L. Lewis, 48, of Lincoln, pleaded guilty when arrainged last week.

Sentencing of both defendants has been deferred by Judge John L. Polk pending pre-sentence investigation by the adult probation officer.

White Fujii chrysanthemums and crimson gladioli decorated the candlelighted chancel of Zion Lutheran Church at Tobias for the service, which was read by the Rev. Edward Beckler, and the wedding music was played by Glenn Erber, organist. Wayne Bartels of Lincoln, brother of the bride, was the vocal soloist and was accompanied by Ed Martin of Lincoln, organist.

Miss Marjorie Holtmeier of Lincoln, as maid of honor, the bridesmaids, Miss Bonnie Barney, Lincoln, and Miss Adair Bartels, Tobias, and the junior bridesmaid, Miss Jean Bartels, sister of the bride, wore alike frocks of red velveteen fashioned with snug basques and full, ballerina, length skirts. They wore small hats of the velveteen, and carried bouquets of white Fujii chrysanthemums and ivy.

Wayne Bartels served as best man, and seating the guests were Lee Roy Holtmeier of Crete; Donald Endorf, Western; and Glennis Holtmeier, brother of the bridegroom. Miss Jean Bartels and Glennis Holtmeier also lighted the candles.

Floral appliques of sequin-trimmed lace bordered the bateau neckline of the long-sleeved bodice of lace, and the lace motif was repeated in wide bands on the full tulle skirt, which ended in a train. A coronet of lace petals embroidered with pearls and sequins held her illusion veil, and she carried an arrangement of red roses.

THE STAR IN SUBURBIA

If you're in the market for lots of news on the gay side this morning then you've come to the right place. When you are dealing with Eastborough residents you don't walk, you have to run to keep up with all their social events. This Thursday morning we've news of new neighbors, out of town trips, visitors, various parties, and a brand new baby boy.

To start the day let's take a peek at our visitor's list. A week ago Mr. and Mrs. Galen Fritchie entertained Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gorton of Denver, Colo. for two days.

Visiting the Jack Ways last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Gary Johnson of Topeka, Kan. We suspect that Mr. Way and Mr. Johnson devoted considerable time catching up on the news since their friendship dates back to college days when they attended Kansas State. Need we say where the families spent Saturday afternoon?

From news of visitors in Eastborough we turn to news of residents who are going to be doing some out of town visiting in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Morgan and their two children, Dan and David, will be visiting Mrs. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Fuller, in Council Bluffs, Ia. this week-end. The Morgans will be joined in Council Bluffs by Mrs. Morgan's brother and sister - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Fuller, of Des Moines, Ia. to make the visit a real family reunion.

Though the Morgans will return home Sunday, their son David, who will undergo a tonsillectomy, will remain in Council Bluffs until next Wednesday.

Leaving Sunday for a two weeks vacation are Mrs. Jack Way and her son, Todd. They will be visiting Mrs. Way's mother, Mrs. Mary Kalec, in Ottumwa, Ia., where they will be joined by Mr. Way near the end of their stay.

Now let's welcome some new residents to the Eastborough scene. Mr. and Mrs. Gale J. Lodahl and their children, Ellen, Patricia, and Barbara, moved into their new home at 324 West Rio Rd. the middle of September. The Lodahls were formerly residents of Dayton, O.

Soon to be moving into their home on Eldora Lane are Capt. and Mrs. David Withrow and their children, Brenda, David, and Jeffrey. Capt. Withrow left Tuesday evening to pick up his family, who have been residing in Gauley Bridge, W. Va., and the Withrows are expected to arrive in Lincoln on Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Hudkins is holding the regular get-together of her bridge club this afternoon. Among the guests will be Mrs. Jack Mohr who is filling in for one of the regular members.

W. T. GRANT CELEBRATES 50th ANNIVERSARY

W. T. Grant Company officials have designated the week starting Thursday, October 18th as "50th Anniversary Celebration Week" to commemorate the founding of the nation-wide family of stores in 1906, according to Mr. Krater manager of the company's local Grant store at 1005-O Street.

Highlight of the celebration will be a store-wide 9-day sale, planned to be the most dramatic store-wide sale event in the company's history. "It's the best way we know to thank folks for their support over the years" manager Krater stated. "Our sixty-two home office buyers in New York have been working for the past six months to bring together a great barrage of bargains suitable to mark so memorable a milestone".

In 1906 Mr. William T. Grant started his first Grant store in Lynn, Mass., determined to see "not how much could I get, but how much could I give". He found out pretty quickly that customers welcomed his new kind of store that measured its profits in mere pennies and relied on quick, high volume turnover for growth. Requests increased for him to open such a store in neighboring cities and in 1908, he opened his second store in Waterbury, Conn. Thus started the giant family of over 600 stores which today serve millions of families with most of their general merchandise requirements. Grant stores are to be found in 42 of the 48 states. Mr. Grant continues to serve his company as Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Lutheran Church To Hold Ten 'Men For Ministry' Meetings To Ease Shortage

There is a shortage of pastors in the American Lutheran Church at the present time, Dr. E G. Fritschel of Denver, president of the Central District of the American Lutheran Church, told 35 pastors Wednesday at the Southeast Nebraska Conference of the Central District.

To remedy this situation in the future, "Men for the Ministry" conferences will be held in ten strategic points throughout the nation, Dr. Fritschel reported. Qualified young men from the sophomore level in high school and older will be invited to attend.

Each such conference will be attended by the National Youth Director Mark Rieke and the National president of the American Lutheran Church Dr. Henry Schuh. Hebron has been chosen tentatively as the Central District site for its "Men for the Ministry" conference.

Dr. Fritschel also reported that the annual Hein Memorial Lectures featuring prominent U. S. churchmen, previously held only on American Lutheran seminary campuses, will be held in Lincoln in 1957. The move was made to better serve the western area of the church.

William Reents, public relations director at the Martin Luther Home in Beatrice, gave a report on the progress of the home, which, he said, has become a nationally recognized institution in the American Lutheran Church.

Rev L. C. Pretty, director-chaplain of the Nebraska Lutheran Social Service, reported that that body made over 2,400 visits to eastern Nebraska institutions in 1956.

The Rev. E. W. Philippi, pastor of the host Sheridan Lutheran Church, was conference chairman.

Piccard Takes 12,467-Foot Dive

ISLE OF PONZA, Italy (AP)—Scientist Jacques Piccard took his box-shaped bathysphere 12,467 feet down into the sea near here Wednesday to beat the mark he and his father set three years ago.

Piccard's dive, however, was short of the record 13,288 feet set on Feb. 15, 1954, by Lt. Cmdr. Georges Houot and engineer Pierre Henri Willm of the French navy.

Young Piccard, using the same bathysphere that he and his father Prof. Auguste Piccard, used in 1953, stayed submerged more than four hours 17 miles off the southeast end of the Island of Ponza, off Naples Bay.

Report That NSEA Opposing Ton-Mile Tax Said Wrong

Don F. Kline, executive secretary of the Nebraska State Education Association, reported Wednesday a press wire service had confused reports in indicating that the association is against the ton-mile tax issue.

The association actually is opposed to the first Constitutional amendment appearing on the ballot, changing the allocation of fines levied against overloaded trucks.

The wire service reported that the NSEA and the Nebraska School Boards Association and the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers as well as the State Board of Education had taken a position against the ton-mile tax.

This is a "gross misstatement of fact," Kline said. He named the United Press as the wire service committing the error.

The agencies named have taken a position which strongly opposes the first Constitutional amendment which, if passed, would deprive the schools of the revenue presently received from judicially levied fines from overloaded trucks, Kline said.

The agencies named have taken no resolution position on the ton-mile tax amendment to the Constitution, Kline said.

Injury Victims Conditions Given

Alex Miller, 46, of 4930 Fremont, and Mike Schewcow, 49, of 125 No. 14th, were both listed in good condition. Miller suffered an injured leg and Schewcow head injuries in a two-car collision Tuesday morning at the junction of Highway 6 and Charleston.

Envoy Doubts France Will Shoot Its Way Through Suez Canal

WASHINGTON (INS) — French Ambassador Herve Alphand expressed doubt Wednesday that France would shoot its way through the Suez Canal but he refused to rule out use of force as a last resort.

Alphand told a National Press Club luncheon that if the waterway is blocked by Egypt, two courses of action are open to France. The first, he said, is to bypass the canal and the second is "shoot our way through."

The envoy explained that France wants to curb Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's freedom of action "first by peaceful means but we do not exclude the use of military action if it is necessary."

If Egypt refuses to make proposals on guaranteeing freedom of passage through the canal, he said, France will take steps to bypass the waterway.

Alphand warned that no French agreement with Egypt is possible unless Cairo accepts some form of international operation of the canal.

He said Paris will not be satisfied with an Egyptian commitment "which would not be accompanied by a system of operation or of sanctions in case of violations."

The ambassador made it clear that France believes the next step in the dispute is up to Egypt to make proposals which would guarantee freedom of passage. He said: "Up to now we have heard words only. But words are not enough."

Alphand also cautioned against hopes for any quick solution to the Suez crisis. He said "it would be a great illusion to think that everything has been solved, all of a sudden, as by a magic wand."

He admitted there have been differences between the U S and France over Suez but said that these differences are "temporary and always surmountable."

Confidence

PARIS (INS) — The French cabinet authorized Premier Guy Mollet to ask the National Assembly for a vote of confidence in France's position on the Suez crisis.

Mollet and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau met with the other ministers after winding up their overnight Paris conference with British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Pineau reported on the Anglo-French-Egyptian negotiations at the United Nations last week. The cabinet gave its approval to his policies, indicating that the government supported fully remarks Pineau made Tuesday to the National Assembly.

The Foreign Minister sharply criticized U S. foreign policy, particularly with regard to Suez and to the North Atlantic Treaty organization. Pineau also expressed displeasure with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

On their arrival in London from Paris, Eden and Lloyd were asked if they too thought—as Pineau said—America had let down Britain and France. Lloyd, however, said Dulles had co-operated closely with him and that "I think we both regarded the result as being as good as could be expected."

Eden held a cabinet meeting to consider the Suez and Jordan problems. The civilian chiefs of the armed services attended the meeting.

'State's Poultry Industry At Crossroads'

"Nebraska's poultry industry stands at a crossroads," Roscoe Hill, Lincoln hatcheryman, told the convention of the Nebraska Poultry Improvement Association Wednesday.

Nebraska is now shipping 60 per cent of its eggs out of state. Most of these eggs, he said, are sent to deficit areas. But these areas are now bending their efforts toward stepping up their own egg production. "It is therefore imperative," he said, "htat we produce high quality eggs if we hope to maintain these markets."

Over 500 persons have attended the first two days of the three-day convention being held in Lincoln.

Members of a Wednesday morning panel on the Nebraska Egg Improvement Law were in general agreement that the law, passed by the last Legislature, was a start toward improving egg quality in the state, although some voiced the opinion that the law is not being properly enforced.

'Sick' Industry

In the afternoon session, Howard Wiegers, assistant professor of poultry husbandry at the University of Nebraska, told the convention that the poultry industry in Nebraska is sick because of the production of large quantities of low quality eggs on the general farm. Proof of this sickness is that prices paid Nebraska egg producers were the lowest of all 48 states in 1954 and 46th in 1955, he said.

But, he added, a revolution is underway in Nebraska, and is built around the supplying of high quality eggs in volume by specialized producers.

F. E. Mussehl, chairman of the poultry husbandry department at the University of Nebraska, member of a panel discussing poultrydom's future in the west north-central area, urged that no one enter the poultry industry unless he is willing to become skilled at this particular kind of biological engineering. Such knowledge, he indicated, would be required by the growing movement toward specialization.

Upset Camel At Atlanta Upsets Surprised Man

ATLANTA (AP)—A camel at Grant Park Zoo, upset by "a little family trouble," grabbed a 45-year-old man by the arm and slung him around in the air several times.

The animal, named Greeley, finally let go when he was hit on the head several times with a stick.

Keeper Johnny Dilbeck explained that Greeley "had been having a little family trouble with another male" and was being moved to another pen to separate the two.

Woman, 22, Sentenced On Joy Riding Charge

Mary Hastings, 22, of 130 F was sentenced to three months in the county jail and fined $100 by the Municipal Court after she pleaded guilty Wednesday to a joy riding charge.

She was charged on a state complaint with unlawfully taking a 1956 panel truck, owned by Charles J. Colym, last Tuesday.

He said Paris will not be satisfied with an Egyptian commitment "which would not be accompanied by a system of operation or of sanctions in case of violations."

The ambassador made it clear that France believes the next step in the dispute is up to Egypt to make proposals which would guarantee freedom of passage. He said: "Up to now we have heard words only. But words are not enough."

Alphand also cautioned against hopes for any quick solution to the Suez crisis. He said "it would be a great illusion to think that everything has been solved, all of a sudden, as by a magic wand."

He admitted there have been differences between the U.S. and France over Suez but said that these differences are "temporary and always surmountable."

Confidence

PARIS (INS) — The French cabinet authorized Premier Guy Mollet to ask the National Assembly for a vote of confidence in France's position on the Suez crisis.

Mollet and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau met with the other ministers after winding up their overnight Paris conference with British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Pineau reported on the Anglo-French-Egyptian negotiations at the United Nations last week. The cabinet gave its approval to his policies, indicating that the government supported fully remarks Pineau made Tuesday to the National Assembly.

The Foreign Minister sharply criticized U.S. foreign policy, particularly with regard to Suez and to the North Atlantic Treaty organiation. Pineau also expressed displeasure with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

On their arrival in London from Paris, Eden and Lloyd were asked if they too thought—as Pineau said—America had let down Britain and France. Lloyd, however, said Dulles had co-operated closely with him and that "I think we both regarded the result as being as good as could be expected."

Eden held a cabinet meeting to consider the Suez and Jordan problems. The civilian chiefs of the armed services attended the meeting.

'State's Poultry Industry At Crossroads'

"Nebraska's poultry industry stands at a crossroads," Roscoe Hill, Lincoln hatcheryman, told the convention of the Nebraska Poultry Improvement Association Wednesday.

Nebraska is now shipping 60 per cent of its eggs out of state. Most of these eggs, he said, are sent to deficit areas. But these areas are now bending their efforts toward stepping up their own egg production. "It is therefore imperative," he said, "htat we produce high quality eggs if we hope to maintain these markets."

Over 500 persons have attended the first two days of the three-day convention being held in Lincoln.

Members of a Wednesday morning panel on the Nebraska Egg Improvement Law were in general agreement that the law, passed by the last Legislature, was a start toward improving egg quality in the state, although some voiced the opinion that the law is not being properly enforced.

'Sick' Industry

In the afternoon session, Howard Wiegers, assistant professor of poultry husbandry at the University of Nebraska, told the convention that the poultry industry in Nebraska is sick because of the production of large quantities of low quality eggs on the general farm. Proof of this sickness is that prices paid Nebraska egg producers were the lowest of all 48 states in 1954 and 46th in 1955, he said.

But, he added, a revolution is underway in Nebraska, and is built around the supplying of high quality eggs in volume by specialized producers.

F. E. Mussehl, chairman of the poultry husbandry department at the University of Nebraska, member of a panel discussing poultrydom's future in the west north-central area, urged that no one enter the poultry industry unless he is willing to become skilled at this particular kind of biological engineering. Such knowledge, he indicated, would be required by the growing movement toward specialization.

Upset Camel At Atlanta Upsets Surprised Man

ATLANTA (AP)—A camel at Grant Park Zoo, upset by "a little family trouble," grabbed a 45-year-old man by the arm and slung him around in the air several times.

The animal, named Greeley, finally let go when he was hit on the head several times with a stick.

Keeper Johnny Dilbeck explained that Greeley "had been having a little family trouble with another male" and was being moved to another pen to separate the two.

Woman, 22, Sentenced On Joy Riding Charge

Mary Hastings, 22, of 130 F was sentenced to three months in the county jail and fined $100 by the Municipal Court after she pleaded guilty Wednesday to a joy riding charge.

She was charged on a state complaint with unlawfully taking a 1956 panel truck, owned by Charles J. Colym, last Tuesday.

Nixon Tells Student Editors McCarthy-Type Probes Are No Longer Needed

By EDMOND LE BRETON

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — Vice President Nixon said Wednesday night he thinks the kind of investigations of Communist activity formerly conducted by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) are no longer needed.

Nixon, at a nationally televised (CBS) news conference with student editors, gave credit to Eisenhower administration security policies for taking "this issue. . .out of the political arena."

The Vice President met 40 student editors before the television cameras at Cornell University. Democrats complained the university got into politics by its part in arranging the event. Cornell had the broadcast prefaced by a statement that its "role as host in no way implies endorsement by the university of any political party or candidate."

Nixon said the way the administration has dealt with the problem of security—although he said there have been some mistakes—makes unnecessary the sort of investigation conducted in the past.

Forfeit

The Vice President said, however, that he considers a person who by invoking the Fifth Amendment, refuses to help the government fight subversion forfeits his right to work for the government.

A questioner quoted Nixon as having said former President Harry S. Truman and candidate Adlai Stevenson had been traitors to the high principles of the Democratic party and asked for a definition of those principles.

Nixon said they were some of "the very principles President Eisenhower stands for today."

Nixon said these were the views of Jefferson and Jackson on individual dignity, the sovereignty of states and the fear of too much power centering in the federal government.

The student editors threw at Nixon some questions about his own role and philosophy. He said he considered himself an internationalist who favored military and economic foreign aid. An editor asked him about what she described as votes against the point four technical aid program and military aid for Germany several years ago.

Nixon said the question then was a difference of opinion between the two parties on the amount of aid, and he had agreed with the Republican position.

As to votes against housing proposals, especially public housing, Nixon said he believes in slum clearance, but also in private housing, having seen failures of government housing abroad.

The Vice President said he has no knowledge of any plan by the administration to announce a large loan to Israel just before the election. He said the United States has promised to resist aggression in that part of the world and added, "that is the best thing that could be said to a small country like Israel."

Nixon said the Republican party is not writing off the South, but that he thinks its chances are good to hold Virginia and Florida, fair to hold Texas. All three states went for Eisenhower in 1952.

Nixon's staff said the vice president dropped campaign activities on entering the campus. There was no organized welcome for him at the university although an enthusiastic crowd, mostly of townspeople, met him at the airport near Ithaca.

Although the Republican National Committee is paying for the television and radio time, Democrats have complained the university administration got into politics by taking the initiative in setting up a meeting of student editors from 38 colleges with the telecast press conference as its main feature.

Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman of New York who is a trustee of Cornell, wrote university President Deane W. Malott a letter in which the governor set out, he said, his own views as a trustee. Harriman said Malott could make it public if he wished. A university spokesman said Malott would not do so, on the ground it is an internal communication between a trustee and the university administration.

The university said invitations had been extended to national Democratic candidates to arrange a campus appearance later.

Nixon said at a press conference, "I don't believe allowing political candidates to appear on a campus places a university behind such candidates.

He's Already At Pole; Asks For A Ballot

How far would you travel to vote?

For one Lincoln voter, 9,500 miles is nothing when it comes to casting a ballot, by mail that is.

The voter is Chester E. Thomas J. of 4320 Touzalin, a naval airman who volunteered to take part in Admiral Richard Byrd's expedition to the South Pole.

Lancaster County Election Commissioner Harold Gillett said a Pentagon naval captain wrote the secretary of state's office to say Thomas wanted an absentee ballot. The request was referred to Gillett, who said the necessary papers would be flown to the Pentagon in Washington, then to Australia and finally to Byrd's camp at the bottom of the world.

More than 700 requests for absentee ballots have been received by the commissioner's office from many parts of the world.

In addition to absentee voting, the office is also taking new registrations up to Oct. 26 at 5 p.m. Total registration is still just below 54,000, not yet reaching the record high of 55,835 of 1953.

Hoosiers Seeking First '56 Win Against NU

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

Indiana's Hoosiers have been the whipping post of the Big Ten this fall.

They'll come to Memorial Stadium Saturday to meet the Nebraska Cornhuskers still looking for their first 1956 victory.

In fact the Hoosiers have scored only 12 points—two touchdowns—in their three previous contests.

Opening against Iowa, the Bloomington Boys coached by Bernie Crimmins, were blanked 27-0. A week later Notre Dame bounced them 20-6, and last Saturday Michigan State walloped them 53-6.

That's not an impressive record and it's easy to get the idea that the Hoosiers are a bunch of patsies.

But the truth of the matter is that the Hoosiers, while getting their lumps from some pretty good opponents, have a number of individual standouts with the stuff to make them a tough customer for any team.

A glance at the Big Ten individual statistics supplies some interesting information.

Bob Fee (No. 34), Hoosier fullback, is the Western Conference's No. 2 ground - gainer with 105 net yards in 26 carries for a 4.0 average. Fee's performances also rate him sixth place in the Big Ten total offense race.

Indiana Quarterbacks Gene Chicowski (No. 13) (first team) and Steve Filipowski (15) rank fifth and sixth respectively in the forward passing department

Chicowski has completed nine of 17 aerials for 108 yards. Filipowski has gained 89 yards on eight completions in 14 tries. Chicowski's 108 yards in the air, combined with his 21 net yards running, place him ninth in the league's total offense race

Mr. Chicowski, who has been a mighty busy fellow for the Hoosiers as can be noted, weighs 185 pounds.

And he has another specialty in addition to slipping passes. He's the Big Ten's leading punter. In two conference games, he has booted nine times for 375 yards—an average of 41 7 yards per game.

Not to be overlooked is his kickoff return record. Chicowski is fourth in the loop in this department, returning two kickoffs for 24 yards. Fee is the No. 2 returner, averaging 22 6 yards. Fee has returned five for 113 yards.

Two other Hoosiers rate spots in the individual statistics records. Right End Norm Craft (No. 83) is the runner - up pass catcher with four grabs good for 43 yards. Tom Kendrick (No. 28), another quarterback, is the fourth place punter, kicking three times for 113 yards—a 38.0 average.

These are impressive performances for a club that has been kicked around for three straight games.

Huskers Scrimmage

The Nebraska Cornhuskers wound up heavy preparations for Indiana Wednesday with an offensive scrimmage.

Center Bob Berguin and Guard LaVerne Torczon were held out of the rough work, but they'll be ready for Saturday's game.

There was also quite a bit of emphasis placed on pass defense.

Spartans Ready For Notre Dame

The precision timing necessary in executing Michigan State's fake "handoff-pitchout" play is shown as the Spartan backfield runs through the play Wednesday in preparation for Saturday's game with Notre Dame. Quarterback Pat Wilson (left) spins and as he fakes a handoff to his fullback, Don Gilbert, pitches under Gilbert's outstretched arms to halfback Clarence Peaks. Right halfback Jimmy Wulff sweeps behind the fullback on the play. (AP Wirephoto.)

Curfew, Calisthenics--Tighe

By JIM SMALLEGAN

DETROIT (AP) — Jack Tighe, balding and 43, Wednesday was made manager of the surging Detroit Tigers, a job he "wanted so bad I'd have taken it on six-weeks' contract."

The Tiger first base coach who thinks of himself as "fiery and aggressive," signed a one-year contract to succeed Stanley R. (Bucky) Harris with the fifth place American League baseball club

Although no salary was revealed, Tighe was estimated to have signed for between $20,000 and $25,000, a considerable cut from Harris' $40,000 salary.

Tiger Veteran

A veteran of almost 20 years in the Detroit organization, Tighe spent 13 seasons managing minor league clubs. He was boosted to Tiger first base and pitching coach two years ago

Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, general manager since an 11-man syndicate bought the Tigers last month for $5 500,000, said the new board "felt Tighe could lead the club into contention for a pennant We needed someone to bat somebody over the head"

"There will be no interference from the front office," Briggs added.

Harris, a mild mannered 59 with 29 years of major-league managerial experience, often was criticized for his lack of get-up-and-go He took a job as assistant to the vice president of the Boston Red Sox following his resignation Sept. 27.

1957 Plans

Tighe, who spoke freely of such plans as curfews at night and Calisthenics in the morning, said he will continue to use Third Base Coach Billy Hitchcock, 30, at his post. He said Don Lund, 33-year-old field director and scout, will coach first and 50-year-old Willis Hudlin, Detroit's minor league pitching coach, will direct the club's hurling.

Tighe was equally free speaking on his "shake-'em-up" managerial plans "The first thing I expect of a player is a little bit more effort," he said. "Players often are capable of giving just a little more."

Ready To Trade

He also said "We are ready to do some trading. I believe Detroit could have finished in the first division this year — maybe second place"

Tighe never has piloted a major league club, but boasts a notable record with his minor league teams

A minor league catcher when he broke into baseball in 1936, Tighe played 10 seasons. His minor league clubs finished in the first division seven times.

He managed Muskegan in 1940 and 1941, Winston-Salem in 1942, Batavia from 1944 through 1947, Flint in 1948 and 1949, Williamsport in 1950, Toledo in 1951 and Buffalo in 1952 and 1953.

Links Face State's Top 11 Tonight

By BOB McCOY
Star Sports Staff Writer

Coach Ed Schwartzkopf's Lincoln High Links will be facing one of their toughest test of the season when they get this week's local prep action off to a start by hosting a rugged Omaha North eleven at the Lincoln High Oval tonight.

And the Links will have their work cut out for themselves in this contest if they hope to square their season's won-lost mark at 3-3, for the Vikings from the Gate City moved into the Star's top spot in this week's Class ratings by virtue of a 19-13 win last week over defending state champ Creighton Prep.

Pacing the Norseman attack will be speedy halfback Virgil Williams and a top-notch field general in Stan Byers, whose last-minute scoring aerial gave the Vikings the victory over Prep.

Kickoff time for tonight's battle is slated for 7:30 p.m.

Swaps' Racing Future Dark

Speedster May Never Race Again

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — Meshach Tenney, trainer of Swaps, said Wednesday the record-breaking thoroughbred is "not in an immediate danger" but that "nobody knows if he'll ever race again"

Tenney's statement followed one issued Tuesday night by a Garden State spokesman which said

"A crack team of four veterinarians are working around the clock tonight at Garden State Park in an effort to save the life of the valuable thoroughbred."

"Wild Rumor"

Tenney described this as a "wild and unfounded rumor" and went on to say that Swaps "is 50 per cent better" than Sunday when the 4-year-old colt reinjured the left hind leg he fractured in a workout Oct. 9.

The trainer said, however, that "Nobody knows whether he will ever race again. We'll have to wait and see" He added that X-rays are being taken constantly and two men are assigned permanently to the stall to keep a 24-hour watch on the horse Swaps is not feverish or sick, Tenney said.

Efforts to reconcile the two statements failed to throw any light on the situation. Dr. Charles Raker of the University of Pennsylvania, one of four veterinarians who worked almost all night placing the horse in a sling and putting on a special cast, said he had been requested by Tenney "to allow all publicity on Swaps to come from me. We're retained by Mr. Tenney and must respect his wishes," Dr. Raker said.

Breaks Cast

Swaps suffered the leg fracture while taking a 6-furlong workout. He reinjured the leg while trying to get up in his stall Sunday, breaking the cast.

Tenney's statement said that the cast on Swaps' left hind leg was replaced and that a sling, provided by "Sunny" Jim Fitzsimmons, trainer of Swaps' arch - rival, Nashua, was set up in the stall. The sling keeps the injured foot off the ground.

Rex Ellsworth, Chino, Calif, co-owner of Swaps along with John W. Galbreath, Columbus, Ohio, said Wednesday that he's "not worried" about the horse. He said he believed Swaps would recover. Asked if he had been told whether the horse would ever run again or not, Ellsworth said, "No. Anyway, that would just be a guess."

Swaps reportedly is insured for one million dollars although Ellsworth said he didn't know the name of the company or the amount.

Swaps, winner of the 1955 Kentucky Derby and the fourth leading money-winner of all-time with over $800,000, holds four world's records and has tied one. He first gained racing fame by beating Nashua in the Kentucky Derby.

Soapy-Fingered Javelin Throwers Pep Industry

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Writer

If you own stock in a soap factory, get ready to buy a new billfold. Dividends may go up—and all because of the javelin throw.

A recent dispatch from Madrid tells of a new javelin-throwing style invented by the Spanish. The method will probably be outlawed in international competition, however.

The method, which gets great results, is deemed dangerous to spectators. It works like this:

The thrower whirls three times along a distance of about six paces before letting the javelin fly, much in the manner of a discus thrower.

Ordinarily the javelin thrower uses a straight run and an overarm throw.

The new method also involves a little trick to insure that the spear will leave the hand freely. The thrower keeps a pail of soapy water handy and dips his hand frequently to get that slippery touch.

Felix Erausquin, a 49-year-old Spaniard, invented the method. Using it, he threw the javelin 273 feet 6 inches.

This is more than five feet better than Bud Held's world record of 268-2½. Obviously, the new style works.

The drawback is the danger to spectators. The method, Erausquin admits, is erratic—sometimes the spear goes straight along its intended course and sometimes it doesn't. It may fly off at any angle. Sometimes it darts along the ground.

This offers intriguing vistas to a writer who is usually bored by track. We would rather enjoy watching the javelins fly willy-nilly and onlookers running helter-skelter. Just give us a foxhole and a crash helmet.

The method would put the thrill of the chase into a track meet. Spectators would have the feeling of the hunted. It would make the sporting public alert.

The discus-style javelin throw could give rise to complications, though.

Imagine what would happen if, in the Olympic Games, a Spanish javelin tosser speared a Russian ambassador in the crowd. Or if a spear-thrower from Egypt drilled a British spectator.

International incidents would be a dime a dozen.

If the method is outlawed, Erausquin stands to lose a sizable endorsement fee from soap companies. Using the right kind of soap might become more important to lance lobbers than it is to housewives. For instance:

"He's charming. He's lovely. He holds the world's javelin record. He uses Scrubbo soap."

B.O. would not be nearly as much of a handicap as S.P. (sticky palm).

The International Olympic Committee would have to pass a law limiting the amount of detergent a contestant would be allowed. They might also have to work out a system penalizing a thrower for drawing blood.

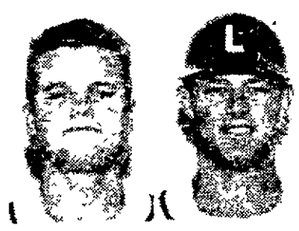

It's worth a try, anyway. Pass the soap—and don't hit the athletic director.

Lane Bout Set Despite Suspension

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Despite Kenny Lane's indefinite suspension by the National Boxing Assn., the Miami Boxing Commission will allow the fourth-ranking lightweight from Muskegon, Mich., to meet Frankie Ryff of New York in a nationally-televised fight Nov. 7.

At a meeting Tuesday night, the Miami group approved the bout "without reservations," although the NBA has suspended Lane pending investigation of a contract dispute in New Orleans.

In risking possible ouster from the NBA, the Miami commission said Promoter W. H. Peeples had made the Lane-Ryff match before hearing about Lane's suspension, and that he ought to be assured of some safety in making fights in advance.

Hollywood Gains Two '56 Chiefs

Lincoln Given 4 Standouts

Two members of the 1956 Lincoln Chiefs were traded to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League Wednesday.

The Chiefs traded Pitcher Don Rowe in exchange for contracts of four standout performers in the Pittsburgh minor league system.

Second Baseman Ken Toothman, was one of four players picked up by the Hollywood Stars from New Orleans of the Class AA Southern Association.

Also in on the deal that sent Toothman to Hollywood were Pitchers Don Kildoo and Don Schultz and Outfielder Emil Panko. Kildoo was with the Lincoln Chiefs during the 1955 campaign. Panko socked 33 home runs for New Orleans last season.

Biggest name coming to the Lincoln list is that of Right-hand Pitcher Benny Rich. Only 21, Rich had a "wealthy" season by leading Georgia-Florida League hurlers in total wins on his 18-6 record. Pitching from Brunswick, a Class D club, Rich struckout 233 hitters in 228 innings—a fine total! He gave up but 176 hits. Rich stands 6-2, weighs 190.

Infielder Benny Crumpton, a 22-year-old, is another newcomer for Lincoln. Crumpton led his Grand Forks team of the Class C Northern Loop for a .342 average and stole 42 bases. In 108 games he had 84 runs, 120 hits, 21 doubles, 12 homers.

Veteran First-baseman Tom Taylor returns to the Lincoln list for another shot at Class A following a .332 year for Kinston, N.C. of the Class B Carolina League. Taylor's average led the Kinston team. The 24-year-old hits left-handed.

Fourth man in the deal was the contract of Shortstop Johnny Richardson.

UNDERDOG GASPAR ORTEGA DECISIONS ISAAC LOGART

BOSTON (AP) — Gasper (Indian) Ortega of Mexico, a 4-1 underdog upset Isaac Logart of Cuba, the No. 3 welterweight contender, by pounding out a divided decision in a fiercely fought 10-rounder Wednesday night at Mechanics Building.

Logart weighed 146, Ortega 148.

Ortega, an unranked battler outpointed by Logart last March, took a heavy body battering but landed enough strong punches to earn the votes of two officials and halt the Cuban's nine-fight winning string.

The "studio" crowd of a mere 906 attending the nationally and locally televised bout cheered the verdict. Most writers were split in their decision on the winner.

Logart, who has been campaigning for a shot at Boston's Tony DeMarco, the No. 1 welter contender, couldn't wear down the durable Ortega with his hard rights and lefts to the body and the head.

The only near-knockdown came in the sixth when Ortega spun Logart into the ropes and then belted the Cuban with a wicked left before Isaac could turn around. Ortega followed with a right which sent Logart reeling across the ring.

Ortega sought to follow up his advantage, but Logart pulled himself together and fought back with a series of lefts and rights.

Logart took command at the opening bell and won the first round handily. But Ortega got rolling in the second and from then until the finish the bout was more like a dock brawl.

Logart appeared to like fighting at close quarter, while Ortega preferred fighting at long range. But they both threw out their individual preferences when needed.

A left hook by Logart opened a cut at the corner of Ortega's right eye in the second but the wound was closed before the third and the Mexican wasn't bothered the rest of the way.

The crowd cheered, clapped and stomped for a full final minute as Logart and Ortega wound up in a close-quarter slugfest with neither yielding an inch.

Referee Eddie Curley favored Ortega in the 10-round scoring system 97-95, while Judge John Norton had the Mexican ahead 97-96. Judge Harry Sundburg called the fight a draw 96-96.

The AP card had Logart in front 97-93.

Series Melon Sliced; Yankee Shares Worth $8,714; Brooks Collect $6,934

NEW YORK (INS) — The victorious New York Yankees made $8,714.76 per full share for wresting away baseball's world title from the Brooklyn Dodgers in their exciting seven-game series.

The official breakdown on the players' spoils was released Wednesday by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick, and the figures disclose that the losing Dodgers got $6,934.34 each for their troubles.

The Yankees voted 32 full shares and the Dodgers voted 28 full shares, but the most interesting item concerned the three-quarter share of $6,536.10 the Bombers voted for Enos Slaughter, third game hero of the series.

Charles Segar, secretary-treasurer of baseball, disclosed that during batting practice before the second game at Ebbets Field, Jerry Coleman, player representative of the Yankees, asked the Commissioner if he would approve the Yanks' raising Slaughter from a half share to three-quarters.

Segar stressed that the Yankee players had voted the increase in a pre-series meeting and that the raise had nothing to do with Slaughter's play in the classic.

"The commissioner would never approve a cut for any player nor would he okay any share that was contingent upon how a player did in the series," Segar insisted.

As expected, the Yankees gave a full share to veteran Shortstop Phil Rizzuto, who was released to make room for the 40-year-old Slaughter before the Sept. 1 deadline.

Outfielder Irv Noren, on the disabled list for most of the campaign, also was voted a full share while George Wilson, used sparingly in the late season as a pinch-hitter, and Jerry Lumpe, farmed out after a very brief try at short in the early season, got half shares.

Included in the Dodger division was a $500 grant to Johnny Podres, the southpaw hero of the 1955 World Series who is now in the Navy...

When the Brooks won the series in 1955 the winning shares amounted to $9,768.21 and the losing shares to $5,598.58.

Players only share in the receipts of the first four games and the record winning share is the $11,147.90 the Giants got for taking the Cleveland Indians in four straight games in 1954.

The total player money for this year was $758,561.63 with the Yankees getting $318,595.89 and the Dodgers $212,397.26.

Players on the runner-up teams also figured in the cut. In the American league, full shares for Cleveland amounted to $1,649.05, for the White Sox $1,112.75, for the Red Sox $505.71.

Full-sharing players on Milwaukee's second place Braves get $1,598.32 (deposed Manager Charley Grimm was voted a half share), Cincinnati's players get $1,185.25 and St. Louis $662.03.

Steen Warns Hunters To Be Fire Conscious

State Game Commission director Mel Steen Wednesday issued a warning to Nebraska hunters to be particularly careful of fires this year, because of the extended dry season.

"Much of the state is like a tinder box," Steen said.

He pointed out that the fire problem is a matter of awareness, that Nebraskans must think constantly about such things as throwing lighted cigarettes out of car windows.

Hoosiers Seeking First '56 Win Against NU

By DON BRYANT
Sports Editor, The Star

Indiana's Hoosiers have been the whipping post of the Big Ten this fall.

They'll come to Memorial Stadium Saturday to meet the Nebraska Cornhuskers still looking for their first 1956 victory.

In fact the Hoosiers have scored only 12 points—two touchdowns—in their three previous contests.

Opening against Iowa, the Bloomington Boys coached by Bernie Crimmins, were blanked 27-0. A week later Notre Dame bounced them 20-6, and last Saturday Michigan State walloped them 53-6.

That's not an impressive record and it's easy to get the idea that the Hoosiers are a bunch of patsies.

But the truth of the matter is that the Hoosiers, while getting their lumps from some pretty good opponents, have a number of individual standouts with the stuff to make them a tough customer for any team.

A glance at the Big Ten individual statistics supplies some interesting information.

Bob Fee (No. 34), Hoosier fullback, is the Western Conference's No. 2 ground - gainer with 105 net yards in 26 carries for a 4.0 average. Fee's performances also rate him sixth place in the Big Ten total offense race.

Indiana Quarterbacks Gene Chicowski (No. 13) (first team) and Steve Filipowski (15) rank fifth and sixth respectively in the forward passing department.

Chicowski has completed nine of 17 aerials for 108 yards. Filipowski has gained 89 yards on eight completions in 14 tries. Chicowski's 108 yards in the air, combined with his 21 net yards running, place him ninth in the league's total offense race.

Mr. Chicowski, who has been a mighty busy fellow for the Hoosiers as can be noted, weighs 185 pounds.

And he has another specialty in addition to slipping passes. He's the Big Ten's leading punter. In two conference games, he has booted nine times for 375 yards—an average of 41.7 yards per game.

Not to be overlooked is his kickoff return record. Chicowski is fourth in the loop in this department, returning two kickoffs for 24 yards. Fee is the No. 2 returner, averaging 22.6 yards. Fee has returned five for 113 yards.

Two other Hoosiers rate spots in the individual statistics records. Right End Norm Craft (No. 83) is the runner - up pass catcher with four grabs good for 43 yards. Tom Kendrick (No. 28), another quarterback, is the fourth place punter, kicking three times for 113 yards—a 38.0 average.

These are impressive performances for a club that has been kicked around for three straight games.

Huskers Scrimmage

The Nebraska Cornhuskers wound up heavy preparations for Indiana Wednesday with an offensive scrimmage.

Center Bob Berguin and Guard LaVerne Torczon were held out of the rough work, but they'll be ready for Saturday's game.

There was also quite a bit of emphasis placed on pass defense.

Spartans Ready For Notre Dame

The precision timing necessary in executing Michigan State's fake "handoff-pitchout" play is shown as the Spartan backfield runs through the play Wednesday in preparation for Saturday's game with Notre Dame. Quarterback Pat Wilson (left) spins and as he fakes a handoff to his fullback, Don Gilbert, pitches under Gilbert's outstretched arms to halfback Clarence Peaks. Right halfback Jimmy Wulff sweeps behind the fullback on the play. (AP Wirephoto.)

Curfew, Calisthenics--Tighe

By JIM SMALLEGAN

DETROIT (AP) — Jack Tighe, balding and 43, Wednesday was made manager of the surging Detroit Tigers, a job he "wanted so bad I'd have taken it on six-weeks' contract."

The Tiger first base coach who thinks of himself as "fiery and aggressive," signed a one-year contract to succeed Stanley R. (Bucky) Harris with the fifth-place American League baseball club.

Although no salary was revealed, Tighe was estimated to have signed for between $20,000 and $25,000, a considerable cut from Harris' $40,000 salary.

Tiger Veteran

A veteran of almost 20 years in the Detroit organization, Tighe spent 13 seasons managing minor league clubs. He was boosted to Tiger first base and pitching coach two years ago.

Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, general manager since an 11-man syndicate bought the Tigers last month for $5,500,000, said the new board "felt Tighe could lead the club into contention for a pennant. We needed someone to bat somebody over the head."

"There will be no interference from the front office," Briggs added.

Harris, a mild-mannered 59 with 29 years of major-league managerial experience, often was criticized for his lack of get-up-and-go. He took a job as assistant to the vice president of the Boston Red Sox following his resignation Sept. 27.

1957 Plans

Tighe, who spoke freely of such plans as curfews at night and Calisthenics in the morning, said he will continue to use Third Base Coach Billy Hitchcock, 30, at his post. He said Don Lund, 33-year-old field director and scout, will coach first and 50-year-old Willis Hudlin, Detroit's minor league pitching coach, will direct the club's hurling.

Tighe was equally free speaking on his "shake-'em-up" managerial plans. "The first thing I expect of a player is a little bit more effort," he said. "Players often are capable of giving just a little more."

Ready To Trade

He also said "We are ready to do some trading. I believe Detroit could have finished in the first division this year — maybe second place."

Tighe never has piloted a major league club, but boasts a notable record with his minor league teams.

A minor league catcher when he broke into baseball in 1936, Tighe played 10 seasons. His minor league clubs finished in the first division seven times.

He managed Muskegan in 1940 and 1941, Winston-Salem in 1942, Batavia from 1944 through 1947, Flint in 1948 and 1949, Williamsport in 1950, Toledo in 1951 and Buffalo in 1952 and 1953.

YOU BE THE QUARTERBACK

By WARREN GAER
Head Football Coach, Drake University

Navy leads Cincinnati, 14-13. It is Cincinnati's ball on the Navy one-yard line, fourth down with only seconds remaining in the game.

In this drive, the Bearcats have carried off-tackle twice for three yeards each time, but it's been their short passing game that has kept their drive going. In the march to the goal line, Cincinnati has completed four out of five short passes from the straight-T formation (quarterback behind center, forms a "T" with three deep backs).

You are the Cincinnati quarterback. Rate these plays 1, 2, 3 and 4:

Quarterback sneak.
Jump pass to an end.
Fullback off tackle.
Buttonhook pass in the end zone (receiver turns and faces passer after going downfield).

Links Face State's Top 11 Tonight

By BOB McCOY
Star Sports Staff Writer

Coach Ed Schwartzkopf's Lincoln High Links will be facing one of their toughest test of the season when they get this week's local prep action off to a start by hosting a rugged Omaha North eleven at the Lincoln High Oval tonight.

And the Links will have their work cut out for themselves in this contest if they hope to square their season's won-lost mark at 3-3, for the Vikings from the Gate City moved into the Star's top spot in this week's Class ratings by virtue of a 19-13 win last week over defending state champ Creighton Prep.

Pacing the Norseman attack will be speedy halfback Virgil Williams and a top-notch field general in Stan Byers, whose last-minute scoring aerial gave the Vikings the victory over Prep.

Kickoff time for tonight's battle is slated for 7:30 p.m.

Soapy-Fingered Javelin Throwers Pep Industry

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Writer

If you own stock in a soap factory, get ready to buy a new billfold. Dividends may go up—and all because of the javelin throw.

A recent dispatch from Madrid tells of a new javelin-throwing style invented by the Spanish. The method will probably be outlawed in international competition, however.

The method, which gets great results, is deemed dangerous to spectators. It works like this:

The thrower whirls three times along a distance of about six paces before letting the javelin fly, much in the manner of a discus thrower.

Ordinarily the javelin thrower uses a straight run and an overarm throw.

The new method also involves a little trick to insure that the spear will leave the hand freely. The thrower keeps a pail of soapy water handy and dips his hand frequently to get that slippery touch.

Felix Erausquin, a 49-year-old Spaniard, invented the method. Using it, he threw the javelin 273 feet 6 inches.

This is more than five feet better than Bud Held's world record of 268-2½. Obviously, the new style works.

The drawback is the danger to spectators. The method, Erausquin admits, is erratic—sometimes the spear goes straight along its intended course and sometimes it doesn't. It may fly off at any angle. Sometimes it darts along the ground.

This offers intriguing vistas to a writer who is usually bored by track. We would rather enjoy watching the javelins fly willy-nilly and onlookers running helter-skelter. Just give us a foxhole and a crash helmet.

The method would put the thrill of the chase into a track meet. Spectators would have the feeling of the hunted. It would make the sporting public alert.

The discus-style javelin throw could give rise to complications, though.

Imagine what would happen if, in the Olympic Games, a Spanish javelin tosser speared a Russian ambassador in the crowd. Or if a spear-thrower from Egypt drilled a British spectator.

International incidents would be a dime a dozen.

If the method is outlawed, Erausquin stands to lose a sizable endorsement fee from soap companies. Using the right kind of soap might become more important to lance lobbers than it is to housewives. For instance:

"He's charming. He's lovely. He holds the world's javelin record. He uses Scrubbo soap."

B.O. would not be nearly as much of a handicap as S.P. (sticky palm).

The International Olympic Committee would have to pass a law limiting the amount of detergent a contestant would be allowed. They might also have to work out a system penalizing a thrower for drawing blood.

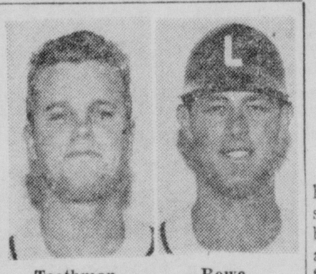

It's worth a try, anyway. Pass the soap—and don't hit the athletic director.

Lane Bout Set Despite Suspension

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Despite Kenny Lane's indefinite suspension by the National Boxing Assn., the Miami Boxing Commission will allow the fourth-ranking lightweight from Muskegon, Mich., to meet Frankie Ryff of New York in a nationally-televised fight Nov. 7.

At a meeting Tuesday night, the Miami group approved the bout "without reservations," although the NBA has suspended Lane pending investigation of a contract dispute in New Orleans.

In risking possible ouster from the NBA, the Maimi commission said Promoter W. H. Peeples had made the Lane-Ryff match before hearing about Lane's suspension, and that he ought to be assured of some safety in making fights in advance.

Hollywood Gains Two '56 Chiefs

Lincoln Given 4 Standouts

Two members of the 1956 Lincoln Chiefs were traded to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League Wednesday.

The Chiefs traded Pitcher Don Rowe in exchange for contracts of four standout performers in the Pittsburgh minor league system.

Second Baseman Ken Toothman, was one of four players picked up by the Hollywood Stars from New Orleans of the Class AA Southern Association.

Also in on the deal that sent Toothman to Hollywood were Pitchers Don Kildoo and Don Schultz and Outfielder Emil Panko. Kildoo was with the Lincoln Chiefs during the 1955 campaign. Panko socked 33 home runs for New Orleans last season.

Biggest name coming to the Lincoln list is that of Right-hand Pitcher Benny Rich. Only 21, Rich had a "wealthy" season by leading Georgia-Florida League hurlers in total wins on his 18-6 record. Pitching from Brunswick, a Class D club, Rich struckout 233 hitters in 228 innings—a fine total! He gave up but 176 hits. Rich stands 6-2, weighs 190.

Infielder Benny Crumpton, a 22-year-old, is another newcomer for Lincoln. Crumpton led his Grand Forks team of the Class C Northern Loop for a .342 average and stole 42 bases. In 108 games he had 84 runs, 120 hits, 21 doubles, 12 homers.

Veteran First-baseman Tom Taylor returns to the Lincoln list for another shot at Class A following a .332 year for Kinston, N.C. of the Class B Carolina League. Taylor's average led the Kinston team. The 24-year-old hits left-handed.

Fourth man in the deal was the contract of Shortstop Johnny Richardson.

Speedster May Never Race Again

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — Meshach Tenney, trainer of Swaps, said Wednesday the record-breaking thoroughbred is "not in an immediate danger" but that "nobody knows if he'll ever race again."

Tenney's statement followed one issued Tuesday night by a Garden State spokesman which said:

"A crack team of four veterinarians are working around the clock tonight at Garden State Park in an effort to save the life of the valuable thoroughbred."

"Wild Rumor"

Tenney described this as a "wild and unfounded rumor" and went on to say that Swaps "is 50 per cent better" than Sunday when the 4-year-old colt reinjured the left hind leg he fractured in a workout Oct. 9.

The trainer said, however, that "Nobody knows whether he will ever race again. We'll have to wait and see." He added that X-rays are being taken constantly and two men are assigned permanently to the stall to keep a 24-hour watch on the horse. Swaps is not feverish or sick, Tenney said.

Efforts to reconcile the two statements failed to throw any light on the situation. Dr. Charles Raker of the University of Pennsylvania, one of four veterinarians who worked almost all night placing the horse in a sling and putting on a special cast, said he had been requested by Tenney "to allow all publicity on Swaps to come from me. We're retained by Mr. Tenney and must respect his wishes," Dr. Raker said.

Breaks Cast

Swaps suffered the leg fracture while taking a 6-furlong workout. He reinjured the leg while trying to get up in his stall Sunday, breaking the cast.

Tenney's statement said that the cast on Swaps' left hind leg was replaced and that a sling, provided by "Sunny" Jim Fitzsimmons, trainer of Swaps' arch - rival, Nashua, was set up in the stall. The sling keeps the injured foot off the ground.

Rex Ellsworth, Chino, Calif., co-owner of Swaps along with John W. Galbreath, Columbus, Ohio, said Wednesday that he's "not worried" about the horse. He said he believed Swaps would recover. Asked if he had been told whether the horse would ever run again or not, Ellsworth said, "No. Anyway, that would just be a guess."

Swaps reportedly is insured for one million dollars although Ellsworth said he didn't know the name of the company or the amount.

Swaps, winner of the 1955 Kentucky Derby and the fourth leading money-winner of all-time with over $800,000, holds four world's records and has tied one. He first gained racing fame by beating Nashua in the Kentucky Derby.

UNDERDOG GASPAR ORTEGA DECISIONS ISAAC LOGART

BOSTON (AP) — Gasper (Indian) Ortega of Mexico, a 4-1 underdog upset Isaac Logart of Cuba, the No. 3 welterweight contender, by pounding out a divided decision in a fiercely fought 10-rounder Wednesday night at Mechanics Building.

Logart weighed 146, Ortega 148.

Ortega, an unranked battler outpointed by Logart last March, took a heavy body battering but landed enough strong punches to earn the votes of two officials and halt the Cuban's nine-fight winning string.

The "studio" crowd of a mere 906 attending the nationally and locally televised bout cheered the verdict. Most writers were split in their decision on the winner.

Logart, who has been campaigning for a shot at Boston's Tony DeMarco, the No. 1 welter contender, couldn't wear down the durable Ortega with his hard rights and lefts to the body and the head.

The only near-knockdown came in the sixth when Ortega spun Logart into the ropes and then belted the Cuban with a wicked left before Isaac could turn around. Ortega followed with a right which sent Logart reeling across the ring.

Ortega sought to follow up his advantage, but Logart pulled himself together and fought back with a series of lefts and rights.

Logart took command at the opening bell and won the first round handily. But Ortega got rolling in the second and from then until the finish the bout was more like a dock brawl.

Logart appeared to like fighting at close quarter, while Ortega preferred fighting at long range. But they both threw out their individual preferences when needed.

A left hook by Logart opened a cut at the corner of Ortega's right eye in the second but the wound was closed before the third and the Mexican wasn't bothered the rest of the way.

The crowd cheered, clapped and stomped for a full final minute as Logart and Ortega wound up in a close-quarter slugfest with neither yielding an inch.

Referee Eddie Curley favored Ortega in the 10-round scoring system 97-95, while Judge John Norton had the Mexican ahead 97-96. Judge Harry Sundburg called the fight a draw 96-96.

The AP card had Logart in front 97-93.

Series Melon Sliced; Yankee Shares Worth $8,714; Brooks Collect $6,934

NEW YORK (INS) — The victorious New York Yankees made $8,714.76 per full share for wresting away baseball's world title from the Brooklyn Dodgers in their exciting seven-game series.

The official breakdown on the players' spoils was released Wednesday by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick, and the figures disclose that the losing Dodgers got $6,934.34 each for their troubles.

The Yankees voted 32 full shares and the Dodgers voted 28 full shares, but the most interesting item concerned the three-quarter share of $6,536.10 the Bombers voted for Enos Slaughter, third game hero of the series.

Charles Segar, secretary-treasurer of baseball, disclosed that during batting practice before the second game at Ebbets Field, Jerry Coleman, player representative of the Yankees, asked the Commissioner if he would approve the Yanks' raising Slaughter from a half share to three quarters.

Segar stressed that the Yankee players had voted the increase in a pre-series meeting and that the raise had nothing to do with Slaughter's play in the classic.

"The commissioner would never approve a cut for any player nor would he okay any share that was contingent upon how a player did in the series," Segar insisted.

As expected, the Yankees gave a full share to veteran Shortstop Phil Rizzuto, who was released to make room for the 40-year-old Slaughter before the Sept. 1 deadline.

Outfielder Irv Noren, on the disabled list for most of the campaign, also was voted a full share while George Wilson, used sparingly in the late season as a pinch-hitter, and Jerry Lumpe, farmed out after a very brief try at short in the early season, got half shares.

Included in the Dodger division was a $500 grant to Johnny Podres, the southpaw hero of the 1955 World Series who is now in the Navy...

When the Brooks won the series in 1955 the winning shares amounted to $9,768.21 and the losing shares to $5,598.58.

Players only share in the receipts of the first four games and the record winning share is the $11,147.90 the Giants got for taking the Cleveland Indians in four straight games in 1954.

The total player money for this year was $758,561.63 with the Yankees getting $318,595.89 and the Dodgers $212,397.26.

Players on the runner-up teams also figured in the cut. In the American league, full shares for Cleveland amounted to $1,649.05, for the White Sox $1,112.75, for the Red Sox $505.71.

Full-sharing players on Milwaukee's second place Braves get $1,598.32 (deposed Manager Charley Grimm was voted a half share), Cincinnati's players get $1,185.25 and St. Louis $602.03.

Steen Warns Hunters To Be Fire Conscious

State Game Commission director Mel Steen Wednesday issued a warning to Nebraska hunters to be particularly careful of fires this year, because of the extended dry season.

"Much of the state is like a tinder box," Steen said.

He pointed out that the fire problem is a matter of awareness, that Nebraskans must think constantly about such things as throwing lighted cigarettes out of car windows.

Mantle Wins Slugging Crown

Yank's Mark Is Highest Since '41

NEW YORK (AP) — Mighty Mickey Mantle, following in the tradition of the former New York Yankee distance - swingers, has added his second slugging championship to his already imposing list of American League batting laurels.

The 24-year-old, switch-hitting outfielder posted the highest slugging percentage in the majors in 1956 at .705, figures complied by The Associated Press revealed today. This was the best slugging mark since Boston's Ted Williams finished with .735 in 1941. Williams was runner-up to Mantle this season with .603.

Mantle, who also won the league's batting, home runs and runs-batted-in titles, collected 376 total bases in 533 at bats. Included among his 188 hits were 22 doubles, 5 triples and 52 homers.

Slugging averages are determined by dividing the total bases of his season's hits by the times at bat. This is in contrast to the batting averages where the number of hits is divided by the at-bats. Mantle's batting average was .353.

For Mantle, it marked the second straight year he captured slugging honors. He now joins such other famed Yankee power hitters as Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio, who also wore the slugging crown twice in their illustrious careers.

The young fence-buster, in completing his fifth season with the New Yorkers, still has a long haul if he is to surpass the immortal Babe Ruth's slugging mastery. The Bambino won the championship 11 times within a 12-year span from 1920-1931 while with the Yanks. In 1920 he recorded the highest slugging figures ever amassed — .847.

While Mantle made a runaway of the American League slugging race, the National League produced a much closer struggle with Brooklyn's Duke Snider edging Joe Adcock of Milwaukee, .598 to .597. The 30-year-old Dodger outfielder actually won the title on the final day of the season when he homered twice in Brooklyn's pennant-clinching victory.

This was the second time in four seasons that Snider has been extended in annexing the slugging diadem. In 1953 he barely squeezed past the Braves' Eddie Mathews, .6271 to .6269.

Gloomy Day Predicted For Notre Dame, Army Fans

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Another gloomy day for Notre Dame and Army, a second victory for panting Penn and a major upset in the Southwest — Texas A&M to knock off mighty Texas Christian.

That's the football forecast from our new electronic gadget which picks up sound waves from coaches' pep talks. Last week 32 right, 11 wrong for .744. Over-all score: 132-38 for .776.

Texas A&M 20, Texas Christian 13: The Aggies were tied by Houston last week because they were thinking of ways to stop Jim Swink.

Syracuse 21, Army 7: Syracuse's Jim Brown is one of the country's best running backs. Army still reeling from Michigan disaster.

Pennsylvania 13, Brown 6: The Quakers, who lost 19 in a row before beating Dartmouth, take their second in an upset.

Oklahoma 40, Kansas 0: Tommy McDonald and Clendon Thomas again vie for touchdowns in an easy sweep.

Michigan State 28, Notre Dame 7: The Fighting Irish would like to aveuge previous defeats here but will wait to unleash their fury on Oklahoma.

UCLA 14, California 7: California a one-point favorite but we feel Red Sanders has his UCLANs rolling, especially Don Long.

Mississippi 20, Tulane 13: Tulane has a slick quarterback in Gene Newton, but Ole Miss' all-around speed and depth too much.

Duke 21, Pittsburgh 7: Sonny Jurgensen is back in action and that gives the Devils the get-up-and-go they've needed.

Southern Cal 13, Washington 7: The Trojans won't let as many fumbles squirt away as Oregon did last week.

Rice 20, Southern Methodist 14: In a close Southwest game, look where they play. Rice is host to this one.

Maryland 19, North Carolina 13: Jim Tatum sends his winless Tarheels against his old school, a close one but not enough.

DAY

Huskies' Tackle Lineman Of Week

By TED MEIER
The Associated Press

Dick Day, a husky 240-pound tackle for the University of Washington, Wednesday was named the Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

A close second in the balloting by the sportswriters and broadcasters in this first weekly poll of the season was another behemoth — Jim Parker, 234-pound guard for Ohio State.

Day, a standout for Washington in previous games against Minnesota and Illinois, figured prominently in the Huskies' 20-7 victory over Oregon last Saturday. He pounced on three Oregon fumbles. One of the recoveries was on the Washington 7 and stopped an Oregon drive. Another recovery led to a Washington touchdown. In addition, Day, a junior, constantly rushed Oregon passers.

Busy Guard

Parker, a senior guard, figured in 19 defensive plays against Illinois as the Buckeyes ground out a 26-6 victory. He made nine tackles himself and aided in numerous others. On offense he cleared the way for many gains through his position, one of them a buck from the 1 for a touchdown.

Tommy McDonald, Oklahoma halfback, was named Back of the Week Tuesday. He scored three touchdowns as Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1, romped to a 45-0 victory over Texas.

Corky Lewis, Washington end, was one of the leading nominees. He was credited with 10 tackles, one when he overhauled Oregon's Jack Morris on the opening kickoff. Morris went 76 yards until Lewis brought him down on the Washington 14.

Other nominees included:

Ends—George Benedict, Springfield (Mass.) College; Frank Gilliam, Iowa.

Tackles—Alex Karras and Dick Klein, both of Iowa; Wick Heyden, Michigan.

Guards — Wayne Coble, Oklahoma A&M.

Center—Jerry Tubbs, Oklahoma.

Alvo Coach Hanway Most Conscientious

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Writer

Coach A. Jay Hanway of Alvo must be just about the most conscientious coach in the state.

We talked with Coach Hanway recently, after his team had hung up its fifth straight six-man victory in a 39-38 thriller with Eagle.

We asked him to name some of his outstanding players and he singled out three boys.

The next day brought this letter from Coach Hanway:

". . .After our conversation I realized that I had named three boys who were our best. I have never singled out one player or another because these boys have a great feeling of teamwork and team spirit. They realize that our substitutes are extremely important too."

You can realize the importance of substitutes at Alvo when you note that Coach Hanway has only 10 boys out for football. Yet with that small squad Alvo has already defeated two teams which have won all their other games—Elmwood and Eagle

Starting in the Alvo backfield are Dale and Bob Roelofsz, and Jim Vincent. Roger Gilmore is the center and George Hoss and Bob Neben get the call at the ends.

Substitutes, of whom Hanway speaks highly, are John Garcia, Eugene Eikerman, Dave Hermance and Jim Winget.

Alvo's toughest test may come Friday night against an undefeated Brock team.

But win, lose or draw—the latter possibility isn't likely in six-man football—Alvo's players know they have strong support from Coach Hanway.

Side glances: Johnson and Burchard engaged in one of the scoringest games in Nebraska prep history last week. The final count was 82-58 in favor of Johnson, which got a six-touchdown performance out of Terry Broady. . . Diller is again booming Connie Lawrence for all-state honors. The shifty Eagle star, one of the top six-man ballcarriers around last year, has taken to the air more this season but can still step with the best of them.

Just how much can one player mean to a six-man team? Ask Humphrey backers. With Bob Schnitzler running wild, Humphrey seemed on the way to an all-winning season. Humphrey had a one-touchdown lead over Creston recently when Schnitzler suffered a broken ankle—Creston breezed home. The next week Humphrey lost to Monroe 49-0.

Bill Mansur, former Blue Springs and Clarks coach, writes glowingly of two of his Cedar Rapids players—quarterback Paul Homan, with a pass completion average of 85 per cent, and end John Demuth, good offensively and defensively.

Concordia Girls Omaha Winners

Eleven Concordia College girls won first place in the College Sports Day events at the University of Omaha, according to Miss Eleanor Glaess, Concordia's womens physical education instructor.

The girls participated in volleyball, field hockey, badmiton, ping pong, bango bango, worked out on the trampoline, and also did a bit of rifle practice.

Others colleges participating in the event were Kearney, Midland, College of St. Mary, Doane, Chadron, Luther, and Omaha.

Midget Title To Downtown

You just don't see them anymore—those five-quarter football games.

But the playoff battle for the city midget football championship between the Downtown Merchants and the Northeast Merchants went five periods Wednesday night at College View field—and ended in a scoreless deadlock.

The two teams were still knotted up at 0-0 after four quarters so an extra period was played and again neither team could score.

But the city championship was awarded to Downtown because in three games with Northeast they had won one, lost none and tied two. It was the fourth consecutive city title for Downtown.

Northeast quarterback Dave Lebsack directed his team to the Downtown 20-yard line three times in the final half of regulation time but the Downtown defense held on each occasion.

Other standouts for Northeast were halfback Dave Wolf and center Stan Grell while Darrell Monesmith, Dennie Sedden and Ronnie Chambers paced the Downtown efforts.

Downtown will now meet Roberts Dairy, Omaha midget champion 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Boys Town while Northeast will play Omaha runnerup Brandeis in a preliminary match at 1 p.m.

Link Reserves Dump Northeast

The Lincoln High reserves took a 13-6 first half advantage and then poured on the coal in the second half to take a 33-12 gridiron decision over the Northeast reserves at the Lincoln High Oval Wednesday.

Fred Wilson paced the Lincoln crew by turning in three scoring jaunts of 81, 61 and 10 yards.

Mantle Wins Slugging Crown

Yank's Mark Is Highest Since '41

NEW YORK (AP) — Mighty Mickey Mantle, following in the tradition of the former New York Yankee distance - swingers, has added his second slugging championship to his already imposing list of American League batting laurels.

The 24-year-old, switch-hitting outfielder posted the highest slugging percentage in the majors in 1956 at .705, figures complied by The Associated Press revealed today. This was the best slugging mark since Boston's Ted Williams finished with .735 in 1941. Williams was runner-up to Mantle this season with .603.

Mantle, who also won the league's batting, home runs and runs-batted-in titles, collected 376 total bases in 533 at bats. Included among his 188 hits were 22 doubles, 5 triples and 52 homers.

Slugging averages are determined by dividing the total bases of his season's hits by the times at bat. This is in contrast to the batting averages where the number of hits is divided by the at-bats. Mantle's batting average was .353.

For Mantle, it marked the second straight year he captured slugging honors. He now joins such other famed Yankee power hitters as Lou Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio, who also wore the slugging crown twice in their illustrious careers.

The young fence-buster, in completing his fifth season with the New Yorkers, still has a long haul if he is to surpass the immortal Babe Ruth's slugging mastery. The Bambino won the championship 11 times within a 12-year span from 1920-1931 while with the Yanks. In 1920 he recorded the highest slugging figures ever amassed — .847.

While Mantle made a runaway of the American League slugging race, the National League produced a much closer struggle with Brooklyn's Duke Snider edging Joe Adcock of Milwaukee, .598 to .597. The 30-year-old Dodger outfielder actually won the title on the final day of the season when he homered twice in Brooklyn's pennant-clinching victory.

This was the second time in four seasons that Snider has been extended in annexing the slugging diadem. In 1953 he barely squeezed past the Braves' Eddie Mathews, .6271 to .6269.

Gloomy Day Predicted For Notre Dame, Army Fans

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Another gloomy day for Notre Dame and Army, a second victory for panting Penn and a major upset in the Southwest — Texas A&M to knock off mighty Texas Christian.

That's the football forecast from our new electronic gadget which picks up sound waves from coaches' pep talks. Last week 32 right, 11 wrong for .744. Over-all score: 132-38 for .776.

Texas A&M 20, Texas Christian 13: The Aggies were tied by Houston last week because they were thinking of ways to stop Jim Swink.

Syracuse 21, Army 7: Syracuse's Jim Brown is one of the country's best running backs. Army still reeling from Michigan disaster.

Pennsylvania 13, Brown 6: The Quakers, who lost 19 in a row before beating Dartmouth, take their second in an upset.

Oklahoma 40, Kansas 0: Tommy McDonald and Clendon Thomas again vie for touchdowns in an easy sweep.

Michigan State 28, Notre Dame 7: The Fighting Irish would like to avenge previous defeats here but will wait to unleash their fury on Oklahoma.

UCLA 14, California 7: California a one-point favorite but we feel Red Sanders has his UCLANs rolling, especially Don Long.

Mississippi 20, Tulane 13: Tulane has a slick quarterback in Gene Newton, but Ole Miss' all-around speed and depth too much.

Duke 21, Pittsburgh 7: Sonny Jurgensen is back in action and that gives the Devils the get-up-and-go they've needed.

Southern Cal 13, Washington 7: The Trojans won't let as many fumbles squirt away as Oregon did last week.

Rice 20, Southern Methodist 14: In a close Southwest game, look where they play. Rice is host to this one.

Maryland 19, North Carolina 13: Jim Tatum sends his winless Tarheels against his old school, a close one but not enough.

The others:

Huskies' Tackle Lineman Of Week

By TED MEIER
The Associated Press

Dick Day, a husky 240-pound tackle for the University of Washington, Wednesday was named the Associated Press Lineman of the Week.

A close second in the balloting by the sportswriters and broadcasters in this first weekly poll of the season was another behemoth — Jim Parker, 254-pound guard for Ohio State.

Tommy McDonald, Oklahoma halfback, was named Back of the Week Tuesday. He scored three touchdowns as Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1, romped to a 45-0 victory over Texas.

Corky Lewis, Washington end, was one of the leading nominees. He was credited with 10 tackles, one when he overhauled Oregon's Jack Morris on the opening kick-off. Morris went 76 yards until Lewis brought him down on the Washington 14.

Other nominees included:

Ends—George Benedict, Springfield (Mass.) College; Frank Gilliam, Iowa.

Tackles—Alex Karras and Dick Klein, both of Iowa; Wick Heyden, Michigan.

Guards — Wayne Coble, Oklahoma A&M.

Center—Jerry Tubbs, Oklahoma.

Alvo Coach Hanway Most Conscientious

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Writer

Coach A. Jay Hanway of Alvo must be just about the most conscientious coach in the state.

We talked with Coach Hanway recently, after his team had hung up its fifth straight six-man victory in a 39-38 thriller with Eagle.

We asked him to name some of his outstanding players and he singled out three boys.

The next day brought this letter from Coach Hanway:

". . .After our conversation I realized that I had named three boys who were our best. I have never singled out one player or another because these boys have a great feeling of teamwork and team spirit. They realize that our substitutes are extremely important too."

You can realize the importance of substitutes at Alvo when you note that Coach Hanway has only 10 boys out for football. Yet with that small squad Alvo has already defeated two teams which have won all their other games—Elmwood and Eagle

Starting in the Alvo backfield are Dale and Bob Roelofsz, and Jim Vincent. Roger Gilmore is the center and George Hoss and Bob Neben get the call at the ends.

Substitutes, of whom Hanway speaks highly, are John Garcia, Eugene Eikerman, Dave Hermance and Jim Winget.

Alvo's toughest test may come Friday night against an undefeated Brock team.

But win, lose or draw—the latter possibility isn't likely in six-man football—Alvo's players know they have strong support from Coach Hanway.

Side glances: Johnson and Burchard engaged in one of the scoringest games in Nebraska prep history last week. The final count was 82-58 in favor of Johnson, which got a six-touchdown performance out of Terry Broady. . . Diller is again booming Connie Lawrence for all-state honors. The shifty Eagle star, one of the top six-man ballcarriers around last year, has taken to the air more this season but can still step with the best of them.

Just how much can one player mean to a six-man team? Ask Humphrey backers. With Bob Schnitzler running wild, Humphrey seemed on the way to an all-winning season. Humphrey had a one-touchdown lead over Creston recently when Schnitzler suffered a broken ankle—Creston breezed home. The next week Humphrey lost to Monroe 49-0.

Bill Mansur, former Blue Springs and Clarks coach, writes glowingly of two of his Cedar Rapids players—quarterback Paul Homan, with a pass completion average of 85 per cent, and end John Demuth, good offensively and defensively.

Concordia Girls Omaha Winners

Eleven Concordia College girls won first place in the College Sports Day events at the University of Omaha, according to Miss Eleanor Glaess, Concordia's womens physical education instructor.

The girls participated in volleyball, field hockey, badmiton, ping pong, bango bango, worked out on the trampoline, and also did a bit of rifle practice.

Others colleges participating in the event were Kearney, Midland, College of St. Mary, Doane, Chadron, Luther, and Omaha.

Midget Title To Downtown

You just don't see them anymore—those five-quarter football games.

But the playoff battle for the city midget football championship between the Downtown Merchants and the Northeast Merchants went five periods Wednesday night at College View field—and ended in a scoreless deadlock.

The two teams were still knotted up at 0-0 after four quarters so an extra period was played and again neither team could score.

But the city championship was awarded to Downtown because in three games with Northeast they had won one, lost none and tied two. It was the fourth consecutive city title for Downtown.

Northeast quarterback Dave Lebsack directed his team to the Downtown 20-yard line three times in the final half of regulation time but the Downtown defense held on each occasion.

Other standouts for Northeast were halfback Dave Wolf and center Stan Grell while Darrell Monesmith, Dennie Sedden and Ronnie Chambers paced the Downtown efforts.

Downtown will now meet Roberts Dairy, Omaha midget champion 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Boys Town while Northeast will play Omaha runnerup Brandeis in a preliminary match at 1 p.m.

Link Reserves Dump Northeast

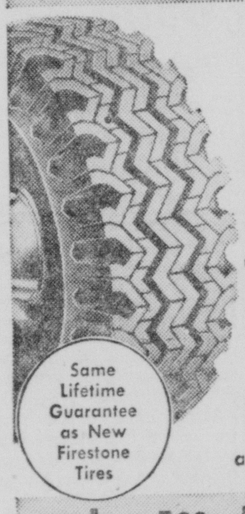

The Lincoln High reserves took a 13-6 first half advantage and then poured on the coal in the second half to take a 33-12 gridiron decision over the Northeast reserves at the Lincoln High Oval Wednesday.

Fred Wilson paced the Lincoln crew by turning in three scoring jaunts of 81, 61 and 10 yards.

YOU BE THE QUARTERBACK

ANSWER

4. Hook pass. Worst call. Quite a risk. Hooks are best if defenders are afraid receivers will get behind him. In the end zone, this threat is minimized.

3 Jump pass. Might go, if the end can get out of the line clean, but doubtful.

2. Off tackle. The defense will have eight or nine men massed on this play. But it could go.

1. Sneak. Best call. It's difficult to stop a good sneak for less than a yard.

Husker Harriers Meet Missouri

Hunting Luck Good

Hunting luck on ducks and geese has been good so far this year, particularly along the Missouri River, State Game Commission Director Mel Steen observed Wednesday.

Duck bags are beginning to slack off and will remain that way until about Nov. 1 when the big migrations from the north begin, he said.

Lincoln High Third Largest In State

Enrollment figures released Wednesday by the Nebraska Activities Association revealed that Omaha South, Omaha Tech and Lincoln Central, all with male enrollments of more than 1,000, rank as the state's largest high schools.

Omaha South leads the Class AA schools with 1,421 boys. Tech is next with 1,176 and Lincoln High third with 1,169. Thirteen other schools make up the group which competes for the Class AA basketball championship.

There is only one change in the Class A field. Valentine replaces Ord. Other changes include: Wilber, Creighton, Geneva, Hemingford, Morrill and West Kearney move from Class C to Class B. Oakland, Hastings St. Cecilia, Wauneta, Oshkosh and Wood River move from Class B to Class C.

The basketball setup, if approved at the NSAA Representative Assembly, will call for the 16 largest schools in Class AA, the next 32 in Class A, next 64 in Class B, next 128 in Class C, next 128 in Class D and the remainder in Class E.

North, Oshkosh Risk Unbeaten Strings Tonight

By RON GIBSON
Star Sports Staff Writer

Two unbeaten 11-man teams put their spotless records on the line tonight in the feature Nebraska high school football games.

Omaha North, the state Class A leader with a 5-0 record, visits Lincoln High in the big one. North, which hasn't beaten Lincoln since 1950, is favored.

Last year Lincoln rallied to win 28-25 after trailing 25-7 late in the game. Lincoln has a 2-3 record this year.

Oshkosh is the other unbeaten team in action tonight. Oshkosh, winner of five straight, hosts Chappell and is the choice to make it six in a row.

Dakota City has an unbeaten string going against Rosalie in an eight-man game. The schedule:

11-MAN GAMES

Omaha North at Lincoln High, North Bend at West Point Guardian Angel, Carroll, Ia. Kuemper vs. Omaha Cathedral at Creighton Stadium, Chappell at Oshkosh, Hebron at Hastings St. Cecilia, Valley B at Elkhorn.

EIGHT-MAN GAMES

Beemer at Bancroft, Rosalie at Dakota City, Hershey at North Platte St. Patrick's, Bonesteel, S.D. at O'Neill St. Mary's.

SIX-MAN GAMES

Harrison at Chadron Assumption, Table Rock at Falls City Sacred Heart, Greeley Sacred Heart at North Loup, Gretna at Ralston B. Petersburg at Monroe, Jennings, Kan. at Holbrook, Yutan at Millard, Palmer at Spalding Academy.

YOU BE THE QUARTERBACK

ANSWER

4. Hook pass. Worst call. Quite a risk. Hooks are best if defenders are afraid receivers will get behind him. In the end zone, this threat is minimized.

3. Jump pass. Might go, if the end can get out of the line clean, but doubtful.

2. Off tackle. The defense will have eight or nine men massed on this play. But it could go.

1. Sneak. Best call. It's difficult to stop a good sneak for less than a yard.

Husker Harriers Meet Missouri

Missouri and Nebraska cross country teams will run the three-mile Pioneers Park course Saturday at 11 a.m.

Both teams lost their season openers. Kansas walloped Missouri 15-50 and Nebraska bowed to Kansas State, 22-36.

Keane To Head Omaha In 1957

OMAHA (AP) — Johnny Keane will head the Omaha Cardinals of the American Assn. in 1957 for the third straight year, General Manager Bill Bergesch announced Wednesday.

This will be Keane's 16th year as a baseball manager. His club finished in second place in the association in 1955 and third in 1956.

Hunting Luck Good

Hunting luck on ducks and geese has been good so far this year, particularly along the Missouri River, State Game Commission Director Mel Steen observed Wednesday.

Duck bags are beginning to slack off and will remain that way until about Nov. 1 when the big migrations from the north begin, he said.

Inmate Contends Arson Charge Should Be Dismissed

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

A Nebraska Penitentiary inmate has contended in Lancaster District Court that a second-degree arson charge against him should be dismissed because he was not brought to trial within two terms of court.

Clarence Jack Jump, 33, charged in the Aug. 16, 1955, prison riot and fire, argued this motion for dismissal of his case and ten other motions Tuesday before Judge John Polk.

Under Nebraska law, Jump contended, a defendant must be tried within two jury terms after indictment, or the charge dismissed.

'Handling Own Defense'

Jump, who is "handling my own defense," head the county attorney's list of cases ready for trial at jury term beginning next Monday.

Following hearing, Judge Polk said he would take the court-term question under advisement, but would summarily dismiss the other motions as "not well taken."

Jump was charged with arson in August, 1955, and was arraigned last March in District Court, where he pleaded innocent to the charge.

Locked Up

The inmate told the court he has pressed for a "speedy trial," believing he will remain in solitary confinement and segregation until after trial.

"I've been constantly locked up since Aug. 16, 1955, he said.

Noting Jump's motion to interview witnesses, Judge Polk said the defendant should be permitted within limits to interview witnesses he expects to call in his defense.

The court's remarks appeared directed toward Tom Dredla, a Board of Control member who was present in court, and Dep. Co. Atty. Dale Fahrnbruch.

In other argument, the inmate charged that "evidence and papers" he had assembled for his defense were confiscated by prison authorities when his cell was searched.

Used Law Book

The inmate related that a law book, that he is using, has been alternately taken away from him and then given back.

Other motions presented by Jump asked that he be given a lie detector test; granted a change of venue, and dismissal of the charge for "double jeopardy."

The inmate also seeks to subpoena a tape recording of his prison trial last Dec. 19 in which he contends that Warden Joseph Bovey "used threats and intimidations" to get him to plead guilty.

The inmate has contended that this trial and the pending District Court trial constitutes "double jeopardy."

Barometric Birds

LAVERNE, Okla. (AP)—E. S. Spicer doesn't need a barometer to predict rain. He says a covey of quail in his big back yard tell him when to shut the windows by what he described as their "rain-making noise."

A Nebraska Penitentiary inmate has contended in Lancaster District Court that a second-degree arson charge against him should be dismissed because he was not brought to trial within two terms of court.

Clarence Jack Jump, 33, charged in the Aug. 16, 1955, prison riot and fire, argued this motion for dismissal of his case and ten other motions Tuesday before Judge John Polk.

Under Nebraska law, Jump contended, a defendant must be tried within two jury terms after indictment, or the charge dismissed.

'Handling Own Defense'

Jump, who is "handling my own defense," head the county attorney's list of cases ready for trial at jury term beginning next Monday.

Following hearing, Judge Polk said he would take the court-term question under advisement, but would summarily dismiss the other motions as "not well taken."

Jump was charged with arson in August, 1955, and was arraigned last March in District Court, where he pleaded innocent to the charge.

Locked Up

The inmate told the court he has pressed for a "speedy trial," believing he will remain in solitary confinement and segregation until after trial.

"I've been constantly locked up since Aug. 16, 1955, he said.

Noting Jump's motion to interview witnesses, Judge Polk said the defendant should be permitted within limits to interview witnesses he expects to call in his defense.

The court's remarks appeared directed toward Tom Dredla, a Board of Control member who was present in court, and Dep. Co. Atty. Dale Fahrnbruch.

In other argument, the inmate charged that "evidence and papers" he had assembled for his defense were confiscated by prison authorities when his cell was searched.

Used Law Book

The inmate related that a law book, that he is using, has been alternately taken away from him and then given back.

Other motions presented by Jump asked that he be given a lie detector test; granted a change of venue, and dismissal of the charge for "double jeopardy."

The inmate also seeks to subpoena a tape recording of his prison trial last Dec. 19 in which he contends that Warden Joseph Bovey "used threats and intimidations" to get him to plead guilty.

The inmate has contended that this trial and the pending District Court trial constitutes "double jeopardy."

What do I run into in the journals, across from the comic page, the following headline:

"Statistics Show Marriage Is Becoming More Popular With U.S. Men."

This seems important news. It implies that marriage has been unpopular heretofore. And now, it has become popular again. Like double-breasted suits.

Marriage is an intriguing subject. Because so many people do it or talk about doing it. Whether it was popular or not never really occurred to me. I thought it was sort of like brussels sprouts. You take it or leave it alone, but since it usually comes with the main course, you take it.

Well, the headline turned out to be just another piece of two-column, 24-point Bodoni boldface.

The story says an insurance company and the Census Bureau figured out there are now 39,000,000 American husbands. This is more than there were last year.

"Know what I figure?" said the insurance man to the Census Man. "I figure marriage is getting popular."

They then sat down and sent out this information.

Never asked a single husband, "Is marriage popular with you?" If they had, they might have picked up some curious answers. This is pretty sloppy reporting if you ask me.

Not too long ago I read some startling statistics that one out of three marriages ended in divorce. I could send out statistics like this and prove that marriage is very unpopular. Or at any rate, the people involved in a lot of marriages were not winning popularity contests.

This business of adding up a lot of people and then deciding how they feel ought to be stopped. It is misleading. And I am surprised the way a big outfit like the Census Bureau got off half-cocked.

☆ ☆ ☆

When I am in doubt about tender thoughts, I turn to the poets who are tender people. I find the poets speak highly of love but are very low on marriage.

"He who would marry is on the road to repentance," said a cat named Philemon in 310 B.C.

"If thou wilt marry, marry a fool," said Shakespeare.

Actually the talk about marriage among poets is so bad I do not think I should quote it. We really ought to do a census on poets and see if any of them are married. I imagine their wives regret it if they are.

Still, the figures show that 39,000,000 gentlemen stepped up and said, "I do." You cannot get around that. The typical American marries at an early age, too, the Census people found out.

I think this will be good news to ladies. I do not doubt for an instant that marriage is popular with ladies. Because when you get two ladies together that is just about all they talk about. Who is marrying who.

Not that they care. Marriage is very popular with ladies, not who they marry. In fact, the person they marry is often very unpopular with them. But the marriage itself is very popular. Ladies are kind of daffy on the subject if you ask me. They would even marry a poet.

Anyway, I think the Census people and the insurance people ought to stick to their counting and selling polices. And not go off into the wild blue yonder with a lot of conjecture.

Just because a lot of people are doing something doesn't mean that it is so popular. A lot of gentlemen are working for a living. So you can say work was popular. But you know why I think they are working? I think they are working because they are married. And, cats, if you are married, you gotta work. No other answer.

New Blanket Bond System To Be Instituted At Statehouse

By ROY CAMPBELL
Star Staff Writer

A new bonding procedure for employes of the state, including clerks and typists, has been set into motion by State Insurance Director Thomas Pansing.

The new procedure calls for a blanket bond of the state's 9,911 employes with an aggregate penalty bond of $25,000 insuring the state against loss.

Bids on the blanket bond have been called for Nov. 13th with the bond scheduled to go into effect shortly after the first of the year.

Essentially, the blanket bond will include many state employes not formerly covered. These will not include those officers of the state who, by Constitutional provision are required to be bonded.

Such officers are the state treasurer who has the highest recorded bond, $1 million. The lowest now required is for deputy state sheriffs, $2,000.

A change in state law by the last Legislature took the bonding program out of the hands of the secretary of the Board of Lands and Funds and put it in the Insurance Department.

The Legislature also provided that the director, Pansing, should provide the manner and amount of bonds for state employes, other than those established by law.

The benefit of the blanket bond, Pansing said, will be the lower premium cost to the state. Under the new procedure, each department will be charged on a prorated basis.

Pansing said in a press conference Wednesday he would ask the Legislature to make certain changes in bonds required for some state officers. This would iron out inequities in the present bond program, he said.

One instance given was on bonds for institution stewards, those handling the food purchasing and disbursing. Presently they are operating under $5,000 bond which should be higher because of the amount of money passing through their hands, Pansing said.

The new blanket bond also will cover office employes higher than the heads of the departments, such as the adjutant general who presently has a $5,000 bond required by state law. Workers in the office will be bonded for $25,000.

Pansing said another problem that should be ironed out is the state official who required more than one bond because of his holding more than one job. An instance given was John K. Selleck, business manager of the University of Nebraska.

Besides the busines manager job, Selleck holds down the position of business manager of the athletic department, requiring another bond.

Railroads, Unions Said Near Agreement

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's railroads and a score of labor unions representing over a million rail workers Wednesday were reported nearing an agreement for a three-year contract providing substantial pay increases.

Negotiations are being carried on quietly in Chicago with two members of the National Mediation Board presiding.

The unions have taken steps for a strike should the talks fail, although there is little immediate danger of a walkout. Under the Railway Labor Act, Eisenhower would name an emergency board to recommend settlement terms if the labor-management talks broke down. This would delay any possible strike by at least two months.

10 Cents More

There have been hints a settlement will provide a wage boost of about 10 cents an hour for the first year of a three-year agreement, with provisions for adjusting the rates according to living cost changes.

Some of the unions representing operating employes — the 200,000 or so workers who man the moving trains — have proposed the same welfare plan coverage as the railroads now provide the more than 800,000 nonoperating employes. These include hospital, medical and surgical benefits.

Some unions have also asked for holiday concessions and shorter working hours.

The carriers also have a long set of bargaining demands. One of the major ones is a lengthening of hours comprising a day's work. A conductor, for example, now gets a day's pay for traveling a hundred miles or working eight hours. The railroads want this changed to 160 miles or eight hours, saying it is more realistic on modern fast trains.

More Leeway

The railroads also seek more leeway in making up train crews, a move bitterly opposed by the unions, who say it would reduce the number of jobs.

Higher labor costs on the railroads would bolster pending carrier requests to the Interstate Commerce Commission for sizable boosts in both passenger fares and freight rates.

A rail settlement would probably be the final big labor negotiations hurdle in the nation in 1956, a year of record wage increases.

Mysterious Red-Ousted Girl In U.S.

NEW YORK (INS)—The American girl who was expelled from Czechoslovakia by the Communist government arrived in New York under somewhat mysterious circumstances Wednesday by plane from London. She was not permitted to talk with reporters who met her at Idlewild Airport.

Miss Vera Osso, a 21-year-old typist at the American Embassy in Prague, has been declared persona non grata by Czech authorities who accused her of traveling around Czechoslovakia with false documents. The State Department listed her address as Box 8, Yorkville, Ohio.

The attractive brunette was met by two State Department officials and was guarded during her 35-minute stay at the airport by four Port Authority policemen.

Sped Away

She was kept under wraps in a public health room while State Department men cleared her through customs. Then she was rushed out of a rear entrance, pushed into the back seat of a dark sedan and sped away to an undisclosed destination.

Photographers and reporters who had been waiting for Miss Osso were ordered by customs officials to vacate the area. But some of the photographers managed to get a few pictures of the embassy typist as she ducked into the waiting automobile.

The dark-haired girl sat alone in the back seat while the State Department's Thomas McQuillan and William Canfield climbed in the front seat.

Company Would Compromise To Avoid Bus Strike

OMAHA (AP) — President L. G. Barnes said the Omaha Transit Co. would accept a compromise offer to avoid a drivers' strike.

Barnes wrote to the public interest members of the Board of Directors—Morris E. Jacobs, W. B. Millard Jr., and Denman Kountze.

Barnes pledged the company to contribute up to $50,000 a year if the driver's union will "contract its demands" by about the same amount, and if the city cancels the occupation tax and takes on all costs of snow removal.

Long-Life Formula

LONDON (AP) — Mrs. Annie Jones celebrated her 101st birthday this week still hearty and happy despite failing eyesight. Her formula for longevity: "You just wait until the Lord sends for you."

Brief Says Peery Evidence Enough To Warrant Jury

A brief was filed with the State Supreme Court by the attorney general's office contending that evidence was sufficient in the Wesley Peery rape to warrant its presentation to a jury.

Peery, 31, of Lincoln was convicted by a Sarpy County District Court jury of raping a 27-year-old Council Bluffs woman last January.

Peery's attorney is basing his appeal on the contention there was not enough evidence against Peery to justify submitting the issue to the jury.

Pen Inmate Walks Away From Detail At Dairy

A Nebraska Penitentiary inmate serving a six-year term for bigamy escaped Wednesday by walking off from an early morning dairy detail, the warden's office reported.

Railroads, Unions Said Near Agreement

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's railroads and a score of labor unions representing over a million rail workers Wednesday were reported nearing an agreement for a three-year contract providing substantial pay increases.

Negotiations are being carried on quietly in Chicago with two members of the National Mediation Board presiding.

The unions have taken steps for a strike should the talks fail, although there is little immediate danger of a walkout. Under the Railway Labor Act, Eisenhower would name an emergency board to recommend settlement terms if the labor-management talks broke down. This would delay any possible strike by at least two months.

10 Cents More

There have been hints a settlement will provide a wage boost of about 10 cents an hour for the first year of a three-year agreement, with provisions for adjusting the rates according to living cost changes.

Some of the unions representing operating employes — the 200,000 or so workers who man the moving trains — have proposed the same welfare plan coverage as the railroads now provide the more than 800,000 nonoperating employes. These include hospital, medical and surgical benefits.

Some unions have also asked for holiday concessions and shorter working hours.

The carriers also have a long set of bargaining demands. One of the major ones is a lengthening of hours comprising a day's work. A conductor, for example, now gets a day's pay for traveling a hundred miles or working eight hours. The railroads want this changed to 160 miles or eight hours, saying it is more realistic on modern fast trains.

More Leeway

The railroads also seek more leeway in making up train crews, a move bitterly opposed by the unions, who say it would reduce the number of jobs.

Higher labor costs on the railroads would bolster pending carrier requests to the Interstate Commerce Commission for sizable boosts in both passenger fares and freight rates.

A rail settlement would probably be the final big labor negotiations hurdle in the nation in 1956, a year of record wage increases.

Mysterious Red-Ousted Girl In U.S.

NEW YORK (INS)—The American girl who was expelled from Czechoslovakia by the Communist government arrived in New York under somewhat mysterious circumstances Wednesday by plane from London. She was not permitted to talk with reporters who met her at Idlewild Airport.

Miss Vera Osso, a 21-year-old typist at the American Embassy in Prague, has been declared persona non grata by Czech authorities who accused her of traveling around Czechoslovakia with false documents. The State Department listed her address as Box 8, Yorkville, Ohio.

The attractive brunette was met by two State Department officials and was guarded during her 35-minute stay at the airport by four Port Authority policemen.

Sped Away

She was kept under wraps in a public health room while State Department men cleared her through customs. Then she was rushed out of a rear entrance, pushed into the back seat of a dark sedan and sped away to an undisclosed destination.

Photographers and reporters who had been waiting for Miss Osso were ordered by customs officials to vacate the area. But some of the photographers managed to get a few pictures of the embassy typist as she ducked into the waiting automobile.

The dark-haired girl sat alone in the back seat while the State Department's Thomas McQuillan and William Canfield climbed in the front seat.

Company Would Compromise To Avoid Bus Strike

OMAHA (AP) — President L. G. Barnes said the Omaha Transit Co. would accept a compromise offer to avoid a drivers' strike.

Barnes wrote to the public interest members of the Board of Directors—Morris E. Jacobs, W. B. Millard Jr., and Denman Kountze.

Barnes pledged the company to contribute up to $50,000 a year if the driver's union will "contract its demands" by about the same amount, and if the city cancels the occupation tax and takes on all costs of snow removal.

Brief Says Peery Evidence Enough To Warrant Jury

A brief was filed with the State Supreme Court by the attorney general's office contending that evidence was sufficient in the Wesley Peery rape to warrant its presentation to a jury.

Peery, 31, of Lincoln was convicted by a Sarpy County District Court jury of raping a 27-year-old Council Bluffs woman last January.

Peery's attorney is basing his appeal on the contention there was not enough evidence against Peery to justify submitting the issue to the jury.

Grain Prices Rise Briskly

CHICAGO (AP) — A strong buying move got underway in grains late in the session on the Board of Trade Wednesday, causing a brisk price run-up in all pits.

Just about every figure on the board closed at the day's high. New seasonal peaks were set by March and May wheat. March and May oats and May and July soybeans.

The market opened on a burst of buying which quickly faded. A good part of the early gain had been lost by mid-morning.

From then on a climb began, and in the last half hour it became a steep climb.

Wheat closed 7/8-1⅛ higher, corn 1 1/8-1¼ higher, oats ⅜ lower to ⅝ higher and rye 1 to 1⅛ higher.

Soybeans closed 3 to 5 cents higher and lard unchanged to 23 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Mart Continues Uncertain Path

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued its uncertain path of this week with another decline on slim volume Wednesday.

Pivotal rails and selected issues tried to buck the trend, but gains by the carriers were pretty well wiped out before the close and some special issues which had been ahead of the game swung to the minus side late in the day.

While key stocks fell generally from a few cents to around $1 or so, there were a number of issues which registered steep declines.

The general economic and specific corporate news was bullish rather than otherwise and the market had ample excuse for a rise. It was a bit higher at the opening but it lapsed promptly into irregularity and by mid-day was down on average.

Brokers ascribed the performance to technical reasons, noting again the thinness of this market which, as in recent sessions, makes it possible to establish fairly wide price movements on limited offerings of stock.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 50 cents to $178.50 with industrials down $1.90, rails down 20 cents and utilities down 10 cents.

Volume totaled 1,610,000 shares, compared with 1,550,000 shares Tuesday, both totals well below the average for the year.

The American Stock Exchange was lower on volume of 620,000 shares, against 640,000 Tuesday.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—U. S. Government bonds were mixed but corporates declined in slack trading Wednesday.

On the big board, rails, industrials and utilities all were lower with only investment quality issues resisting the downtrend.

Intermediate governments showed strength, improving on Tuesday's gains but long range bonds were weak.

Bond trading volume receded to $2,010,000 par value on the New York Stock Exchange from Tuesday's light $2,075,000.

Grain Prices Rise Briskly

CHICAGO (AP) — A strong buying move got underway in grains late in the session on the Board of Trade Wednesday, causing a brisk price run-up in all pits.

Just about every figure on the board closed at the day's high. New seasonal peaks were set by March and May wheat, March and May oats and May and July soybeans.

The market opened on a burst of buying which quickly faded. A good part of the early gain had been lost by mid-morning.

From then on a climb began, and in the last half hour it became a steep climb.

Wheat closed ⅞-1¾ higher, corn 1⅛-1⅝ higher, oats ⅜ lower to ⅝ higher and rye 1 to 1½ higher.

Soybeans closed 3 to 5 cents higher and lard unchanged to 23 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Mart Continues Uncertain Path

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued its uncertain path of this week with another decline on slim volume Wednesday.

Pivotal rails and selected issues tried to buck the trend, but gains by the carriers were pretty well wiped out before the close and some special issues which had been ahead of the game swung to the minus side late in the day.

While key stocks fell generally from a few cents to around $1 or so, there were a number of issues which registered steep declines.

The general economic and specific corporate news was bullish rather than otherwise and the market had ample excuse for a rise. It was a bit higher at the opening but it lapsed promptly into irregularity and by mid-day was down on average.

Brokers ascribed the performance to technical reasons, noting again the thinness of this market which, as in recent sessions, makes it possible to establish fairly wide price movements on limited offerings of stock.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 80 cents to $178.50 with industrials down $1.90, rails down 20 cents and utilities down 10 cents.

Volume totaled 1,640,000 shares, compared with 1,580,000 shares Tuesday, both totals well below the average for the year.

The American Stock Exchange was lower on volume of 620,000 shares, against 640,000 Tuesday.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—U. S. Government bonds were mixed but corporates decined in slack trading Wednesday.

On the big board, rails, industrials and utilities all were lower with only invesment quality issues resisting the downtrend.

Intermediate governments showed strength, improving on Tuesday's gains but long range bonds were weak.

Bond trading volume receded to $2,310,000 par value on the New York Stock Exchange from Tuesday's light $2,955,000.

Ike Orders H-Bomb Paper, Calls Stevenson 'Incorrect'

By ARTHUR EDSON

SEATTLE (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday ordered a complete history prepared on the hydrogen bomb because he believes, an aide said, that Adlai Stevenson has made "incorrect statements" in his campaign speeches.

Presidential Secretary James C. Hagerty told a news conference the statement of the administration's views will be released in Washington next week.

Called For Halt

Stevenson, in the Democratic campaign for the presidency, repeatedly has called for a halt in the testing of superbombs. Monday night in Chicago, he said "if elected president, I would count it in the first order of business" to consult with Great Britain and Russia on how the atomic tests could be stopped.

Eisenhower told a news conference in Washington last week that he had spoken his "last word" both on the H-bomb and on the military draft.

But Stevenson's speech Monday night changed the President's mind.

Hagerty said Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of State Dulles would draft the report, and that it would be issued as a "government paper."

Campaign Plans

Asked whether President Eisenhower might make a campaign speech in Boston, Hagerty said "It is under consideration."

In 1952 Eisenhower closed his campaign in Boston on election eve.

Marriage Invalid

PARIS (INS)—A Paris court declared the marriage of Bolivian tin tycoon Antenor Patino invalid but ordered him to share equally with his wife his estimated hundred-million-dollar fortune.

The court said the marriage contract Patino signed on April 7, 1931 was not valid because the bride, Christina De Borbon, was a minor. She was 17 years old at the time.

Patino promptly announced he was appealing the verdict, latest in a series in various European courts.

AFL-CIO Loses In Waterfront Bargaining Vote

NEW YORK (Thursday) (AP)—Counsel for the AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Longshoremen early Thursday conceded defeat by the Independent Longshoremen's Assn. in a bargaining election for control of New York's vast waterfront.

Attorney Howard Schulman conceded that his union had failed for the third time in less than three years to unseat the ILA.

With nearly 5,000 of the 22,000 dockworkers' votes uncounted, Schulman predicted the ILA's margin of victory would be about 3,000. The election was conducted by the National Labor Relations Board.

The ILA was expelled from the old AFL in 1953 for alleged gangster domination. In each succeeding election, the IBL, with strong AFL-CIO support, had failed to win the bargaining elections.

Bullet Narrowly Misses Motorists

Lincoln Star Special

LOUP CITY, Neb. — A stray bullet whizzed through the rear window of the car of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson and sons recently while the family was en route to Loup City to visit.

The bullet lodged in the top of the back of the car only minutes after small Mark Larson had slid down in the seat after standing in that corner. If the child had been still standing in that spot, the bullet would have struck him in the head, observers said.

The other Larson boy was standing on the floor in front of his brother. Flying glass cut Mark's ear in several places.

Farm Surplus 'Inheritance' Claim Lashed

. . . By Brannan

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP)—Former Secretary of Agriculture Brannan Wednesday accused the Republicans of "hypocracy" in claiming the Eisenhower administration inherited large farm surpluses.

"The Eisenhower administration did not inherit a surplus. It inherited less than a safe supply of reserve commodities and deliberately set out to increase production," Brannan said at a meeting here, "It also ceased to use food for making friends all over the world."

The former agriculture secretary said the farm surplus in 1952 amounted to less than two billion dollars but by 1956 it had increased to nine billion dollars.

Brannan accused the Republicans of "deliberately" accumulating farm surpluses "with the purpose of embarrasing the farm program" and said Secretary Benson's advisors are "presidents of large corporations, banks and feed processors."

Meanwhile, Frank Sorrel of Syracuse, Democratic nominee for governor, told the same group that "undoubtedly" one of the reasons taxes have gone up 22 per cent in Nebraska in the last two years ago is because Gov. Anderson "Hasn't stayed home and attended to business."

Sorrell declared that Anderson and President Eisenhower alike "spend most of their time away from their offices, and permit subordinates to do their work—with the usual results that the decisions made by the subordinates often react against their superiors."

Present Leaders 'Destroying State GOP'—DemoSorrell

Lincoln Star Special

DAKOTA CITY, Neb. — Frank Sorrell, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, charged here Wednesday night the Nebraska Republican party is being destroyed by its present leadership.

The Syracuse Democrat made his remarks to a Young Democratic rally.

Sorrell pointed out that the most serious charges of "misfeasance against the Anderson regime" were not being made by Democrats but by Republicans headed by George Morris, petition candidate listing himself as an independent.

It was Morris, Sorrell said, who charged Anderson regarded himself "above the law and not bound by the law." It was also Morris, Sorrell continued, who said Anderson "deliberately violated the law in reappointing a man to the game commission in violation of the laws of the state."

Sorrell told the young Democrats that the state Democrats "this year have the golden opportunity to elect the entire state ticket."

X-2 ROCKET PROBABLY HIT 2,100 MPH

WASHINGTON (INS)—The recent record-shattering rocket flight at a reported speed of more than 2,100 miles per hour was the result of a sudden "once-in-a-thousand" decision by the pilot, who was killed moments later.

This was disclosed by the Air Force, which said the pilot, Capt. Milburn G. Apt, was up in a rocket ship for the first time when the Bell X-2 experimental plane crashed. It said the flight was to be only a routine familiarization trip.

Instead, Apt made the longest and fastest full power run in aviation history after the X-2 was released from its mother plane.

'Smear' Charged

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. James E. Murray (D-Mont), asked President Eisenhower to repudiate what he called a "red smear" campaign against ex-Rep. John Carroll, Democratic candidate for the Senate in Colorado.

Murray urged the President in a telegram to call on "your close friend, Dan Thornton, in whose favor the smear is being conducted," to repudiate the campaign also.

Thornton, former Colorado governor, is Carroll's opponent in the senatorial race.

Ike Orders H-Bomb Paper, Calls Stevenson 'Incorrect'

By ARTHUR EDSON

SEATTLE (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday ordered a complete history prepared on the hydrogen bomb because he believes, an aide said, that Adlai Stevenson has made "incorrect statements" in his campaign speeches.

Presidential Secretary James C. Hagerty told a news conference the statement of the administration's views will be released in Washington next week.

Called For Halt

Stevenson, in the Democratic campaign for the presidency, repeatedly has called for a halt in the testing of superbombs. Monday night in Chicago, he said "if elected president, I would count it in the first order of business" to consult with Great Britain and Russia on how the atomic tests could be stopped.

Eisenhower told a news conference in Washington last week that he had spoken his "last word" both on the H-bomb and on the military draft.

But Stevenson's speech Monday night changed the President's mind.

Hagerty said Atomic Energy Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss, Secretary of Defense Wilson and Secretary of State Dulles would draft the report, and that it would be issued as a "government paper."

Campaign Plans

Asked whether President Eisenhower might make a campaign speech in Boston, Hagerty said "It is under consideration."

In 1952 Eisenhower closed his campaign in Boston on election eve.

AFL-CIO Loses In Waterfront Bargaining Vote

NEW YORK (Thursday) (AP)—Counsel for the AFL-CIO International Brotherhood of Longshoremen early Thursday conceded defeat by the Independent Longshoremen's Assn. in a bargaining election for control of New York's vast waterfront.

Attorney Howard Schulman conceded that his union had failed for the third time in less than three years to unseat the ILA.

With nearly 5,000 of the 22,000 dockworkers' votes uncounted, Schulman predicted the ILA's margin of victory would be about 3,000. The election was conducted by the National Labor Relations Board.

The ILA was expelled from the old AFL in 1953 for alleged gangster domination. In each succeeding election, the IBL, with strong AFL-CIO support, had failed to win the bargaining elections.

Marriage Invalid

PARIS (INS)—A Paris court declared the marriage of Bolivian tin tycoon Antenor Patino invalid but ordered him to share equally with his wife his estimated hundred-million-dollar fortune.

The court said the marriage contract Patino signed on April 7, 1931 was not valid because the bride, Christina De Borbon, was a minor. She was 17 years old at the time.

Patino promptly announced he was appealing the verdict, latest in a series in various European courts.

Bullet Narrowly Misses Motorists

Lincoln Star Special

LOUP CITY, Neb. — A stray bullet whizzed through the rear window of the car of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Larson and sons recently while the family was en route to Loup City to visit.

The bullet lodged in the top of the back of the car only minutes after small Mark Larson had slid down in the seat after standing in that corner. If the child had been still standing in that spot, the bullet would have struck him in the head, observers said.

The other Larson boy was standing on the floor in front of his brother. Flying glass cut Mark's ear in several places.

Farm Surplus 'Inheritance' Claim Lashed

. . . By Brannan

GRAND ISLAND, Neb. (AP)—Former Secretary of Agriculture Brannan Wednesday accused the Republicans of "hypocracy" in claiming the Eisenhower administration inherited large farm surpluses.

"The Eisenhower administration did not inherit a surplus. It inherited less than a safe supply of reserve commodities and deliberately set out to increase production," Brannan said at a meeting here, "It also ceased to use food for making friends all over the world."

The former agriculture secretary said the farm surplus in 1952 amounted to less than two billion dollars but by 1956 it had increased to nine billion dollars.

Brannan accused the Republicans of "deliberately" accumulating farm surpluses "with the purpose of embarrasing the farm program" and said Secretary Benson's advisors are "presidents of large corporations, banks and feed processors."

Meanwhile, Frank Sorrel of Syracuse, Democratic nominee for governor, told the same group that "undoubtedly" one of the reasons taxes have gone up 22 per cent in Nebraska in the last two years ago is because Gov. Anderson "Hasn't stayed home and attended to business."

Sorrell declared that Anderson and President Eisenhower alike "spend most of their time away from their offices, and permit subordinates to do their work—with the usual results that the decisions made by the subordinates often react against their superiors."

Present Leaders 'Destroying State GOP'–DemoSorrell

Lincoln Star Special

DAKOTA CITY, Neb. — Frank Sorrell, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, charged here Wednesday night the Nebraska Republican party is being destroyed by its present leadership.

The Syracuse Democrat made his remarks to a Young Democratic rally.

Sorrell pointed out that the most serious charges of "misfeasance against the Anderson regime" were not being made by Democrats but by Republicans headed by George Morris, petition candidate listing himself as an independent.

It was Morris, Sorrell said, who charged Anderson regarded himself "above the law and not bound by the law." It was also Morris, Sorrell continued, who said Anderson "deliberately violated the law in reappointing a man to the game commission in violation of the laws of the state."

Sorrell told the young Democrats that the state Democrats "this year have the golden opportunity to elect the entire state ticket."

X-2 ROCKET PROBABLY HIT 2,100 MPH

WASHINGTON (INS)—The recent record-shattering rocket flight at a reported speed of more than 2,100 miles per hour was the result of a sudden "once-in-a-thousand" decision by the pilot, who was killed moments later.

This was disclosed by the Air Force, which said the pilot, Capt. Milburn G. Apt, was up in a rocket ship for the first time when the Bell X-2 experimental plane crashed. It said the flight was to be only a routine familiarization trip.

Instead, Apt made the longest and fastest full power run in aviation history after the X-2 was released from its mother plane.

'Smear' Charged

WASHINGTON (INS) — Sen. James E. Murray (D-Mont), asked President Eisenhower to repudiate what he called a "red smear" campaign against ex-Rep. John Carroll, Democratic candidate for the Senate in Colorado.

Murray urged the President in a telegram to call on "your close friend, Dan Thornton, in whose favor the smear is being conducted," to repudiate the campaign also.

Thornton, former Colorado governor, is Carroll's opponent in the senatorial race.

Kefauver: Administration Can't Think In Terms Of General Peace, Missed Chance At Geneva

By THOMAS J. FOLEY

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (INS) — Sen. Estes Kefauver asserted Wednesday night that the Eisenhower administration apparently lacks "the capacity to think in terms of general peace."

Winding up a three-stop tour of Missouri, the Democratic vice presidential candidate said that the foundation could have been laid at the Big Four meeting in Geneva 18 months ago for "some real and genuine moves toward peace" if the administration had "the capacity."

Kefauver described world conditions as "a condition of armistice" rather than peace. He charged that the current international situation finds "both sides armed to the teeth with the most wicked weapons within the conception of mankind."

'Primary Issue'

He described peace as the primary issue of the political campaign. In a speech at Springfield, Kefauver said:

"What we need, and the whole world yearns for, is a grand design for peace. However, President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles are not working on it—or apparently even thinking about it."

The Senator said that President Eisenhower has described as "nonsense" Democratic Presidential Nominee Adlai Stevenson's proposals to work for an end to hydrogen bomb tests and the military draft. Kefauver declared:

"I do not believe that there are many Americans who believe that it is nonsense to hope for peace and work for peace."

'Vetoed Promises'

In an earlier speech before an estimated 2,400 persons in St. Joseph, Mo., Kefauver chided the President on his veto of the "Democratic farm bill." He said Mr. Eisenhower "vetoed his own promises" because, Kefauver added, there was nothing in the bill that the President had not promised himself.

"The only thing we'll get," Kefauver asserted, "if we re-elect President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon is four more years of (Agriculture) Secretary Benson."

In St. Joseph, Kefauver also accused Nixon of using "sly tricks" and "false attacks" to win elections.

'Played Hooky'

Kefauver charged that Nixon "played hooky the day they read the Constitution," and declared:

"As the vice president, he is next in line for succession should the President fail to serve out his term."

And since the President is now limited to two terms, he said, a Republican victory Nov. 6 would mean that Nixon would be "the center of power."

10 Years Ago

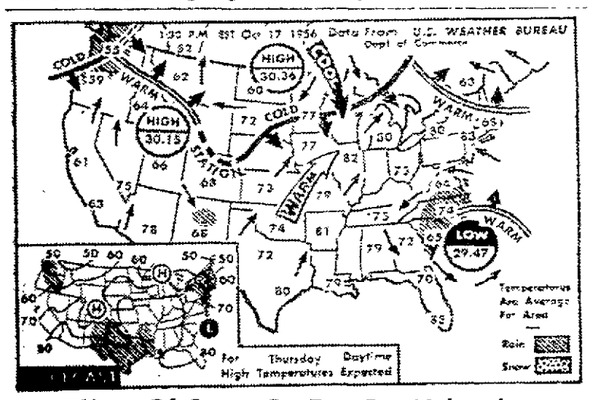

In attacking Nixon, the Tennessee Senator recalled earlier campaigns in California which first put Nixon in Congress 10 years ago.

Kefauver, on a one-day swing through Missouri, criticized Nixon in a talk in St. Joseph, one of two speech - making stops.

At a St. Louis news confcrence, the Democratic vice presidential nominee accused President Eisenhower and Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson of "trying to alibi" what he termed their "failures" by charging that Democrats never brought farm prosperity except in wartime.

Too Much Static

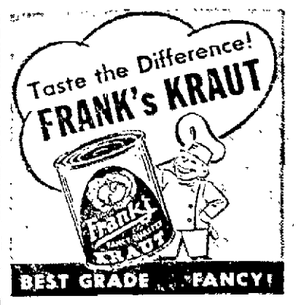

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico and the United States have begun talks here on a treaty to eliminate radio interference between the two nations. Intermittent negotiations have been held for years. Mexico demands more air space than the United States in willing to give.

Kefauver: Administration Can't Think In Terms Of General Peace, Missed Chance At Geneva

By THOMAS J. FOLEY

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (INS) — Sen. Estes Kefauver asserted Wednesday night that the Eisenhower administration apparently lacks "the capacity to think in terms of general peace."

Winding up a three-stop tour of Missouri, the Democratic vice presidential candidate said that the foundation could have been laid at the Big Four meeting in Geneva 18 months ago for "some real and genuine moves toward peace" if the administration had "the capacity."

Kefauver described world conditions as "a condition of armistice" rather than peace. He charged that the current international situation finds "both sides armed to the teeth with the most wicked weapons within the conception of mankind."

'Primary Issue'

He described peace as the primary issue of the political campaign. In a speech at Springfield, Kefauver said:

"What we need, and the whole world yearns for, is a grand design for peace. However, President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles are not working on it—or apparently even thinking about it."

The Senator said that President Eisenhower has described as "nonsense" Democratic Presidential Nomineee Adlai Stevenson's proposals to work for an end to hydrogen bomb tests and the military draft. Kefauver declared:

"I do not believe that there are many Americans who believe that it is nonsense to hope for peace and work for peace."

'Vetoed Promises'

In an earlier speech before an estimated 2,400 persons in St. Joseph, Mo., Kefauver chided the President on his veto of the "Democratic farm bill." He said Mr. Eisenhower "vetoed his own promises" because, Kefauver added, there was nothing in the bill that the President had not promised himself.

"The only thing we'll get," Kefauver asserted, "if we re-elect President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon is four more years of (Agriculture) Secretary Benson."

In St. Joseph, Kefauver also accused Nixon of using "sly tricks" and "false attacks" to win elections.

'Played Hooky'

Kefauver charged that Nixon "played hooky the day they read the Constitution," and declared:

"As the vice president, he is next in line for succession should the President fail to serve out his term."

And since the President is now limited to two terms, he said, a Republican victory Nov. 6 would mean that Nixon would be "the center of power."

10 Years Ago

In attacking Nixon, the Tennessee Senator recalled earlier campaigns in California which first put Nixon in Congress 10 years ago.

Kefauver, on a one-day swing through Missouri, criticized Nixon in a talk in St. Joseph, one of two speech - making stops.

At a St. Louis news conference, the Democratic vice presidential nominee accused President Eisenhower and Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson of "trying to alibi" what he termed their "failures" by charging that Democrats never brought farm prosperity except in wartime.

Too Much Static

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico and the United States have begun talks here on a treaty to eliminate radio interference between the two nations. Intermittent negotiations have been held for years. Mexico demands more air space than the United States in willing to give.
